2011 FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Maybe it is more than a construction site.

Maybe it serves as a symbol of the very palpable renovation currently going on around the USC football program, one that requires labor and time in order to produce a magnificent product.

When Trojan players head to practice each day this season, they will walk past the on-going construction of the John McKay Center, a $70-million, 110,00-square foot state-of-the-art facility just west of Heritage Hall slated for a summer 2012 opening. It will house football offices, an academic center, weight room, athletic training room and digital media production facility.

As second-year USC head coach Lane Kiffin embarks upon the 2011 season, he understands that it will take a similar amount of hard work and patience as he continues to build and revamp the Trojan program.

The first step came last year, with modest success. USC posted an 8-5 overall record in 2010, with 2 of those losses coming on field goals at the gun in consecutive games (and another loss coming on a touchdown with 2:23 to play). The Trojans tied for third in the Pac-10 at 5-4, but were ineligible for post-season play because of an NCAA penalty for violations dating to the previous coaching era. USC was left short on personnel when players transferred once the sanctions were announced. The Trojans had just 72 players on scholarship in 2010 (13 shy of the NCAA limit) and 17 of them didn't see action.

The NCAA denied USC's appeal for relief from those NCAA sanctions, which include a 2-year bowl ban (the Trojans are bowl ineligible again in 2011), the loss of 30 scholarships over a 3-year period (a limit of 15 available for each of the 2012, 2013 and 2014 seasons) and a 4-year probationary period.

In 2011, Kiffin can call upon 13 returning starters (6 on offense and 7 on defense, but no specialists). Some 73 squadmen are back from last year, but only 39 saw action in 2010 (all but 1 of the 39 were letter winners and 26 were on USC's season-ending 2-deep). Alarmingly, 70 players on USC's 109-man roster have never taken a collegiate snap and only 14 Trojans have started at least 10 times.

To bolster this lack of depth, Kiffin and his coaching staff put together a 2011 recruiting class that experts ranked among the best in the country. USC hauled in 31 new players (4 came from junior college), including 8 signees who enrolled at USC this past spring semester and participated in 2011 spring practice.

Adding to this year's challenge, these Trojans will be competing in the newly-expanded Pac-12 Conference, as Utah and Colorado join the league in 2011.

With Kiffin calling the plays last year, USC's offensive production increased appreciably from 2009 (by 42 yards and 5 points per game).

This year's offense features a pair of players who are among the nation's best at their positions: quarterback Matt Barkley and wide receiver-returner Robert Woods. Barkley, a 2-year starter and 2-time Davey O'Brien Award semifinalist who figures to be mentioned among the Heisman Trophy hopefuls, already is sixth on USC's career passing chart and seventh on the total offense list. He completed 63% of his passes last year with 26 touchdowns (including a pair of 5-TD outings). The exciting Woods was a 2010 Freshman All-American and the Pac-10 Offensive Freshman of the Year while leading USC in receptions (65), all-purpose yards (a USC freshman record 1,817) and kickoff returns (a USC season yardage record 971).

Other offensive starters returning are tailback Marc Tyler, USC's 2010 rushing leader (913 yards with 9 TDs), tight end Rhett Ellison (21 catches in 2010), tackle Matt Kalil and center Khaled Holmes. Wide receivers Brandon Carswell and Brice Butler and tailback Dillon Baxter are others back with limited starts to their name.

The Trojan defense took a beating last year, allowing more total yards (400) and points (27) per game and TD passes (30) than ever, and it was especially vulnerable late in games (allowing 118 fourth-quarter points).

The defense's strength in 2011 should be the line, which returns 6 players with significant starting experience: ends Nick Perry (7.5 tackles for loss, 4 sacks in 2010), Wes Horton (5.5 tackles for loss, 4 sacks in 2010) and converted linebacker Devon Kennard (72 tackles, 7 for a loss in 2010) and tackles Christian Tupou (a 2-year starter who redshirted in 2010 while recuperating from a knee injury), Armond Armstead (43 tackles in 2010) and DaJohn Harris (5.5 tackles for loss in 2010).

Both starting safeties—USC's 2010 tackle leader and All-Pac-10 second teamer T.J. McDonald (89 tackles, 3 interceptions) and Jawanza Starling (37 tackles in 2010)—return, as does starting linebacker Chris Galippo (29 tackles, 3 forced fumbles in 2010) and cornerback Nickell Robey (a team-best 4 interceptions in 2010).

Others on the 2011 roster with defensive starting experience are linebacker Shane Horton, cornerback Tony Burnett (a walk-on who earned a scholarship this spring) and safeties Marshall Jones and Drew McAllister (he redshirted in 2010 with a hip injury).

USC's special teams performed better in 2010 than they had in years. The Trojans ranked in the national Top 20 in punt and kickoff returns, blocked 7 kicks and punts, returned a punt and kickoff for touchdowns, scored 5 times on 2-point conversions, had a defensive PAT and ran a successful fake punt and field goal.

Although USC must replace its punter and placekicker in 2011, many of the components from last year's special teams are back.

"Having been part of the championship years at USC last decade, I understand that our performance last year was not up to the standards we all expect here," said Kiffin, who won more games in his Trojan coaching debut than all but Howard Jones and John Robinson (he was the first coach since 1951 to begin his USC career with a 4-0 mark). "Every day in practice, we will dedicate ourselves to getting back to that expected level of championship-caliber play. We have an outstanding coaching staff and a group of very talented and hungry players. They all realize that USC is a special place unlike any other, both academically and athletically. They have a resolve to be the best, no matter what challenges are presented to us. I love that they have that attitude."

USC's personnel losses from the 2010 roster were most significant on offense. Gone are All-Pac-10 second team wide receiver-returner Ronald Johnson, who had 64 catches with 8 TDs last fall and was 12th nationally in punt returns (he is tied for 10th on USC's career receptions ladder with 138 and is fifth on the kickoff return list with 1,351 yards), and 4-year starting fullback Stanley Havili, who caught more passes (116) than any Trojan fullback, as well as 4 players who started on the line last year: All-Pac-10 first team tackle Tyron Smith, a 2-year starter who won the Pac-10 Morris Trophy, center Kristofer O'Dowd and guard Butch Lewis (both 3-year starters) and guard Michael Reardon.

Others gone who had started at times are tailbacks Allen Bradford (he had 1,585 career rushing yards, including 794 in 2010 when he averaged 7.2 yards per carry) and C.J. Gable (he had 1,549 rushing yards while starting 18 times in his career and is also sixth on USC's all-time kickoff return list with 1,196 yards), wide receiver David Ausberry (64 career receptions), guard Zack Heberer and quarterback Mitch Mustain. Six offensive players were 2011 NFL draftees: Smith (a first rounder), Johnson, Bradford, Havili, Ausberry and tight end Jordan Cameron.

On defense, USC is without 4 starters from 2010: All-Pac-10 first team tackle Jurrell Casey (67 tackles, 11 for loss, 4.5 sacks in 2010), cornerback Shareece Wright (73 tackles, 10 deflections in 2010) and linebackers Malcolm Smith (78 tackles in 2010) and Michael Morgan (57 tackles in 2010). Casey, Smith and Morgan were 2-year starters, while Casey, Wright and Smith were selected in the 2011 NFL draft.

USC's punter—Jacob Harfman (41.1 average in 2010), who also kicked off—and placekicker—Joe Houston (perfect on 43 PATs and 10-of-16 on field goals in 2010)—have graduated.

There is only 1 new fulltime assistant coach on Kiffin's 2011 staff: Ted Gilmore, who will handle the wide receivers after doing so most recently at Nebraska (where he also was the recruiting coordinator). The rest of the offensive staff remains intact: Kennedy Pola (offensive coordinator/running backs), Clay Helton (quarterbacks) and James Cregg (offensive line). The defense continues to be staffed by Ed Orgeron (defensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator/defensive line), Monte Kiffin (assistant head coach), Joe Barry (linebackers) and Willie Mack Garza (secondary). John Baxter returns as the associate head coach/special teams coordinator. Justin Mesa re-assumes a graduate assistant spot (handling tight ends) after a year as an administrative assistant and he joins holdover Sammy Knight (safeties).

USC's 2011 schedule includes 7 teams that played in bowls last year. For the first time since 2000, the Trojans will play 7 home games (including their first 3 contests of the season). Coming to the Coliseum are Minnesota with its new coaching staff for the season opener on Sept. 3, Utah on Sept. 10 for the first football game in Pac-12 history, Syracuse the next week in a rare Los Angeles visit by a Big East foe, Arizona (Oct. 1) and Stanford (Oct. 29) with talented quarterbacks Nick Foles and Andrew Luck, former USC assistant Steve Sarkisian's Washington club on Nov. 12 and crosstown rival UCLA in the Nov. 26 regular season ender. The Trojans' road slate takes them to Arizona State on Sept. 24, to San Francisco's AT&T Park to play California for a Thursday night game (Oct. 13), to longtime intersectional foe Notre Dame on Oct. 22, to new Pac-12 opponent Colorado for a Nov. 4 Friday night clash and to defending league champion Oregon on Nov. 19.

"We're very excited to be involved in the first year of Pac-12 play and to be part of the most competitive conference in college football," said Kiffin. "Nobody can take a game off in this league and now that we've welcomed Utah and Colorado to the Pac-12, that's even more evident."

OFFENSE

Six starters return on offense from 2010: quarterback Matt Barkley, wide receiver Robert Woods, tailback Marc Tyler, tight end Rhett Ellison, tackle Matt Kalil and center Khaled Holmes. Others back with starting experience are wide receivers Brandon Carswell and Brice Butler and tailback Dillon Baxter.

The Trojans return their top 2010 rusher, passer and pass catcher. But only 4 players who carried the ball and 7 who caught passes last year are back. The 2010 Trojan offensive numbers showed improvement from 2009: total offense (431.5, +42.4), rushing offense (189.3, +22.5), passing offense (242.2, +19.9) and scoring offense (31.0, +4.5). USC averaged 6.0 yards per play last fall, its sixth highest ever. Twice in 2010, the Trojans had 600-yard offensive outputs. However, only Troy's rushing offense average ranked among the nation's Top 25, so upping the Trojans' offensive output will be a goal in 2011.

"Our offense showed some progress as last year went on and we hope to be able to build on that this season," said Kiffin. "It will take a lot of hard work. We have some very good skill position players, but we need to develop our offensive line. That will be a key to our season."

QUARTERBACKS

USC will be guided in 2011 by one of the nation's elite quarterbacks, junior Matt Barkley (236-of-377, 62.6%, 2,791 yds, 26 TD, 12 int in 2010, plus 2 rush TD). A starter since the day he stepped on campus as a true freshman, he already is sixth on the school's career passing list (447 completions) and seventh in total offense (5,471 yards). In his career he has thrown at least 1 TD pass in 20 of his 24 games, including twice with a school record-tying 5 TDs. He has thrown for at least 200 yards in 14 career games (4 times over 350 yards). In 2010, he hit 60%-plus of his passes 8 times, threw 5 TDs in the opener at Hawaii (while completing 78.3% of his passes) and against California (all in the first half), threw for 390 yards at Stanford and had a mid-season streak of 140 passes without an interception. Last year was his second as a Davey O'Brien Award semifinalist and he was the first sophomore to serve as a Trojan captain.

None of the other 6 signalcallers on the roster have taken a snap at USC, so depth must be developed quickly. The group includes redshirt freshman Jesse Scroggins and freshmen Cody Kessler (Centennial High in Bakersfield, Calif.) and Max Wittek (Mater Dei High in Santa Ana, Calif.), who both graduated from high school a semester early and enrolled at USC this spring after prep All-American careers. There also is a trio of walk-ons: juniors John Manoogian and Emon Saee and redshirt freshman Anthony Neyer.

"We're looking forward to a big year from Matt Barkley and working with him in his progress to becoming an elite quarterback," said Kiffin. "It is also critical that we develop the 3 young quarterbacks in our program."

QUARTERBACKS
MATT BARKLEY, Jr.
Cody Kessler, Fr.
John Manoogian, Jr.
Anthony Neyer, Rs. Fr.
Emon Saee, Jr.
Jesse Scroggins, Rs. Fr.
Max Wittek, Fr.

RUNNING BACKS

Even though 2 seasoned tailbacks have moved on and even though only 3 running backs on the 2011 roster have ever carried the ball at USC, the Trojans are in good shape at this position. Gone are bruising Allen Bradford, who had 1,585 career yards and 4 100-yard showings (he ran for 794 yards in 2010 while averaging 7.2 yards per rush) before being a sixth round NFL draft pick, and C.J. Gable, who had 1,549 rushing yards and 18 starts in his career and is also sixth on USC's all-time kickoff return list (1,196 yards).

Senior Marc Tyler (171 tcb, 913 yds, 5.3 avg, 9 TD in 2010, plus 17 rec, 127 yds, 7.5 avg, 1 TD and 0-of-1 passing, 0 yds) returns after leading the Trojans in rushing last fall while starting 8 times. He had a trio of 100-yard performances (versus Virginia, Arizona and Arizona State). His 31 carries at Arizona were the most by a Trojan since 2002.

He is joined by 3 other high-potential runners: sophomore Dillon Baxter (59 tcb, 252 yds, 4.3 avg, 1 TD in 2010, plus 11 rec, 73 yds, 6.6 avg and 2-of-2 passing, 9 yds, 1 TD), who was used mostly out of the Wildcat formation (he started once and even threw a scoring pass), junior Curtis McNeal, who redshirted in 2010 after primarily returning kickoffs in 2009 but had an impressive showing in 2011 spring drills, and redshirt freshman D.J. Morgan. McNeal also might be asked to return kicks and punts in 2011. Walk-on redshirt freshman Kamaron Germany is also available at tailback.

QB MATT BARKLEY

TB MARC TYLER

Joining the tailback corps in the fall as freshmen are prep All-American Amir Carlisle (Kings Academy in Sunnyvale, Calif.) and Javorious Allen (Lincoln High in Tallahassee, Fla.).

USC will be hard-pressed to replace fullback Stanley Havili, a 4-year starter whose 116 career catches are the most ever by a Trojan fullback (he is 16th on the school's all-time receiving ladder). He caught 12 TD passes at USC and ran for 509 career yards. He was a seventh round NFL draftee.

There are only 3 fullbacks on the 2011 roster and all are untested: freshman Soma Vainuku (Eureka High in Eureka, Calif.), who originally signed with USC in 2010 but didn't enroll until this past spring, and sophomore walk-on Hunter Simmon (he missed 2011 spring practice with an injury) plus fall freshman Charles Burks (Edison High in Huntington Beach, Calif.). Because of the lack of fullback experience and depth, it is conceivable that the Trojans will often employ one-back or spread formations in 2011.

"The tailback position should be a very competitive spot," said Kiffin. "For us to be a prolific offense, we need someone to step up as a premier running back. As for fullback, it will be hard to replace all the things that Stanley Havili brought to the position. Hopefully, someone develops there quickly."

WIDE RECEIVERS

USC's wide receiving unit is young (there's only 2 upperclassmen on scholarship), but it is full of talented young players. However, only 4 wideouts on the 2011 roster have ever caught a pass at USC.

They should help make up for the loss of big-play man Ronald Johnson, whose 138 career catches is tied for 10th on USC's all-time list. His 21 career touchdowns averaged 24.1 yards each. He had 64 receptions with 8 TDs last fall. He also was a dangerous returner, spending the first part of his USC tenure running back kickoffs (he is fifth on Troy's career chart with 1,351 yards) and last fall returning punts (his 14.2 average was 12th nationally and he made All-Pac-10 second team as a punt returner). He was selected in the sixth round of the NFL draft.

Leading the way in 2011 is one of the nation's most exciting wideouts, sophomore Robert Woods (65 rec, 792 yds, 12.2 avg, 6 TD in 2010, plus 6 tcb, 50 yds, 8.3 avg and 38 KOR, 971 yds, 25.6 avg, 1 TD and 1 PR, 4 yds, 4.0 avg and 1 tac), who doubles as a pre-eminent kickoff returner (he also might be used on punt runbacks in 2011). He was a Freshman All-American first teamer and the Pac-10 Offensive Freshman of the Year last season (he also made the All-Pac-10 first team as a kick returner). He led the Trojans in receptions (65), receiving yards (792) and all-purpose yards (he set a USC freshman record of 1,817 and his 139.8 average was 25th nationally). He also topped the team in kickoff returns, setting USC season marks for returns (38) and yardage (971, which already ranks seventh on the school's career list). He became the first USC true freshman to start a season opener at wide receiver when he did so last year at Hawaii. His 97-yard scoring kickoff return at Minnesota was USC's longest since 1998. He caught 12 passes for 224 yards at Stanford, the fifth highest totals ever by a Trojan (the dozen catches were 1 shy of the USC freshman record). His 100-yard receiving outings against Stanford and California were the first back-to-back by a Trojan true freshman since 2004.

Also in the wideout mix are juniors Brandon Carswell (16 rec, 205 rec, 12.8 avg, 1 TD in 2010), who has 22 career catches and 3 starts, and Brice Butler (9 rec, 112, yds, 12.4 avg, 1 TD in 2010), who has 29 career receptions with 3 TDs, sophomores Markeith Ambles (1 rec, 3 yds, 3.0 avg in 2010) and De'Von Flournoy (he redshirted in 2010) and redshirt freshman Kyle Prater, who missed 2011 spring drills with a foot injury.

Then there are 4 walk-ons who have yet to catch a pass at USC: senior Nic Curry, juniors Robbie Boyer and Cody Gifford (the son of former USC and NFL great Frank Gifford) and sophomore Cody Skene.

Coming aboard in the fall as freshmen are prep All-Americans Victor Blackwell (Mater Dei High in Santa Ana, Calif.), George Farmer (Serra High in Gardena, Calif.) and Marqise Lee (Serra High in Gardena, Calif.).

"The development of the wide receiver corps will be crucial to the success of our offense," said Kiffin. "This is a group filled with underclassmen, so we need some of those young players to step up and contribute immediately."

TIGHT ENDS

The tight end position is a solid one for USC.

Steady senior Rhett Ellison (21 rec, 239 yds, 11.4 avg, 3 TD in 2010, plus 3 tac), with 19 career starts, returns as the starter.

Some proficient young players are behind him: sophomore Christian Thomas (6 tac in 2010), who also played defensive end in 2010, and redshirt freshmen Xavier Grimble and Randall Telfer. Then there is walk-on redshirt freshman Michael Cox.

Prep All-American Junior Pomee (Rancho Verde High in Moreno Valley, Calif.) joins the fray in the fall as a freshman.

"We're glad to have Rhett Ellison back this year and we plan on expanding his role," said Kiffin. "We also are looking forward to developing our very talented younger tight ends."

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

USC's 2011 offensive line must overcome the loss of 5 players with starting experience. Gone are 2010 All-Pac-10 first team tackle Tyron Smith, a 2-year starter who won the Pac-10 Morris Trophy and then declared for the NFL draft after his junior campaign (he was a first round selection), a pair of 3-year starters in center Kristofer O'Dowd and guard Butch Lewis, and guards Michael Reardon and Zack Heberer.

There are 16 offensive lineman on the Trojans' 2011 roster, but only 2 have registered any substantial playing time: juniors Matt Kalil (1 BLK PAT in 2010) at left tackle and Khaled Holmes at center, who both started for their first season in 2010. Holmes started at right guard last year and then missed 2011 spring practice because of a shoulder injury.

Looking to earn starting roles are sophomore Kevin Graf at tackle, senior Martin Coleman, soph John Martinez and redshirt freshman Giovanni Di Poalo at guard and junior Abe Markowitz at center. Graf (shoulder) and Markowitz (foot) missed 2011 spring drills while recuperating from injuries.

A pair of junior college transfers enrolled at USC this spring and also are in the mix after participating in spring practice: tackle-guard Jeremy Galten (San Mateo Junior College in San Mateo, Calif.) and tackle David Garness (City College of San Francisco in San Francisco, Calif.).

Three walk-ons who have yet to play also are available: senior tackle Peter Yobo (he worked at defensive end and tight end last fall) and redshirt freshmen guards Nathan Guertler and Patrick Kim.

Additional relief arrives in the fall with 4 incoming freshmen: guards Cyrus Hobbi (Saguaro High in Scottsdale, Ariz.) and Marcus Martin (Crenshaw High in Los Angeles, Calif.), center Cody Temple (Liberty High in Bakersfield, Calif.) and tackle Aundrey Walker (Glenville High in Cleveland, Ohio). Hobbi and Walker were prep All-Americans.

"There was a real lack of depth on the offensive line this spring because of injuries and that made for some very interesting practice formats," said Kiffin. "We'll get some help here in the fall when we newcomers come in and, if we can help hasten their development, they'll have a chance to contribute immediately."

DEFENSE

Seven defensive starters from 2010—safeties T.J. McDonald and Jawanza Starling, cornerback Nickell Robey, ends Nick Perry and Devon Kennard, tackles Armond Armstead and DaJohn Harris and co-starting linebacker Chris Galippo—return, as does 2008-09 starting tackle Christian Tupou. Others back with starting experience are end Wes Horton, linebacker Shane Horton and safeties Marshall Jones and Drew McAllister and cornerback Tony Burnett.

Fourteen of USC's top 20 tacklers, including its top tackler, are back in 2011, as are 6 of the 9 players who had interceptions last year. Troy will be looking for its defense to take a big step forward, as last year's unit was porous at times. The Trojans allowed their highest total yardage average (400.0) since records were kept in 1955, almost 60 yards more per game than in 2009. Troy allowed 26.7 points per game, its highest average ever and almost a touchdown more than in 2009. It allowed 30 TD passes, 11 more than the next highest total since 1955. USC had particular trouble closing out games, as it allowed 118 points in the fourth quarter, lost 3 times in the final minutes (including back-to-back on field goals at the gun) and let 9 foes score on their final drives. Opponents had 500-plus yards of total offense 3 times in 2010.

"The improvement of our defense will be extremely important to our success in 2011 and the future," said Kiffin. "Our defense last year was not to our standards. We're looking for a major upgrade now as we go into the second year in our system."

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

The strength of USC's defense should be the line, where 6 players with starting experience return.

But the Trojans lost a good one in tackle Jurrell Casey, an All-Pac-10 first teamer who led the 2010 Trojans in tackles for a loss (11) and sacks (4.5) while posting 67 tackles. The 2-year starter bypassed his senior season to declare for the NFL draft, where he was a third round pick.

A pair of junior ends has started a bunch of games: Nick Perry (25 tac, 7.5 for loss, 4 sack, 3 dfl, 2 FF, 1 FR in 2010), a 2010 starter, and Wes Horton (29 tac, 5.5 for loss, 4 sack, 4 dfl, 1 FF, 1 BLK P in 2010, plus 1 PR, 24 yds, 24.0 avg), who has 15 career starts (including 6 last fall). Horton missed 2011 spring drills while rehabbing a foot injury.

Rejoining the ends this year is junior Devon Kennard (72 tac, 7 for loss, 2 sack, 1 int, 1 dfl in 2010), who played end and then outside linebacker (with 4 starts) as a 2009 freshman, but started 8 times at inside linebacker last year. He has 106 tackles in his career. He missed 2011 spring practice while recuperating from a hip injury.

OT MATT KALIL

C KHALED HOLMES

DE NICK PERRY

DT CHRISTIAN TUPOU

Then there is a trio of senior tackles with starting experience: Christian Tupou, who redshirted last fall because of a knee injury (he missed 2011 spring drills while recuperating) after starting in 2008 and 2009, Armond Armstead (43 tac, 6.5 for loss, 3 sack, 1 FR, 2 dfl in 2010), who missed 2011 spring drills due to a medical condition, and DaJohn Harris (35 tac, 5.5 for loss, 3.5 sack, 1 int, 1 FF, 1 FR, 1 dfl in 2010).

Battling to get into the playing rotation at end are sophomore Kevin Greene (2 tac in 2010) and walk-on junior Eric Childs, a converted tight end, while at tackle are redshirt freshman George Uko (he showed well in 2011 spring practice) and walk-on seniors Zack Kusnir and Tyler Grady.

The line is bolstered this fall with the arrival of freshmen ends Greg Townsend Jr. (Beverly Hills High in Beverly Hills, Calif.) and DeVante Wilson (Corona High in Corona, Calif.) and tackles Steve Dillon (Palmdale High in Palmdale, Calif.), Christian Heyward (Point Loma High in San Diego, Calif.), J.R. Tavai (Mira Costa High in Manhattan Beach, Calif.) and Antwaun Woods (Taft High in Woodland Hills, Calif.). Townsend, Wilson, Heyward and Woods were prep All-Americans.

"On paper, the line should be the rock of our defense," said Kiffin. "We have a lot of quality players with starting experience along with some impressive young depth."

LINEBACKERS

Although a co-starter returns at linebacker in 2011, the other players here are rather green. The Trojans are aiming for more consistency and production from this unit.

A pair of 2-year starting linebackers is gone from last fall in Malcolm Smith on the weak side and Michael Morgan on the strong side. Smith, who made 174 tackles in his career, had 78 tackles last fall (second most on the team) and scored touchdowns on an interception return and a fumble return. He was picked in the seventh round of the NFL draft. Morgan had 140 career stops, including 57 in 2010.

Senior Chris Galippo (29 tac, 2 for loss, 1 sack, 2 int, 3 FF in 2010) shared starts at middle linebacker last year with Kennard, starting 5 times there after starting all of 2009 (he also started twice on the weak side last year). He has 119 career tackles and 5 interceptions. He missed 2011 spring practice while recuperating from a back injury.

Angling to see playing time in 2011 are seniors Shane Horton (28 tac, 6.5 for loss, 1 sack, 1 FF, 1 dfl in 2010), who has started 3 times in his USC career after getting 6 starts as a safety at UNLV in 2007 (he missed 2011 spring practice while rehabbing from a hip injury), and Ross Cumming (8 tac in 2010), seldom-used sophomores Marquis Simmons (1 tac in 2010) and Simione Vehikite (he also has worked at fullback at USC) and redshirt freshmen Dion Bailey, a converted safety, and Hayes Pullard, who had an impressive showing in 2011 spring drills.

Junior college transfer Dallas Kelley (Chaffey Junior College in Rancho Cucamonga, Calif.) enrolled at USC this past spring and participatee in spring practice.

Then there are 3 inexperienced walk-ons: junior Augusto Alonso and sophomores Will Andrew (2 tac in 2010) and Luke Freeman. Only Andrew has seen playing time at USC.

Entering in the fall as freshmen are prep All-Americans Lamar Dawson (Boyle County High in Danville, Kent.), Tre Madden (Mission Viejo High in Mission Viejo, Calif.) and Anthony Sarao (Holy Spirit High in Absecon, N.J.).

"This is probably our most unsettled unit as we need to decide who plays where," said Kiffin. "We experimented with some options in the spring, but because we had several players sitting out with injuries we have to wait until the fall to figure that out."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The secondary features lots of players who have seen the field at USC.

Only 1 starter is gone, cornerback Shareece Wright. He had 73 tackles and a team-leading 10 deflections last fall (he was a third round NFL draftee).

The Trojans are loaded at safety, led by returning junior starters T.J. McDonald (89 tac, 3 for loss, 1 sack, 4 dfl, 3 int, 1 BLK P in 2010) at free safety and Jawanza Starling (37 tac, 1 int, 1 dfl in 2010) at strong safety. McDonald led Troy in tackles (89) in 2010 and had 3 interceptions while earning All-Pac-10 second team notice. Starling added 37 stops.

But 2 other safeties—senior Marshall Jones (35 tac, 2.5 for loss, 3 dfl, 1 FF, 1 int in 2010) and junior Drew McAllister (1 tac in 2010)—have starting experience and will be battling to break into the lineup. Jones started the last 4 games of 2010 at strong safety for an injured Starling. McAllister, who started once in 2009 at free safety, redshirted last season after an early hip injury (he was limited in spring drills because of that).

Sophomore Nickell Robey (48 tac, 1.5 for loss, 4 dfl, 1 FF, 4 int with 1 TD in 2010) is back after starting all of last season at cornerback, where he topped the Trojans in interceptions (4, including 1 for a TD). At Washington State, he became the first USC freshman to get 2 picks in a game since 1990. He also was the first USC true freshman to start a season opener at cornerback in the post-World War II era. He might also return punts and kickoffs in 2011.

Converted junior safety Tony Burnett (26 tac, 0.5 for loss in 2010) will battle for the other starting cornerback job, where he caught the coaches' attention in 2011 spring drills. The one-time walk-on who received a scholarship this spring went from being a jumper on the Trojan track team to joining the football team last fall and becoming a key contributor (he even started the season-ender at UCLA at free safety for an injured McDonald). Joining him in the competition for the starting job are 3 players who have seen action in extra defensive back situations—senior T.J. Bryant (3 tac in 2010), junior Brian Baucham (20 tac, 2 dfl in 2010) and sophomore Torin Harris (13 tac, 1 FR, 1 dfl, 1 defensive PAT in 2010)—as well as redshirt freshmen Anthony Brown and converted safety Patrick Hall. Bryant and Harris missed spring practice while recuperating from shoulder injuries, while Hall likely will miss 2011 after tearing knee ligaments following 2011 spring drills.

Four walk-on senior cornerbacks (Taylor Ashton, James Harbin, Allen Noble and Boomer Roepke) add depth. Only Harbin has seen any action.

Adding to the cornerback mix in the fall are junior college transfer Isiah Wiley (Arizona Western Junior College in Yuma, Ariz.), who will be a junior, and prep All-American Ryan Henderson (Rancho Verde High in Moreno Valley, Calif.), a freshman.

SPECIAL TEAMS

USC's snapper (Chris Pousson) and kickoff returner (Robert Woods) are back in 2011. But a new placekicker, punter, holder and punt returner must emerge.

The Trojans were very impressive in most areas of special teams in 2010. USC was seventh nationally in punt returns (14.6) and 17th in kickoff returns (24.5). Troy blocked 7 kicks and punts, returned a punt and kickoff for TDs, scored 5 times on 2-point conversions, had a defensive PAT and ran a successful fake punt and fake field goal.

"We had a phenomenal performance by our special teams last year, but we'll be in relentless pursuit to improve upon that," said Kiffin. "We need to break in a new kicker and punter, and we need to solidify our returners, but I believe we can make a big impact on special teams again in 2011."

PUNTERS

Jacob Harfman, USC's punter the past 2 seasons, has graduated and taken his 40.4-yard career average with him. Nearly a third of his 92 career punts pinned opponents within the 20-yard line.

He'll be replaced by either incoming freshman Kris Albarado (St. Louis High in Lake Charles, La.) or unproven junior walk-on Kyle Negrete.

PLACEKICKERS

Joe Houston, a walk-on who earned a scholarship last season, was USC's placekicker in 2010, but he has graduated. He nailed all 43 of his PAT attempts in 2010 and was 10-of-16 on field goals. He hit only 1 field goal further than 37 yards, but his 45-yarder against Notre Dame was USC's longest in 3 years. His field goals against Arizona State and Arizona were the games' decisive points. The departed Jacob Harfman handled the kickoff chores the past 2 years.

Freshman Andre Heidari (Stockdale High in Bakersfield, Calif.), who graduated from high school a semester early and enrolled at USC this spring after a prep All-American season, is the leading contender to assume the kicking duties.

Redshirt freshman walk-on Craig McMahon is also available.

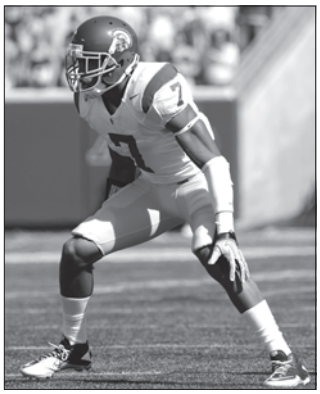
CB NICKELL ROBEY



S T.J. McDONALD

SNAPPERS

Senior Chris Pousson (1 tac in 2010) returns for his fourth season as the snapper on punts and placekicks. He has been flawless in his career.

Also available is freshman Peter McBride (Chaparral High in Paradise Valley, Calif.), who graduated from high school a semester early and enrolled at USC this spring.

HOLDERS

Last year's holder on placekicks, quarterback Mitch Mustain, has graduated. Because USC often ran plays out of offbeat formations on PATs last season, USC likes to have a quarterback as the holder, so look for junior quarterback Matt Barkley to assume that duty. Others who might be tried are freshmen quarterbacks Cody Kessler and Max Wittek and junior punter Kyle Negrete.

RETURNERS

Wide receiver Ronald Johnson was USC's punt returner last year after returning kickoffs earlier in his career, but his eligibility has expired. He was 12th nationally in punt returns in 2010 and ranks fifth on USC's career kickoff return list (1,351 yards). Tailback C.J. Gable, who is sixth on the Trojan career kickoff return chart (1,196 yards), also is gone.

But sophomore wide receiver Robert Woods (38 KOR, 971 yds, 25.6 avg, 1 TD in 2010, plus 1 PR, 4 yds, 4.0 avg) returns after setting the USC season records for kickoff returns (38) and yardage (971). That yardage already puts him seventh on USC's career kickoff return ladder. His 97-yard scoring kickoff return at Minnesota was USC's longest since 1998. He might also be asked to return punts in 2011.

Soph cornerback Nickell Robey and junior tailback Curtis McNeal could also be tried on kickoff and punt returns. Other possible returners are senior wide receiver Brandon Carswell and redshirt freshman cornerback Anthony Brown.

HEAD COACH LANE KIFFIN

USC head football coach Lane Kiffin is regarded as one of the game's brightest young coaches. At just 36, he already has been a head coach at football's top levels, both professionally and collegiately. He is known for his high football IQ, as well as for being a master playcaller, a vibrant leader and a superb recruiter.

The one-time Trojan offensive coordinator who then became the head coach of the Oakland Raiders and the Tennessee Volunteers returned to the USC program on Jan. 12, 2010, when he was named its head football coach.

In 2010 in his first year guiding USC, Kiffin led Troy to an 8-5 overall record (2 of the losses were on field goals at the gun in consecutive games and another came on a touchdown with 2:23 to play) and a third place tie in the Pac-10 at 5-4. He inherited a USC team that was ruled ineligible for post-season play because of an NCAA penalty for violations dating to the previous coaching regime and was short on personnel because of players who transferred once the penalty was announced (Troy had just 72 scholarship players, 13 shy of the NCAA limit). Despite this handicap, only Howard Jones in 1925 and John Robinson in 1976 (both with 11 wins) won more games in their Trojan coaching debut. Kiffin became the first USC head coach since Jess Hill in 1951 to begin his Trojan career with a 4-0 mark. With Kiffin calling the plays, the 2010 Trojan offensive numbers improved from 2009: total offense (431.5, +42.4), rushing offense (189.3, +22.5), passing offense (242.2, +19.9) and scoring offense (31.0, +4.5). USC averaged 6.0 yards per play in 2010, its sixth highest ever, and the Trojans twice had 600-yard offensive outputs. In 2010, offensive tackle Tyron Smith won the Pac-10's Morris Trophy and wide receiver Robert Woods was the Pac-10 Offensive Freshman of the Year (and a Freshman All-American first teamer). Smith was a first round pick in the 2011 NFL draft and was among a national-best 9 Trojan draftees.

Kiffin came back to Troy after guiding Tennessee to a 7-6 record in 2009 in his only season there. The Volunteers finished second in the Southeastern Conference Eastern Division at 4-4 and played in the Chick-Fil-A Bowl. Four of Tennessee's losses were by 10 points or less, including a 2-point road loss to eventual national champion Alabama and 10 points at then-No. 1 Florida. His Vols offense jumped at least 34 places in every national statistical category over the 2008 figures, while the defense was in the nation's Top 25 in pass and total defense. He was the youngest active head coach in the NCAA FBS ranks while at Tennessee.

Before that, Kiffin was the head coach of the NFL's Raiders for 2 years (2007-08), where at age 31 he was the youngest head coach in the NFL's modern era. He was 5-15 with the Raiders (4-12 in 2007 and 1-3 in 2008). His first year, Oakland's offensive numbers improved significantly from 2006 (its scoring offense improved by 7.2 points per game as the Raiders threw 10 more TD passes and its total offense went up 48.6 yards per game, including 35.5 rushing).

Kiffin spent 6 seasons (2001-2006) as an assistant at USC under Pete Carroll. He was the tight ends coach in 2001, then handled the wide receivers the next 5 years. He added the duty of passing game coordinator in 2004, then was promoted to offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator in 2005 and 2006.

He coached a trio of All-American first team wide receivers in his first stint at USC: Mike Williams (2003), Dwayne Jarrett (2005-06, USC's first 2-time All-American wideout) and Steve Smith (2006). Jarrett set the Pac-10 record for career touchdown catches (39) and the USC career mark for receptions (216).

While the offensive coordinator in 2005, USC's offense was in the national Top 6 in every statistical category, including tops in total offense (579.8) and second in scoring offense (49.1), and set Pac-10 records for total offense yardage, first downs, points scored, touchdowns and PATs. The Trojans scored 50 points a school-record 7 times. USC became the first school to have a 3,000-yard passer, a pair of 1,000-yard runners and a 1,000-yard receiver in a season.

In 2003, Williams set USC career (30) and season (16) touchdown reception records, while fellow wide receiver Keary Colbert set the school career reception record (207). In 2002, Williams and Colbert became USC's first pair of 1,000-yard receivers in a season and wide receiver Kareem Kelly became the Trojan career reception leader (204). Williams, Jarrett, Smith and Colbert all played in the NFL.

Quarterback Matt Leinart won the Heisman Trophy in 2004 while Kiffin was the passing game coordinator and tailback Reggie Bush was the 2005 Heisman winner (later vacated) with Kiffin as the offensive coordinator.

While serving as USC's recruiting coordinator, Troy's recruiting classes in 2005 and 2006 were ranked by some as No. 1 in the nation. He was named one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com in 2005.

Kiffin was a member of USC staffs that helped the Trojans win a pair of national championships (2003-04), post a 65-12 record (14 wins and 1 loss were later vacated due to NCAA penalty) and appear in a bowl game each of his initial 6 seasons: 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl, 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game, later vacated), 2006 Rose Bowl (BCS Championship Game, later vacated) and 2007 Rose Bowl.

Before coming to USC the first time, Kiffin was the defensive quality control coach for the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars in 2000 (he worked with the secondary).

He began his coaching career at Fresno State, his alma mater, where for 2 seasons (1997-98) he worked with the quarterbacks, wide receivers and defensive backs as a student assistant.

He then was an assistant at Colorado State in 1999, working with the offensive line. The Rams played in the Liberty Bowl that season.

Kiffin was a quarterback at Fresno State for 3 seasons (1994-96). He earned his bachelor's degree in leisure service management from Fresno State in 1998.

He prepped at Bloomington (Minn.) Jefferson High, where he played football, basketball and baseball.

He was born May 9, 1975. He and his wife, Layla, have 2 daughters, Landry, 5, and Presley, 4, and a son, Knox, 2.

His father, Monte (now USC's assistant head coach), has 45 years of coaching experience on the collegiate and NFL levels, having been on the staffs of programs that won 2 national championships (at Nebraska) and a Super Bowl (Tampa Bay Buccaneers). His brother, Chris, was a defensive lineman at Colorado State (2001-04) who was then an offensive intern at Nebraska and in 2010 was a defensive assistant at USC (he now is the defensive line coach at Arkansas State). His father-in-law, John Reaves, was a former quarterback at Florida and 11 years in the NFL (Philadelphia Eagles, Cincinnati Bengals, Minnesota Vikings, Houston Oilers, Tampa Bay Buccaneers) and 3 years in the USFL (Tampa Bay Bandits) who then was an assistant coach at Florida and South Carolina. His brother-in-law, David Reaves, was a quarterback at Appalachian State and then an assistant at South Carolina, Tennessee and now New Mexico. Another brother-in-law, Stephen Reaves, played quarterback at Michigan State and Southern Miss and for the CFL's Toronto Argonauts (he now is an offensive assistant at USC).

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT LANE KIFFIN

Greg Biggins, ESPNRise.com: "To the recruits and parents we've talked to, USC hired Vince Lombardi."

USC quarterback Matt Barkley: "I think it's really good USC got someone who knows Trojan football and the traditions and knows how we rock."

Grant Tunkel, Daily Trojan: "The Kiffin hire is exactly what USC needed to continue the legacy that Pete Carroll built. Hiring Kiffin provides the Trojans with a perfect mix. He is enough of a link to the Carroll era to instill continued confidence in the program from the start, but he's still his own coach with the drive to succeed. He knows the landscape well. He brings with him the mentality necessary to succeed at an elite program. He is young and charismatic, making him the perfect choice to connect with current players and recruit new ones."

Former USC and current Seattle Seahawks head coach Pete Carroll: "It's good that USC acted quickly to get a coach connecting with our history. Lane's going to do great."

Former Tennessee head football coach Johnny Majors: "I was around him at Tennessee. I watched practice, talked to the squad a couple of times, and spent some time in his office. And I believe he is a very good football coach. He's very aggressive and well organized. He's demanding and he and his staff attacked recruiting very aggressively. I think he is going to be very, very successful in the long run."

Former USC All-American and current NFL wide receiver Mike Williams: "God is shining on the Trojan faithful. I couldn't imagine a better pick. I think Kiff is the closest thing you can get to what Coach Carroll brought. It's a no-brainer."

Former USC and NFL wide receiver Keary Colbert: "He's just like Coach Carroll. He's high-spirited and likes to have fun."

Allen Wallace, Scout.com: "Kiffin is one of the best evaluators of talent I've ever come across. He likes to work very hard and he brought a ready-made staff with big-time credentials. It's just a lucky stroke, a last parting gift from Pete Carroll. I can't imagine a better choice for USC."

Matt Hayes, Sporting News: "USC got a coach who can sustain a seamless transition. Kiffin helped build the program earlier that decade. He's familiar with the way of Troy, and the swagger and confidence of Carroll won't change much with Kiffin."

Tennessee linebacker Nigel Mitchell-Thornton: "I liked his oomph, liked that energy. He definitely threw you out there on the field and let you compete, which a lot of us liked."

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOE BARRY
Linebackers

Joe Barry, a former Trojan linebacker and assistant coach, is in his second year back at USC as the linebackers coach. He rejoined the USC staff in January of 2010 after spending 10 years coaching in the NFL.

Linebacker Malcolm Smith was a seventh round pick in the 2011 NFL draft.

Barry, 41, was the linebackers coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2009.

Before that, he was the defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions for 2 seasons (2007-08), serving under head coach Rod Marinelli, his father-in-law, and working on the same staff as his father, Mike Barry, who handled the Lions' offensive line.

Barry's first NFL job was as the defensive quality control coach with the San Francisco 49ers in 2000.

He then spent 6 years (2001-06) as the linebackers coach of the Buccaneers, working under defensive coordinator Monte Kiffin (now on USC's staff and the father of Lane) and for 4 of those years working alongside Marinelli, who coached the defensive line. He was a member of the 2002 Super Bowl champions that led the league in total defense and scoring defense. The Buccaneers were ranked among the NFL's top 5 in total defense 3 others times during his tenure, including first in 2005 when they won the NFC South Division. His linebackers were named to the Pro Bowl 7 times, including 2002 NFL Defensive Player of the Year Derrick Brooks.

Barry began his coaching career at his alma mater, USC. He was Troy's video coordinator in 1994, then was a graduate assistant working with the defensive line in 1995 as the Trojans won the Rose Bowl. Like at the Lions, he coached with his father, Mike, who was USC's offensive line coach (Marinelli was Troy's defensive line coach then).

He then spent 3 seasons (1996-98) as the linebackers and defensive ends coach at Northern Arizona before becoming the linebackers coach at UNLV in 1999 under head coach John Robinson, who was his head coach at USC.

Barry lettered 2 years (1992-93) at USC, where he started 7 games at inside linebacker in 1993. He came to USC from Michigan, where he redshirted in 1989 and sat out 1990 with a knee injury.

He received his bachelor's degree in communication from USC in 1994.

He was a 2-time (1987-88) All-Colorado pick at Fairview High in Boulder after earning All-Iowa second team honors as a 1986 sophomore at Ames (Ia.) High. He also played basketball and track.

He was born on July 5, 1970. He and his wife, Chris, have 2 daughters, Camryn, 11, and Lauren, 9, and 7-year-old twin sons, Nick and Sam. His father, Mike, was a college assistant coach at Southern Illinois, Arizona, Iowa State, Colorado, North Carolina State and Tennessee in addition to USC (1993-97) before joining the Lions. His father-in-law, Rod Marinelli is a long-time college (Utah State, California, Arizona State) and pro (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Chicago Bears) assistant who had stints as a USC assistant (1995) and as the Lions' head coach (2006-08).

JOHN BAXTER
Associate Head Coach
Special Teams Coordinator

John Baxter, known for producing extremely-productive special teams play on the field and developing academic success for players off the field, is in his second year at USC as the associate head coach and special teams coordinator. He joined the USC staff in March of 2010 after spending 13 seasons on the Fresno State coaching staff.

In 2010, USC's special teams blocked 7 kicks and punts, returned a punt and kickoff for a touchdown, scored 5 times on 2-point conversions, had a defensive PAT and made first downs on a fake punt and fake field goal. USC ranked high nationally in punt returns (seventh at 14.6) and kickoff returns (17th at 24.5) with wide receiver Ronald Johnson placing 12th nationally in punt returns (14.2). Wide receiver Robert Woods made the All-Pac-10 first team as a kick returner. Johnson was a sixth round pick in the 2011 NFL draft.

In his 13 years (1997-2009) at Fresno State, he was the associate head coach and special teams coach in addition to handling either the tight ends (1997-2001, 2003, 2009) or wide receivers (2002, 2004-2008).

Baxter turned the Bulldogs' special teams into one of the top units in the nation annually. During his time, Fresno State blocked 84 kicks and punts (including a national-best 49 from 2002 through 2009) and scored 39 special teams touchdowns (with 3 safeties). The Bulldogs topped the nation in fewest punt return yards allowed in 2004 and 2005. A.J. Jefferson led the nation in kickoff returns in 2007. Clifton Smith's 189 punt return yards with 2 touchdowns against Weber State in 2005 were Fresno State game records, while his 5 career scoring punt returns also was a school mark. Six of Baxter's Bulldog kickers and punters earned All-Western Athletic Conference first team honors.

During his time at Fresno State, the Bulldogs posted a 100-66 record, played in 10 bowls (1999 Las Vegas, 2000-01-02-03 Silicon Valley, 2004 MPC Computers, 2005 AutoZone Liberty, 2007 Roady's Humanitarian and 2008-09 New Mexico) and won the WAC title in 1999.

Along with his coaching duties at Fresno State, Baxter developed the highly-successful and nationally-regarded program, "Academic Gameplan." His innovative and comprehensive study-skills program teaches students the rules, fundamentals, techniques and life skills needed to succeed in the classroom. "Academic Gameplan," which is now being used at schools throughout the country, was a key reason for the academic success of the Fresno State football program, which during Baxter's tenure produced 141 Academic All-WAC players and an NCAA APR score nearly 20 percentage points higher than the national average.

He was selected as the Clovis Co-Citizen of the Year in 2006, along with Fresno State head coach Pat Hill.

Baxter, 48, has 30 years of coaching experience. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Loras College, where he served for 5 seasons (1981-85) as a student assistant (working with the running backs) during his undergraduate time.

He then moved on to Iowa State for 2 seasons (1986-87) as a graduate assistant working with the defensive line and special teams before the first of 2 stints at Arizona. He was with the Wildcats in 1988 (as a graduate assistant working with the defensive backs and special teams), went to Maine in 1989 for his first full-time job coaching the outside linebackers and special teams when the Black Bears made it to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs and returned to Arizona in 1990 and 1991 as the tight ends and special teams coach (the Wildcats played in the 1990 Aloha Bowl). He then was at Maryland for 2 seasons (1992-93) handling the running backs and special teams and Tulane for 3 years (1994-96) in charge of the tight ends and special teams before going to Fresno State.

He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Loras in 1985 and then his master's in higher education from Iowa State in 1987.

He prepped at Loyola Academy in Chicago (Ill.).

He was born on June 28, 1963. He and his wife, Jill, have 2 daughters, Kelly, 15, and McKenzie, 13. His father-in-law is current Weber State head coach Ron McBride, formerly the head coach at Utah.

James Cregg is in his second year at USC as the offensive line coach. He joined the USC staff in January of 2010 after spending 13 years coaching on the collegiate and NFL levels.

In 2010, offensive tackle Tyron Smith won the Pac-10 Morris Trophy, made All-Pac-10 first team and was a first round pick in the 2011 NFL draft.

Cregg spent 2009 at Tennessee as the offensive line coach. The Vols tied for the Southeastern Conference regular season lead with only 12 sacks allowed. Cregg's line helped tailback Montario Hardesty rush for 1,345 yards and 13 touchdowns (nearly a 1,000 more yards than he previously had in any season). Tackle Aaron Douglas made the SEC All-Freshman team.

Before that, he was an offensive line assistant with the NFL's Oakland Raiders for 2 years (2007-08).

Cregg, 38, began his coaching career at his alma mater, Colorado State, where he was a student assistant working with the offensive line in 1996 and then a graduate assistant for 3 seasons (1997-99). He then coached the defensive line at Colgate for 4 years (2000-03). The Raiders advanced to the 2003 NCAA Division I-AA championship game, but lost to Delaware to snap a school-record 21-game winning streak. In both of his final 2 seasons, Colgate won the Patriot League title, finished in the Top 10 nationally in rushing defense and was first in the conference in total defense.

He next spent 3 seasons (2004-06) coaching the defensive line at Idaho before moving on to the NFL.

Cregg was a 3-year (1993-95) letterman at Colorado State, starting on the offensive line his final 2 seasons and earning All-WAC honors as a senior. The Rams won the WAC title in 1994 and 1995 and played in the Holiday Bowl both seasons.

He received his bachelor's degree in social science from Colorado State in 1997.

He prepped at Norco (Calif.) High and was elected into the Norco High Hall of Fame in 2001.

TED GILMORE
Wide Receivers

Ted Gilmore, most recently the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at Nebraska, joined the USC staff in February of 2011 as the wide receivers coach.

Gilmore, 44, spent the previous 6 years (2005-10) at Nebraska coaching the wide receivers. He also was the Cornhuskers' recruiting coordinator the last 4 years (2007-10) and added the title of assistant head coach-offense in 2008.

He coached 5 receivers who finished among Nebraska's top 8 career receptions leaders: school-record holder Nate Swift (166 catches), Terrence Nunn, Todd Peterson, Niles Paul and Maurice Purify. In both 2007 and 2008, the Huskers ranked in the nation's top 15 in passing offense. Nebraska played in the 2005 Aloha Bowl, 2007 Cotton Bowl (following the 2006 season), 2008 Gator Bowl, and 2009 and 2010 Holiday Bowls.

Gilmore arrived at Nebraska after 2 seasons (2003-04) at Colorado, where he handled the wide receivers. In 2003, D.J. Hackett set the Buffaloes' season receptions record (78), earned All-Big 12 first team honors and was drafted in the fifth round by the NFL's Seattle Seahawks, while Derek McCoy added 63 catches (then third on Colorado's season chart). Colorado was in the 2004 Houston Bowl.

Before that, Gilmore was Purdue's wide receivers coach for 2 seasons (2001-02). In 2002, future NFL players Taylor Stubblefield and John Standeford were the Big Ten's top receiving tandem with 152 receptions and 2,096 yards. Stubblefield went on to become a consensus All-American and Biletnikoff Award finalist in 2004 while setting the NCAA career receptions record with 316. Purdue participated in the Sun Bowl in 2001 and 2002.

Gilmore began his coaching career at his alma mater, Wyoming. He first was a graduate assistant working with the wide receivers and tight ends from 1994 to 1996. During that time, Marcus Harris–the 1996 Biletnikoff Award winner who was a 2-time (1995-96) All-American first team pick and 3-time All-Western Athletic Conference first teamer–set NCAA records for most career receiving yards (4,518 yards) and consecutive seasons with 1,400 receiving yards (3) and twice led the nation (1994 and 1996) in receiving yards per game before being chosen in the seventh round by the NFL's Detroit Lions.

Gilmore then was promoted to a fulltime assistant at Wyoming for 2 seasons (1997-98), in charge of the wide receivers.

He became the tight ends coach at Kansas in 1999 and the wide receivers coach at Houston in 2000 before moving on to Purdue.

Gilmore lettered 2 seasons (1988-89) as a wide receiver at Wyoming. He caught 40 passes for a team-best 594 yards and 3 TDs as a junior to help the Cowboys to the 1988 Holiday Bowl and he added 32 receptions for 445 yards and 2 TDs as a senior to earn All-WAC second team honors.

He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Wyoming in 1991.

He transferred to Wyoming from Butler County Community College in El Dorado, Kan.

He was a 3-sport standout at Wichita (Kan.) South High.

He was born on March 21, 1967. He and his wife, Jennifer, have a daughter, Taylor, 11, and son, T.J., 8.

CLAY HELTON
Quarterbacks

Clay Helton is in his second year at USC as the quarterbacks coach. He joined the USC staff in February of 2010 after spending 10 seasons as an assistant at Memphis.

Helton, 39, began his 10-year (2000-09) Memphis career as the running backs coach for 3 seasons, then coached the Tigers' receivers for the next 4 seasons before becoming the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach the final 3 years.

Among the Tigers' running backs he tutored was school rushing/scoring/all-purpose running recordholder DeAngelo Williams, who went on to finish seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting in 2005 and be an NFL first round selection.

As the receivers coach, he produced a pair of Conference USA All-Freshman picks in Maurice Jones (2005) and Duke Calhoun (2006), as well as the school's No. 4 all-time receptions leader in Ryan Scott. In 2003, Memphis set school season records for receptions and receiving yardage.

As the Tigers' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, the 2007 and 2008 offenses were among the top 6 in school history in total yards and points. Both squads were ranked in the top 26 nationally in total offense. Quarterback Martin Hankins became Memphis' No. 2 career passer and set single season records for completions, passing yards and touchdown passes in 2007. In 2009, Curtis Steele had his second consecutive season with 1,000 rushing yards, Calhoun became the school's all-time leading receiver and Carlos Singleton set the career mark for receiving touchdowns.

Memphis played in 5 bowls during Helton's time: the 2003 and 2007 New Orleans Bowls, 2004 GMAC Bowl, 2005 Motor City Bowl and 2008 St. Petersburg Bowl.

Helton was hired as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas State after the 2009 season, but was there just 2 months before coming to USC.

Before Memphis, he was the running backs coach at Houston, his alma mater, for 3 seasons (1997-99), working under his father, head coach Kim Helton.

He began his coaching career at Duke, serving as a graduate assistant in 1995 and then the running backs coach in 1996.

He played quarterback at Houston in 1993 and 1994, playing for his father both seasons and captaining the Cougars as a 1994 senior. In 1993, he completed 1-of-3 passes in late duty in Houston's 49-7 loss to USC in the Coliseum.

He spent 1991 and 1992 at Auburn, where he earned 1992 SEC All-Academic honors. He redshirted there in 1990.

He earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics and interdisciplinary science from Houston in 1994.

He prepped at Clements High in Sugarland (Tex.)

He was born on June 24, 1972. He and his wife, Angela, has 3 children: sons Reid, 14, and Turner, 8, and daughter Aubrey, 12. Besides being Houston's head coach from 1993 to 1999, his father, Kim, was an assistant in college (Florida, Miami and currently the offensive coordinator at Alabama Birmingham), the NFL (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Houston Oilers, Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins) and the CFL (Toronto Argonauts) following his playing career at Florida. His brother, Tyson, is the quarterbacks coach at Alabama Birmingham after assistant coaching stops at Memphis and Hawaii and playing at Houston.

Monte Kiffin, who is regarded as one of the game's best defensive minds, is in his second year at USC as the assistant head coach after joining the Trojan staff in January of 2010. He has 45 years of coaching experience on the collegiate and NFL levels, having been on the staffs of programs that won 2 national championships and a Super Bowl.

He was the defensive coordinator at Tennessee in 2009. The Volunteers were 12th nationally in both pass defense and pass efficiency defense and 22nd in total defense in 2009.

He spent 26 seasons (1983-2008) in the NFL, including the last 13 of those as the defensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, where he refined and popularized the famous Tampa Cover 2 defense. Eleven of his Buccaneer defenses ranked among the NFL's Top 10 in total defense and scoring defense, a league record. He was a member of the 2002 Super Bowl champions that led the league in total defense, scoring defense and interceptions. Six other Buccaneer squads advanced to the NFC playoffs during his time there.

His other NFL stops included the Green Bay Packers (1983 coaching the linebackers), Buffalo Bills (1984-85 coaching the linebackers), Minnesota Vikings (1986-89 coaching the linebackers and 1991-94 as defensive coordinator the first year and then handling the inside linebackers), New York Jets (1990 coaching the linebackers) and New Orleans Saints (1995 as the defensive coordinator). During his stints with the Vikings, they led the NFL in total defense in 1988, 1989 and 1994 (they were second in 1992) and advanced to the NFC playoffs 6 times.

Before going to the NFL, the 71-year-old Kiffin spent 17 seasons at the college level. He began as an assistant for 11 years at Nebraska (1966-76), his alma mater, handing the defensive line the first 7 seasons before becoming the defensive coordinator in 1973 when Tom Osborne took over for Bob Devaney. He was on the staff of Nebraska's 1970 and 1971 national champions. The Cornhuskers played in 9 bowls during his time there, including in his final 8 seasons (1967-74 Sugar, 1969 Sun, 1971-72-73 Orange, 1974 Cotton, 1975 Fiesta, 1976 Bluebonnet).

He then was the defensive coordinator under Lou Holtz at Arkansas for 3 seasons (1977-79), adding the assistant head coach title his final year there. The Razorbacks led the nation in scoring defense in 1977. Arkansas played in a bowl each season (1978 Orange, 1978 Fiesta, 1980 Sugar).

He next became the head coach at North Carolina State for 3 seasons (1980-82). He went 16-17, with winning records his last 2 seasons.

After being the Nebraska high school Player of the Year in 1958 while at Lexington (Neb.) High, he was a two-way tackle at Nebraska (1959-63) and the Cornhuskers played in the 1964 Orange Bowl when he was a senior. He then spent 1965 as a defensive end with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League (he sat out the 1964 season with a knee injury).

He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Nebraska in 1963.

He was born on Feb. 29, 1940. He and his wife, Robin, have 2 sons, Lane (USC's head coach), 35, and Chris (a defensive assistant at USC in 2010 and now the defensive line coach at Arkansas State), 29, and a daughter, Heidi, 42.

In 2011, he was named the Scout.com/FOXSports.com National Recruiter of the Year and ESPNU/ESPN The Magazine named him the top recruiter in college football (and third best in all of collegiate athletics).

In 2010, defensive tackle Jurrell Casey was an All-Pac-10 first teamer and a third round pick in the 2011 NFL draft.

He left USC after 7 seasons there to become the head coach at Mississippi for 3 years (2005-07), where he went 10-25.

He then was the defensive line coach with the NFL's New Orleans Saints in 2008 and spent 2009 as Tennessee's assistant head coach, recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach.

Orgeron was USC's defensive line coach from 1998 to 2004. He took on the added responsibility of recruiting coordinator in 2001 and then was named assistant head coach in 2003. USC's 2002, 2003 and 2004 recruiting classes were ranked among the nation's top 5 (the 2003 and 2004 groups were listed by many as No. 1). He was named the 2004 National Recruiter of the Year by The Sporting News and Rivals.com.

He coached All-American first team defensive linemen Kenechi Udeze (2003), Shaun Cody (2004) and Mike Patterson (2004), all future NFLers. The Trojans led the nation in rushing defense in 2003 behind the highly-regarded "Wild Bunch II" defensive line and were second in 2004. USC won the 2003 and 2004 national championship and played in 5 bowls games when he was on the staff: 1998 Sun Bowl, 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl, 2004 Rose Bowl and 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game).

He came to Syracuse from Nicholls State, where he was the linebackers coach in 1994.

Before that, he was the defensive line coach at Miami for 4 seasons (1989-92), where he coached 8 All-Americans, including NFL first rounders Cortez Kennedy, Russell Maryland and Warren Sapp. In 1988, he was a graduate assistant at Miami, working with the defensive line. Orgeron also was a graduate assistant at Northwestern (La.) State, his alma mater, in 1984 and McNeese State in 1985, working with the defensive line at both schools, then was an assistant strength coach at Arkansas for 2 years (1986-87). The Razorbacks were in the 1987 Orange Bowl and 1987 Liberty Bowl. He worked in private business in 1993.

KENNEDY POLAMALU
Offensive Coordinator
Running Backs Coach

Kennedy Polamalu, a former USC player and assistant coach, is in his second year back at USC as the offensive coordinator and running backs coach. He returned to USC in July of 2010 after spending 6 years as an NFL assistant.

Tailback Allen Bradford was a sixth round pick in the 2011 NFL draft and fullback Stanley Havili was a seventh rounder.

Polamalu, 47, who joined the Tennessee Titans as the running backs coach following the 2009 season, spent the previous 5 season (2005-09) as the running backs coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars. While there, both Fred Taylor (2007) and Maurice Jones-Drew (2009) earned Pro Bowl honors and the Jaguars offense totaled the third most rushing yards in the NFL over that time, including 4 Top 10 rushing finishes. In 2009, Jones-Drew finished fourth in the NFL in rushing (1,391 yards), fourth in scrimmage yards (1,765) and second in total touchdowns scored (16). In 2008, Greg Jones became the highest paid fullback in NFL history. The Jaguars finished second in the AFC South Division and were in the AFC playoffs in 2005 and 2007, advancing to the AFC divisional playoffs in 2007.

He was the running backs coach for the Cleveland Browns in 2004.

Polamalu spent 4 years (2000-03) as an assistant at USC. He was the running backs coach in 2000, spent 2001 as the special teams coordinator, then returned to his running back coaching duties in 2002 and 2003 while also continuing as special teams coordinator.

In 2003, USC's 4 young tailbacks who saw action combined for 1,887 rushing yards (157.3 per game) and 20 rushing TDs (plus 4 receiving TDs and 1 kickoff return TD). Tailback LenDale White's 13 rushing touchdowns were a USC freshman season record. Tom Malone was named USC's first-ever All-American first team punter (he also made All-Pac-10 first team).

In 2002, USC 4 tailbacks combined for 1,897 rushing yards (2 were NFL draft picks: Justin Fargas in the third round and Malaefou MacKenzie in the seventh).

In 2001, cornerback Kevin Arbet won All-Pac-10 first team honors as a special teams player and placekicker David Davis led the Pac-10 in field goals (tied for 17th in the nation).

In 2000, tailback Sultan McCullough ran for 1,163 yards.

USC played in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, 2003 Orange Bowl and 2004 Rose Bowl. USC won the national championship in 2003.

Polamalu spent 1999 as the linebackers coach at San Diego State, working under former USC head coach Ted Tollner.

He coached the running backs at Colorado in 1997 and 1998. The 1998 Buffaloes won the Aloha Bowl.

Before that, he spent 3 years (1994 to 1996) as San Diego State's running backs coach, guiding a pair of 1,000-yard rushers (Wayne Pittman in 1994 and George Jones in 1995). Jones, who was 32 yards shy of 1,000 yards in 1996, won All-WAC first team honors in 1995 and played in the NFL with Pittsburgh and Jacksonville. Pola also worked with the Aztecs special teams in 1996 (punter Noel Prefontaine was an All-American first teamer, placekicker Peter Holt was runnerup for the Lou Groza Award given to the nation's top kicker and return specialist Leandrew Childs was an All-WAC first team pick).

Polamalu was a graduate assistant coach at UCLA in 1992 and 1993, working with the secondary and special teams. The 1993 Bruins played in the Rose Bowl.

He began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Crespi High in Encino, Calif., for 3 seasons (1986-88) and then Westlake High in Westlake Village (Calif.) for 3 years (1989-91). Crespi won the 1986 CIF Division I championship and he coached prep All-American running back Russell White, who starred at California.

Polamalu was a 4-year letterman (1982-85) at USC, playing both fullback and linebacker. He began his Trojan career as a backup linebacker, but was moved to fullback by midseason of his freshman year. He ended up starting there the last 2 games of 1982 against UCLA and Notre Dame, as well as most of the next 3 seasons. In his career, he ran for 681 yards (he also caught 23 passes and in 1983 threw a 65-yard scoring pass against Stanford). He helped USC to a victory over Ohio State in the 1985 Rose Bowl (he also played in the 1985 Aloha Bowl).

He earned his bachelor's degree in history from USC in 1987.

He attended Mater Dei High in Santa Ana, Calif., where he was a prep All-American in football (he also was on the basketball and track teams). He also served as the student body president.

His nephew, Troy Polamalu, was a 2-time (2001-02) All-American first team safety on the USC football team who now stars in the NFL with the Pittsburgh Steelers (he was Pittsburgh's first round pick). Kennedy's brother, Ao Polamalu, played football at Penn State (1985-87). Nephew Nicky Sualua played running back in the NFL with Dallas and Cincinnati after attending Ohio State, while 4 other nephews played college football: Leie Sualua was a defensive lineman at Oregon, Joe Polamalu was at Oregon State in 1987 and 1988, Kaio Aumua played at UTEP and Michael Polamalu is a freshman running back at Navy.

Polamalu was born in Pago Pago, American Samoa, on Nov. 22, 1963, the same day President John F. Kennedy was assassinated (Polamalu was named in his honor). He returned to him homeland in the summer of 2011 and conducted a football clinic. It was then that he changed his name back to Polamalu (from Pola, which he had used since coming to California) to "honor my parents, family and heritage."

He and his wife, Diane, have 3 sons: K.C. (Kennedy Christopher), 19, who was a walk-on fullback at USC in 2010, Matthew Aoatoa, 18, and Raymond Trey, 13.

He returned at UCLA and, playing with a high ankle sprain that sidelined him the previous game-and-a-half, completed 15-of-26 passes for 198 yards with 1 TD and 2 interceptions at UCLA.

2009: Barkley, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2009 after graduating a semester early from high school and had an impressive showing in 2009 spring practice, won the starting quarterback job as a first-year freshman in 2009. Overall in 2009 while starting 12 games (he missed the Washington game with an injury), he was 211-of-352 (59.9%) with 2,735 yards, 15 TDs and 14 interceptions. He also had 2 short rushing touchdowns. His 211 completions put him 13th on USC's season passing list. He also was 12th on USC's season total offense list (2,697 yards). He was a semifinalist for the 2009 Davey O'Brien Award (he was the only freshman among the 15 semifinalists). He was named a 2009 CollegeFootballNews.com Freshman All-American honorable mention.

He completed 78.9% of his passes (15-of-19) for 233 yards with a touchdown and no interceptions against San Jose State as he became the first USC true freshman to ever start a season opener at quarterback (and the first true freshman quarterback to start an opener for an AP Top 5 team since No. 3 Michigan's Rick Leach did so in 1975), as well as just the third Trojan true freshman signalcaller to ever start a game (joining Rob Johnson, 1 start in 1991, and Carson Palmer, 5 starts in 1998). He showed tremendous poise and leadership at noisy Ohio State as he completed 15-of-31 passes for 195 yards (with an interception) and led USC on a late 86-yard game-winning drive (contributing 55 passing yards and 2 sneaks for first downs in the series) despite bruising his throwing (right) shoulder in the second half, which sidelined him for the subsequent game at Washington. He returned to the starting lineup against Washington State and hit 13-of-22 passes for 247 yards, with a pair of long touchdowns (29 and 57 yards), despite still somewhat bothered by a sore shoulder. He was 20-of-35 for 283 yards with an interception at California. He hit 19-of-29 passes for a career-best 380 yards with 2 touchdowns and an interception at Notre Dame (he was 11-of-14 for 234 yards in the second half, including completing 8 consecutive throws) to earn Davey O'Brien National Quarterback of the Week honors. He hit 15-of-25 passes for 202 yards with 2 TDs and 2 interceptions (and he also scored on a sneak) against Oregon State. He completed 21-of-38 passes for 187 yards and 2 short touchdowns at Oregon (his final pass was intercepted). He was 7-of-22 for 112 yards with a TD (a 75-yarder, the longest at USC since a 93-yarder from Carson Palmer to Kareem Kelly in 2001 against Oregon) and an interception at Arizona State. He was 21-of-31 for 196 yards with 1 TD and 3 interceptions against Stanford. He was 18-of-26 for 206 yards with a 48-yard TD and an interception against UCLA. He was 20-of-37 for 144 yards with a TD and an interception against Arizona. GAME 1 – September 2, Honolulu, Hawaii
USC 49, Hawaii 36
Att: 44,204

USC	14	13	15	7	—	49
Hawaii	3	13	7	13	—	36

QB Matt Barkley threw 5 touchdowns and WR Ronald Johnson caught 3 TDs—both tying school single game records—as the Lane Kiffin era at No. 14 USC got off to a successful start with a 49-36 win at Hawaii in front of 44,204 fans and a national ESPN Thursday night audience.

It was USC's seventh win in as many tries against Hawaii, as well as its 13th consecutive win in an opener and 17th straight victory in a non-conference game. It also was USC's 400th live game telecast.

The Trojans scored on their first 3 possessions to open up a 20-3 lead, first on a 46-yard Barkley pass to WR-TE David Ausberry, who easily shed the covering defensive back. Then, after Hawaii answered with a 24-yard field goal by PK Scott Enos, Barkley hit Johnson on a 1-yard scoring pass and early in the second quarter TE Rhett Ellison stretched out to catch a 6-yard Barkley TD.

A 40-yard Enos field goal and a 56-yard TD pass from QB Bryant Moniz to WR Kealoha Pilares brought the Warriors within 20-13 late in the half. USC used its hurry-up offense to get a 13-yard Barkley TD pass to Johnson with 1:06 to go. But Hawaii marched right back to an 18-yard Enos field goal with 3 seconds to play. Barkley, who hit his first 7 passes and 11 of his first 12 (the incompletion was dropped), was 15-of-19 for 190 yards with 4 TDs in the half.

Midway through the third quarter, Johnson fielded a punt in traffic and returned it 89 yards for a TD, USC's longest punt return since Curtis Conway's school-record 96-yarder in 1992 against Oregon. Hawaii countered with a 1-yard TD run by RB Alex Green, but USC responded with Barkley's 3-yard TD to Johnson to make it 42-23.

Hawaii closed the gap with the first of 2 long scoring passes from QB Shane Austin to Pilares. The first went for 65 yards with 6:48 to go and then, after TB Marc Tyler ran for a 44-yard TD on USC's next play, the second went for 30 yards.

Overall, Barkley was 18-of-23 for 257 yards, Johnson had 159 all-purpose yards (100 on 3 punt returns in his first USC game handling that duty and 59 on 7 receptions) and Tyler rushed for a personal-best 154 yards on 17 carries (a 9.1 average per rush) in his first career start. WR Robert Woods (who caught 4 passes for 46 yards and returned 6 kickoffs for 96 yards) and CB Nickell Robey (who had 6 tackles and a deflection) became the first USC true freshmen to start a season opener at their positions in the post-World War II era (when records were first available). LB Malcolm Smith and DE Wes Horton also each posted 6 stops , while DT Jurrell Casey had 2 sacks.

Hawaii outgained USC, 588 to 524, and the Warriors' 459 passing yards were the most against Troy since Oregon State had 485 in 2003. Hawaii had 31 first downs (tied for the second most ever allowed by USC). The Warriors' 78 plays were 16 more than USC had, but Troy averaged 8.5 yards per play. The Trojans converted 9-of12 first downs, but were penalized 11 times for 100 yards.

Three Warriors each had 100 receiving yards, the first time that happened against USC: Pilares (176 on 5 catches), WR Greg Salas (124 on 8 receptions) and WR Royce Pollard (106 on 7 catches). Moniz was 18-of-36 for 269 yards before getting knocked out of the game, Austin was 6-of-9 for 141 yards and QB Brent Rausch was 3-of-4 for 49 yards. Green ran for 66 yards on 9 carries.

GAME 2 – September 11, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 17, Virginia 14
Att: 81,375

Virginia	0	7	0	7	—	14
USC	0	14	0	3	—	17

QB Matt Barkley threw a pair of touchdown passes and the Trojan defense made just enough key plays to help No. 16 hang on to beat Virginia, 17-14, in Troy's 2010 home opener before 81,375 fans in the Coliseum and a national FSN audience.

It was USC's 13th consecutive home opening win and kept the Trojans undefeated in their past 32 home night game, 18 non-conference games and 15 non-conference home games.

After a scoreless first quarter, Barkley threw his 2 scoring passes late in the half. First, he found TE Jordan Cameron in the corner of the end zone for a 4-yard scoring pass with 3:43 to go. Then, after Virginia answered with a 6-yard TD run by TB Keith Payne, USC marched 76 yards culminating in Barkley's 11-yard scoring pass to WR Brandon Carswell across the middle with a second on the clock.

PK Joe Houston added a 34-yard field goal with 5:52 left in the game. The Cavaliers closed the gap with 4 seconds to go on a 3-yard TD pass from QB Marc Verica to WR Kris Burd.

The Trojans dodged several Virginia scoring chances, as S T.J. McDonald picked off a 4-yard Verica pass in the end zone in the first quarter and then CB Shareece Wright blocked a 35-yard field goal try by PK Robert Randolph late in the game (Randolph also missed a first quarter field goal).

For the second week in a row, USC's offense was outgained, this time by a 340-329 margin, and the Trojans again amassed a slew of penalties (12). Troy also converted just 5-of-15 third downs.

Barkley was 20-of-35 for 202 yards, WR Ronald Johnson caught 5 passes for 58 yards, WR Robert Woods added 3 grabs for 64 yards and TB Marc Tyler ran for 67 yards on 18 carries. McDonald had a game-best 14 tackles, LB Malcolm Smith added 12 stops and DT Jurrell Casey had 10.

For Virginia, Verica completed 17-of-36 passes for 190 yards, TB Perry Jones had 77 yards on 14 carries, Payne added 57 yards on 12 attempts and TE Joe Torchia caught 5 passes for 73 yards.

To commemorate the ninth anniversary of September 11, a group of uniformed military and police personnel joined the Trojan Marching Band on the field during the national anthem.

GAME 3 – September 18, Minneapolis, Minnesota
USC 32, Minnesota 21
Att: 50,442

USC	7	6	6	13	—	32
Minnesota	7	0	7	7	—	21

WR Robert Woods returned a kickoff for a touchdown to jumpstart the Trojans and TB Allen Bradford ran for more than 100 yards as No. 20 USC stormed back in the game's final 21 minutes to win at Minnesota, 32-21, before a near-capacity crowd of 50,442 and a national ESPN cable audience.

It was the teams' first meeting in 30 years and came in 1-year-old TCF Bank Stadium in Minneapolis, a city where USC head coach Lane Kiffin spent his teenage years. It was USC's 19th consecutive non-conference win, 13th straight non-league road victory and 11th win in a row over a Big Ten opponent.

After Minnesota took a 14-13 lead with 5:47 remaining in the third quarter on a 31-yard TD pass from QB Adam Weber to WR Da'Jon McKnight (following a USC interception), Woods returned the ensuing kickoff 97 yards for a score (the longest kick return by a Trojan since Chad Morton went 98 yards for a TD against Purdue in 1998 and the first scoring kickoff return by a USC freshman since Reggie Bush did so against UCLA in 2003), the first of 19 consecutive Trojan points.

USC scored TDs on its next 2 possessions, first on a 21-yard pass from QB Matt Barkley to WR David Ausberry and then on Bradford's 56-yard burst (the longest TD run by a Trojan since Bush's 76-yarder against Arkansas in 2005). The Gophers added a touchdown against USC's reserves with 11 seconds to play as Weber hit WR MarQueis Gray on a 22-yard aerial.

Minnesota opened the game's scoring on RB DeLeon Eskridge's 1-yard run midway through the first quarter. But USC countered with touchdowns on its next 2 drives, first on TB Marc Tyler's 3-yard run and then on a 53-yard Barkley bomb to WR Ronald Johnson.

USC had 408 total yards and held the Gophers to 307 (including just 83 rushing yards). Both teams had 3 turnovers, neither squad converted a high percentage of third downs (USC was 4-of-10, Minnesota was 6-of-14), the Trojans were penalized 7 times and USC failed to convert a trio of 2-point conversions.

Bradford averaged 10.9 yards on his 10 carries while rushing for 131 yards (his second career 100-yard outing). Woods had 4 catches for 33 yards and Johnson added 3 catches for 63 yards. Barkley was 17-of-26 for 192 yards and the 2 touchdowns, but threw 2 interceptions after opening the 2010 season without a pick in his first 72 passes.

DT Jurrell Casey posted 9 tackles, S T.J. McDonald added 7 stops (with a sack), S Jawanza Starling and LB Chris Galippo each had an interception and LB Michael Morgan recovered a fumble.

For Minnesota, Weber was 15-of-29 for 224 yards, Gray caught 4 passes for 98 yards, McKnight had 3 receptions for 53 yards, RB Donnell Kirkwood had 40 yards on 10 carries and LB Gary Tinsley had a game-best 10 tackles.

GAME 4 – September 25, Pullman, Washington
USC 50, Washington State 16
Att: 24,310

USC	21	7	15	7	—	50
Washington State	7	6	0	3	—	16

FB Stanley Havili gained 187 yards and scored 2 touchdowns to lead No. 20 USC to a decisive 50-16 Pac-10 opening win on a warm day at Washington State in front of 24,310 fans and a FSN Prime Ticket local audience.

It was USC's eighth consecutive win over the Cougars. Lane Kiffin became the first USC head coach since Jess Hill in 1951 to begin his Trojan career with a 4-0 mark.

After WSU opened the scoring on a trick 29-yard reverse pass from WR Jeffrey Solomon to WR Jared Karstetter, USC responded with a pair of touchdowns in an 11-second span: Havili raced 59 yards for a score on USC's first play and then CB Nickell Robey returned an interception 25 yards for a TD at the 11:07 mark. It was USC's 2 earliest touchdowns scored in a game since scoring twice against WSU in 2004, when Troy did so by the 12:22 mark.

The Trojans scored again on their next possession, a 11-yard pass from QB Matt Barkley to WR Robert Woods (2 plays following a 58-yard Barkley pass to Havili). The Cougars got back on the board in the second quarter after getting an interception as QB Jeff Tuel hit Karstetter with a 6-yard TD pass. Late in the half, following Robey's second interception (to become the first Trojan freshman to get 2 picks in a game since Mike Salmon did so in 1990 against Arizona State), Tyler scored on a 2-yard run to give USC a 28-13 halftime lead.

The Trojans rolled up 312 yards of total offense in the first half despite turning the ball over 3 times and holding it only 1:33 in the opening quarter. Both teams ran primarily a no huddle offense in the first half.

It was all USC in the second half, as the Trojans scored on their first 3 possessions: 7-yard Barkley passes to WRs Brice Butler (to culminate a 93-yard drive) and Ronald Johnson (to finish a 98-yard drive) and a 22-yard pass from QB Mitch Mustain to Havili early in the fourth quarter.

Washington State added a 44-yard field goal by PK Nico Grasu midway through the final quarter against USC's reserves.

Overall, USC had 613 total yards (including 328 through the air) while averaging 8.9 yards per play, made 28 first downs while converting 8-of-12 third downs (and 2-of-3 fourth downs) and did not have to punt. The Trojan defense limited WSU to 323 total yards (just 67 rushing) and 6-of-15 on third down conversions while posting 3 sacks and getting 3 turnovers.

Havili ran for 80 yards on 4 carries and caught 5 passes for 107 yards. TB Allen Bradford had a game-best 84 yards on 7 rushes and TB Dillon Baxter added 75 yards on 14 tries. Johnson caught 5 passes for 69 yards. Barkley was 16-of-25 for 290 yards and Mustain went 4-of-5 for 38 yards.

LB Devon Kennard had a game-best 8 tackles, while S T.J. McDonald added 6 stops (1 for a loss) and an interception.

For WSU, Tuel was 24-of-37 for 222 yards and 3 interceptions, Karstetter caught 8 passes for 87 yards and WR Marquess Wilson had 7 receptions for 59 yards.

It was the smallest crowd USC has played in front of since the 22,385 against Utah in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl.

GAME 5 – October 2, Los Angeles Coliseum
Washington 32, USC 31
Att: 82,796

Washington	3	17	3	9	—	32
USC	7	14	7	3	—	31

For the second year in a row, PK Erik Folk kicked a late field goal to beat USC, this time connecting on a 32-yarder at the gun as Washington upset No. 18 USC, 32-31, to offset a 223-yard rushing performance by TB Allen Bradford on a warm evening before 82,796 fans in the Coliseum and an ESPN2 regional cable audience.

Last year, Folk connected on a 22-yard field goal with 3 seconds to play to lift the Huskies to a 3-point upset over No. 3 USC.

The last time USC lost a game on a field goal at the gun in regulation was in 2001 at Washington, but that game was tied before the winning kick; the last time USC lost a game it was leading because of a field goal at the gun in regulation was in 1986 to Notre Dame. It also was just the second time since 2000 that USC lost a game by 1 point.

It was UW's most points against USC since 1960 and the Huskies' second most in the series. It was UW's first win in the Coliseum since 1996. The loss snapped USC's school-record 32-game winning streak in home night contests.

The game matched head coaches Lane Kiffin of USC and Steve Sarkisian of Washington, former Trojan offensive assistants who worked together for 5 years in Heritage Hall.

After USC missed a 40-yard field goal with 2:34 to play, QB Jake Locker marched the Huskies 61 yards in 10 plays—including an 18-yard Locker completion to WR D'Andre Goodwin on fourth-and-11 from UW's 23-yard line—to set up Folk's game winner.

The teams combined for more than 1,000 yards of total offense (UW had 537 and USC had 484) and had 54 first downs (UW had 28 and USC had 26). There were 7 lead changes. Each team held the ball for 30:00, but UW ran off 75 plays (for an average of 7.2 yards per play) to USC's 59 (for an 8.2 average). The Huskies converted 7-of-14 third downs and 2-of-3 fourth downs.

Locker passed for 310 yards while hitting 24-of-40 throws and he also ran for 110 yards on 12 carries.

Bradford jetted 37 yards for a touchdown the first time he touched the ball on the game's opening drive. The Huskies answered with the first of Folk's 4 field goals in the game, this one a 23-yarder. The Huskies scored on their next 2 possessions to build a 17-7 lead early in the second quarter on a 1-yard TD run by TB Chris Polk (Locker ran 16 yards on a fourth-and-1 to keep alive the 80-yard drive) and a 44-yard Locker scoring pass to WR Devin Aguilar on the first play after a Trojan punt.

But USC responded with touchdowns on its next 2 series: after WR Robert Woods returned a kickoff 56 yards, Troy had to go just 38 yards to score as TB Marc Tyler ran for a 4-yard TD and then, after CB Shareece Wright punched the ball out of Locker's hands and out of the end zone for a touchback as Locker was about to score on a 54-yard run, Tyler had a 6-yard TD run with 2:35 to go in the half to culminate an 80-yard drive. Washington got within 21-20 late in the half on a 41-yard Folk field goal.

The teams had 624 total yards by halftime (319 for UW, 305 for USC) as Troy held the ball for 18:58.

Washington took the lead on the opening drive of the second half on a 35-yard Folk field goal, then USC countered late in the third quarter with Bradford's 16-yard TD run. UW responded with a 1-yard TD throw from QB Keith Price (who subbed in that play for a woozy Locker) to TE Chris Izbicki at the top of the fourth quarter. USC re-took the lead, 31-29, on the ensuing drive on PK Joe Houston's 27-yard field goal with 10:00 to play.

Bradford's career-best 223 rushing yards were the most by a Trojan since Reggie Bush had 260 against UCLA in 2005. It marked the most rushing yards by a USC runner ever in a loss and was the first time a Trojan had 200 yards in a loss since Marcus Allen's 211 yards in 1981 against Arizona. Bradford averaged 10.6 yards on his 21 carries, while Tyler added 60 yards on 14 carries (mainly from the Wildcat formation).

QB Matt Barkley was 14-of-20 for 186 yards, but had his streak of games with a TD pass snapped at 12. WR Ronald Johnson caught 6 passes for 109 yards, his first 100-yard outing.

S T.J. McDonald had a game-best 11 tackles, LB Devon Kennard added 10 stops and both Wright and LB Malcolm Smith had 8 tackles.

For UW, Polk had 92 yards on 13 carries and 50 yards on 4 catches, WR Jermaine Kearse had 6 receptions for 92 yards and Aguilar added 5 grabs for 83 yards.

It was USC's 111th consecutive game on some form of live television, tying a school record.

GAME 6 – October 9, Palo Alto, California
Stanford 37, USC 35
Att: 51,607

USC	7	7	7	14	—	35
Stanford	7	7	7	16	—	37

For the second week in a row, USC was beaten by a field goal at the gun, this time a 30-yarder by PK Nate Whitaker to lift No. 16 Stanford to a 37-35 win over 10-point underdog USC before a record 51,607 fans in sold-out Stanford Stadium and a regional ABC-TV audience.

It was USC's first back-to-back losses since 2001, as well as the first time that the Trojans have suffered consecutive losses by a combined 3 points or less since 1958 and the first season ever that Troy has suffered a pair of losses on the game's final play of regulation. It also was Stanford's first win over USC in Palo Alto since 2000.

USC had taken a 35-34 lead with 1:08 to go on a 3-yard touchdown run by TB Allen Bradford after CB Torin Harris recovered a Stanford fumble at midfield (forced by LB Chris Galippo). But Stanford quickly marched 62 yards to set up the winning field goal to cap a wild fourth quarter that saw the teams combine for 30 points and 223 total yards.

Overall in the game, the teams totaled nearly 1,000 yards of offense (498 by USC and 478 by Stanford) and 51 first downs. Stanford averaged 8.0 yards on its 60 plays, while USC was at 6.7 for its 74 plays. USC converted 9-of-15 third downs (and 2-of-3 fourth downs), while Stanford was 6-of-8 on third downs. There were only 3 punts in the game.

The loss overshadowed stellar outings by QB Matt Barkley and WR Robert Woods. Barkley was 28-of-45 for 390 yards (all career highs) with 3 TDs, while Woods caught all 3 of those touchdowns to tie the USC game record for TD catches. Woods' 12 receptions tied for fifth most by a Trojan in a game (1 shy of the USC freshman game record), while his 224 receiving yards was the fifth highest game total by a Trojan (just 36 yards shy of the school record). Combined with his 86 yards on kickoff returns, Woods had 310 all-purpose yards.

The first 3 quarters played at a more moderate pace than the final quarter. USC got on the board first as TB Dillon Baxter ran for an 8-yard TD out of the Wildcat formation midway through the opening quarter. Stanford answered right back on an 11-yard pass from QB Andrew Luck to WR Doug Baldwin.

Both teams then lost fumbles in the red zone before the Cardinal took the lead midway through the second quarter on a 6-yard scoring run by TB Anthony Wilkerson. But USC responded on its ensuing possession, with a 6-yard Barkley pass to Woods knotting the halftime score at 14-14.

Stanford drove 93 yards on its initial series of the second half, ending with a 1-yard TD run by RB Stepfan Taylor. But USC countered on the next series, with Woods racing with a Barkley aerial 61 yards for a TD.

The teams scored on the first 3 drives of the final quarter, first on a 2-yard Luck pass to TE Konrad Reuland followed by Barkley's 6-yard pass to Woods, then a 7-yard Luck pass to Baldwin with 9:27 left. But Whitaker's PAT try hit the upright to give Stanford a 34-28 edge, leaving the door open for USC to take the lead on Bradford's late touchdown.

Luck was 20-of-24 for 285 yards and the 3 scores, while Taylor ran for 104 yards on 23 carries and Baldwin caught 8 passes for 98 yards.

LB Shane Horton led USC with 10 tackles off the bench, including 2 for losses, and he forced a fumble. DT Jurrell Casey and CB Shareece Wright recovered fumbles. WR Ronald Johnson had 6 catches for 61 yards.

It was a school-record 112th consecutive USC game on some form of live television.

GAME 7 – October 16, Los Angeles Coliseum

QB Matt Barkley threw 5 first-half touchdown passes, including 2 each to WRs Ronald Johnson and Robert Woods, to help USC forge a 42-0 halftime lead and the defense had its best showing of the season as the Trojans snapped a 2-game losing streak with a 48-14 demolition of California before 72,386 fans in the Coliseum and a national FSN cable audience.

It was USC's seventh straight victory over the Golden Bears (and fifth in a row in the Coliseum).

Troy produced its finest overall performance of the 2010 season. The Trojan offense rolled up 602 total yards (391 passing) against a Cal defense that led the Pac-10 (and was in the national Top 10) in total (254.8) and pass (148.8) defense. USC's maligned defense limited Cal to a season-low 245 yards (just 52 rushing). The Trojans had decided edges in first downs (32 to 10), plays (80 to 49), possession time (36:07 to 23:53) and third down conversions (7-of-14 to 2-of-10).

Barkley, who hit 25-of-37 passes, threw 5 TDs for the second time in 2010 to again tie the USC game record (he also tied the school record for most TD throws in a half).

Barkley hit Woods on a 16-yard score on USC's first series, then found WR-TE David Ausberry for a 22-yard TD late in the first quarter. USC followed by scoring on all 4 of its second quarter possessions: TB Marc Tyler ran for an 11-yard TD, Woods caught a 9-yard touchdown from Barkley, Johnson grabbed an 8-yard Barkley TD pass with 43 seconds to go in the half to cap a 95-yard drive after S T.J. McDonald's interception and, finally, after DT DaJohn Harris' interception on Cal's ensuing play, Johnson hauled in an 11-yard scoring pass from Barkley with 8 seconds to go.

It was Cal's worst halftime deficit in school history and tied for the second most points the Bears ever allowed in a half. In the first 30 minutes, USC had 372 total yards on 45 plays to Cal's 64 yards (just 13 rushing) on 20 plays, plus the Trojans posted 20 first downs to Cal's 3 and 6-of-8 converted third downs to Cal's 1-of-6. Barkley was 20-of-29 for 257 yards in the first half.

Troy added a pair of 27-yard field goals by PK Joe Houston in the second half, while Cal got on the board with TD passes from QB Kevin Riley to TB Shane Vereen (31 yards) and WR Keenan Allen (8 yards) against the Trojan backups.

Woods (116 yards) and Johnson (45 yards) each had 7 catches. Tyler ran for a game-best 79 yards on 7 carries and TB C.J. Gable added 72 yards on 13 carries before hurting his knee late in the game.

LBs Chris Galippo and Devon Kennard led USC with 6 tackles each.

For Cal, Riley was 15-of-29 for 193 yards, Vereen rushed for 53 yards on 10 carries and caught 3 passes for 45 yards and Allen had 4 receptions for 61 yards.

GAME 8 – October 30, Los Angeles Coliseum
Oregon 53, USC 32
Att: 88,726

Oregon	8	21	14	10	—	53
USC	10	7	15	0	—	32

RB LaMichael James rushed for 239 yards and 3 touchdowns and QB Darron Thomas threw 4 TD passes as No. 1-ranked Oregon overcame a third quarter deficit by scoring the game's final 24 points to beat No. 24 USC, 53-32, before a Homecoming crowd of 88,726 in the Coliseum and a national ABC-TV audience.

It was USC's first game against a top-ranked team since 1992 and the first in the Coliseum since 1988. It was Oregon's first win in the Coliseum since 2000 and the Ducks' most points ever against USC in Los Angeles. It also was the most points surrendered by Oregon in 2010.

James' rushing total, which came on 36 carries, was the second most ever against USC. Thomas' 4 TD tosses tied a USC opponent game mark.

Oregon had 599 total yards (329 on the ground) on 82 plays, while the Ducks' unheralded defense limited USC to 377 total yards on 85 plays. USC held the ball 32:35, including 21:11 in the first half.

USC trailed 29-17 at halftime, but scored a pair of quick touchdowns to open the second half, with QB Matt Barkley hitting WR Ronald Johnson on a 5-yard score 3 plays after DT Jurrell Casey's interception and then Barkley got a 1-yard scoring sneak with just 3:41 into the half that was set up by Johnson's 55-yard punt return.

But the Ducks, whose fast-paced offense usually leads to quick scores, used long, time-consuming drives (they held the ball for 18:36 in the half) to tally points on their next 4 possessions and put the game out of reach. First, Thomas hit WR Jeff Maehl on a 30-yard TD pass to end a 12-play drive, then James had a 2-yard TD run late in the third quarter to conclude an 11-play drive. PK Rob Beard next hit a 34-yard field goal on another 11-play drive and James' 8-yard scoring run late in the game finished a 7-play drive.

USC's final 2 drives ended in the red zone with an end zone interception and a failed fourth down.

USC, coming off a bye, got on the board first with PK Joe Houston's 32-yard field goal on the game's opening drive. But Oregon countered with a 15-yard Thomas scoring pass to Maehl. USC recaptured the lead late in the first quarter on TB Marc Tyler's 1-yard TD run.

The teams exchanged touchdowns early in the second quarter, with James scoring on a 42-yard run (on a 2-play drive) and Tyler responding with an 8-yard TD run. But the Ducks got 2 more late touchdowns before the half, the first on a 45-yard Thomas-to-Maehl aerial one play after a fumble recovery and then on a 33-yard Thomas pass to WR Lavasier Tuinei just 2 plays following a 41-yard punt return by CB Cliff Harris with 1:10 to go.

Barkley was 26-of-49 for 264 yards (it was the most pass attempts by a Trojan player and a USC team since Carson Palmer's and USC's 50 against Washington State in 2002), but he was picked off twice (to snap a streak of 137 passes without an interception) and lost a fumble. Tyler led USC with 69 rushing yards on 17 carries. WR Robert Woods had 259 all-purpose yards (59 on 7 receptions and 200 on 8 kickoff returns), while Johnson had 159 all-purpose yards (65 on 4 catches and 94 on 4 punt returns).

LB Devon Kennard had a game-high 13 tackles, while LB Shane Horton added 11 stops (2.5 for losses) off the bench.

Maehl had 8 receptions for 145 yards and the 3 TDs for the Ducks, while Tuinei added 7 grabs for 78 yards. Thomas also ran for 42 yards on 8 carries. Duck LB Casey Matthews, who has 4 relatives who played at USC, recorded 10 tackles.

ESPN's "College GameDay " pre-game show made its seventh visit to the Coliseum.

GAME 9 – November 6, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 34, Arizona State 33
Att: 68,744

Arizona State	7	0	14	12	—	33
USC	0	14	15	5	—	34

In a game that hinged on a number of big plays by the special teams, PK Joe Houston hit a late field goal and then Arizona State missed a subsequent 3-pointer to give the Trojans a 34-33 victory before 68,744 fans in the Coliseum and an FSN national cable audience.

It was USC's 11th consecutive win over the Sun Devils. It also was the Trojans' first 1-point victory since doing so over Stanford in 1995 and Troy's most points scored in a 1-point win.

Houston, who missed a pair of short field goals in the first half, nailed a 29-yarder with 3:06 to play to culminate a 9-play, 68-yard drive after the Sun Devils had taken their first lead of the game. But ASU quickly moved down the field to set up a 42-yard field goal attempt by PK Thomas Weber, who hooked the ball wide left with 1:34 to play.

Arizona State got on the board just 1:37 into the game on a 10-yard scoring pass from QB Steven Threet to WR Gerrell Robinson, 3 plays after the Sun Devils opened the contest with a 54-yard reverse pass to the USC 18-yard line.

The Trojans got a pair of touchdowns late in the initial half, the first on a 15-yard pass from QB Matt Barkley to TB Marc Tyler and then on a 2-yard Barkley toss to WR David Ausberry. After ASU's game-opening 72-yard TD drive, USC held the Sun Devils to just 70 yards the rest of the first half.

USC opened up a 22-7 lead early in the second half when LB Malcolm Smith intercepted a Threet pass and ran it back 74 yards for a touchdown (the longest scoring interception return by a Trojan since Kevin Arbet's 75-yarder against Louisiana Tech in 1999), followed by QB Mitch Mustain's 2-point conversion pass to Ausberry. But ASU answered on its following series as Threet hit Robinson for a 21-yard score. USC responded right back as FB Stanley Havili took a Barkley pass 22 yards for a touchdown and a 29-14 lead late in the third quarter.

However, Arizona State then went on a 19-point run. CB LeQuan Lewis took the ensuing kickoff 100 yards for a TD (the longest against USC since a 100-yader by Iowa's C.J. Jones in the 2003 Orange Bowl). Then, early in the fourth quarter, CB Omar Bolden picked off a Barkley pass and returned it 66 yards for a score (the longest scoring interception return against Troy since Washington's Dashon Goldson had a 76-yarder in 2005 and the first time since the 2003 Oregon State game that both a Trojan and an opponent had scoring interception runbacks in the same game), but ASU's 2-point attempt failed. ASU scored again on its next possession as Threet found WR Jamal Miles on a 9-yard touchdown. But OT Tyron Smith blocked Weber's PAT kick attempt and CB Torin Harris returned it for a 2-point defensive PAT with 6:59 to play (USC's first defensive PAT since Micah Phillips' in 1994 versus Oregon State) to bring USC within 33-31, setting up Houston's game-winning field goal on the Trojans' ensuing possession.

Statistically, the teams were even (USC had 402 total yards and 24 first downs while converting 4-of-15 third downs, while ASU had 398 total yards and 22 first downs while going 4-of-13 on third downs) but USC held the ball for 36:48. Both teams had 4 sacks.

Barkley was 26-of-37 for 215 yards with the 3 TDs, but was intercepted twice (his other pick was in the end zone after USC had recovered a blocked punt at the ASU 9). Tyler ran for 119 yards on 12 carries and caught 5 a team-best 5 passes for 32 yards, while TB Dillon Baxter rushed for 52 yards on 17 carries and had 4 receptions for 24 yards while making his first career start.

S T.J. McDonald had a game-high 13 tackles and blocked a punt (he partially blocked another punt and also downed a punt at the ASU 4). Malcolm Smith added 7 tackles (with a sack) and forced a fumble to go with his scoring interception return, while CB Shareece Wright had 6 tackles (1.5 sacks) and 2 pass breakups.

For ASU, Threet was 24-of-40 for 228 yards with 3 TDs and 2 interceptions, WR T.J. Simpson had 8 catches for 95 yards and WR Kerry Taylor added 6 receptions for 64 yards, and TB Cameron Marshall had 57 yards on 9 carries and TB Deantre Lewis had 55 ayrds on 12 tries.

GAME 10 – November 13, Tucson, Arizona
USC 24, Arizona 21
Att: 54,722

USC	14	7	3	0	—	24
Arizona	0	14	0	7	—	21

TB Marc Tyler rushed for a career-best 160 yards with a touchdown, QB Matt Barkley threw for a TD and ran for another and USC took advantage of a pair of Wildcat fumbles as the Trojans posted a wire-to-wire 24-21 win at No. 18 Arizona on a chilly night before 54,722 fans and an ABC-TV regional audience.

It was USC's fifth consecutive victory in Tucson. It also was the fifth USC game in 2010 that was decided by 3 points or less, a first in school history.

Tyler averaged 5.2 yards on his 31 carries, the most rushes by a Trojan since Sultan McCullough's 39 against California in 2001.

USC ran for 205 yards against an Arizona squad that led the Pac-10 (and was 10th nationally) in both rushing defense (102.7) and scoring defense (17.4) and the Trojan offensive line did not surrender a sack to a Wildcat defense that was sixth nationally in sacks (3.0).

USC scored on its first 3 possessions. After Arizona missed a field goal that was nicked off course by OG-C Michael Reardon on the game's first series, the Trojans marched 80 yards in 10 plays, with Barkley scoring on a 1-yard sneak. On UA's next possession, CB Shareece Wright caused a fumble on a sack and DT DaJohn Harris recovered the ball on the UA 22-yard line, leading to a 7-yard Barkley TD pass to TE Rhett Ellison. But the Wildcats responded on their ensuing drive, going 80 yards in 9 plays as QB Nick Foles hit WR David Douglas on a 5-yard scoring toss early in the second quarter. USC countered with a 3-yard Tyler TD run that culminated a 17-play drive that ate up 8:57 (the drive was kept alive with a successful fake field goal). But UA answered right back with a 9-play, 80-yard drive as Foles hit WR Travis Cobb on a 31-yard touchdown pass late in the half to bring the Wildcats to within 21-14.

Barkley was 15-of-20 for 124 yards in the first half, while Foles was 16-of-21 for 197 yards.

The scoring slowed down considerably in the second half. USC's only points came on a 30-yard field goal by PK Joe Houston late in the third quarter to end a 15-play drive after Wright recovered a fumble (forced by LB Malcolm Smith) in the red zone. UA's final points came with 1:01 to play on an 11-yard Foles-to-Douglas TD pass that finished off a quick 9-play, 85-yard drive, but USC recovered the ensuing onside kick.

Although Arizona slightly outgained USC (404-382) while converting 11-of-16 third downs, the Trojans had a significant advantage in plays (82-66) and time of possession (37:27-22:33, including 21:32 in the second half). It was USC's most possession time since getting 37:50 against UCLA in 2007.

Barkley finished by hitting 21-of-35 passes for 170 yards. WR Robert Woods had a game-high 8 receptions for 41 yards.

Foles hit 32-of-48 passes for 353 yards, with WR Terrence Miller getting 7 catches for 116 yards, WR Juron Criner adding 6 grabs for 98 yards and Douglass catching 6 passes for 44 yards.

S T.J. McDonald led USC with a game-high 10 tackles, Smith added 7 (1.5 for losses) and DT Jurrell Casey had 6 stops, including 2 for losses (with a sack).

GAME 11 – November 20, Corvallis, Oregon
Oregon State 36, USC 7
Att: 44,969

USC	0	0	7	0	—	7
Oregon State	3	17	3	13	—	36

USC's troubles in Oregon continued as the No. 20 Trojans were blown out at Oregon State, 36-7, on a cold (low 40s) night in front of 44,969 fans and an ABC-TV regional audience.

It was USC's third straight loss in Corvallis (and fourth in its past 5 trips there) and kept Troy winless in the state of Oregon in its past 5 games (since 2005). It was the second year in a row that USC surrendered 36 points to the Beavers. It was OSU's second highest winning margin and tied its second most points against USC since a 38-6 win in the series' first game in 1914. It was also USC's fewest points against the Beavers since a 3-0 loss in 1967 and the fewest points by USC in any game since getting 6 against Utah in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl.

On a night when 4 starters went down with injuries (QB Matt Barkley, TB Marc Tyler, OT Tyron Smith and LB Chris Galippo), USC saw its offense struggle mightily as it managed just 255 total yards (its fewest since getting 205 against California in 2004) while falling behind 23-0 midway into the third quarter (its biggest deficit in 2010). Six of USC's 14 possessions went 3-and-out, Troy got into the red zone just once (and crossed midfield on only 6 drives) and the Trojans converted just 4-of-16 third downs (and 2-of-6 fourth downs). Troy had only 18 first downs and allowed 4 sacks.

USC trailed 20-0 at halftime, its biggest halftime deficit since being down 21-0 to the Beavers in 2008 (that also was the last time Troy was shut out in an opening half).

Oregon State, which benefited from good field position most of the night (it averaged taking possession on its 41-yard line), got its first score with 30 seconds left in the first quarter on a 34-yard field goal by PK Justin Kahut. Then, 3 plays into USC's ensuing drive (on the first play of the second quarter), CB Jordan Poyer returned an interception 65 yards for a TD. The Beavers added a 3-yard scoring run by TB Jacquizz Rodgers midway through the second quarter and then a 38-yard Kahut field goal late in the half.

Kahut hit a 35-yard field goal midway through the third quarter. USC, directed in the second half by QB Mitch Mustain, finally got on the board late in the third quarter on a 13-yard TD run by TB C.J. Gable. The Beavers added 2 touchdowns late in the fourth quarter on passes from QB Ryan Katz, the first a 5-yarder to WR Jordan Bishop and then an 8-yarder to TE Joe Halahuni (after a USC fumble).

Barkley, who sprained his ankle on USC's final play of the first half, was 10-of-19 for 75 yards, while Mustain went 8-of-17 for 60 yards in relief. Gable had 191 all-purpose yards, including 57 on 10 rushes, 130 on 5 kickoff returns and 4 on 2 receptions. Tyler added 57 yards on 11 carries before going out with an ankle sprain late in the first half. WR Ronald Johnson had 5 catches for 45 yards.

S T.J. McDonald led USC with 10 tackles and a deflection, while LB Devon Kennard and DTs Jurrell Casey and DaJohn Harris had 8 stops each (Casey had 2.5 tackles for a loss with a sack and Kennard had 1.5 tackles for a loss with a sack).

For Oregon State, Rodgers rushed for 128 yards on 26 carries and caught 7 passes for 43 yards, WR Markus Wheaton had 5 receptions for 40 yards and added 63 yards on 6 rushes and Katz was 17-of-24 for 154 yards. The Beavers had 328 total yards, but just 18 first downs and converted only 4-of-14 third downs.

GAME 12 – November 27, Los Angeles Coliseum
Notre Dame 20, USC 16
Att: 85,417

Notre Dame	0	13	0	7	—	20
USC	3	0	10	3	—	16

RB Robert Hughes' 5-yard touchdown run with 2:23 to play gave Notre Dame a 20-16 win over USC before 85,417 fans on a cold, rainy night in the Coliseum and an ABC-TV national audience.

It snapped USC's 8-game winning streak over the Irish, as well as Troy's 19-game non-conference victory streak (1 shy of the school record) and 15-game non-league home game winning string. It was USC's fewest points against ND since also getting 16 in 2001 (its last loss in the series).

After PK Joe Houston hit his third field goal of the game (a 37-yarder with 6:25 left in the contest following S Marshall Jones' interception) to put USC up 16-13, the Irish drove 46 yards in 9 plays for the game-winning TD. USC threatened as it advanced to the ND 23-yard line, but QB Mitch Mustain's pass was intercepted at the 1-yard line by S Harrison Smith with 36 seconds remaining.

Mustain, who was filling in for injured QB Matt Barkley, was 21-of-38 for 183 yards in his first Trojan start. USC also was without injured starting OT Tyron Smith and lost starting S T.J. McDonald to an injury early in the game.

All of USC's points came on short drives following 4 Irish turnovers (but USC came away with just field goals after 3 of those turnovers). After LB Chris Gallipo's interception on ND's second series of the game, Houston nailed a career-long 45-yard field goal late in the opening quarter to open the game's scoring (it was USC's longest 3-pointer since David Buehler's 46-yarder against UCLA in 2007).

The Irish then scored on a pair of 1-yard TD passes by QB Tommy Rees at the end of the first half, the first to WR Michael Floyd with 2:39 to go to culminate a 16-play, 79-yard drive and the second to WR Duval Kamara with 7 seconds on the clock to finish a 7-play, 62-yard drive (sending the Irish into intermission with a 13-3 lead).

As a constant rain began at the end of halftime, USC tied it in the third quarter by first getting a 23-yard Houston field goal (after LB Devon Kennard's interception) early in the half and then a 1-yard TD sneak by Mustain late in the quarter (after DE Nick Perry's strip and fumble recovery). It was the first offensive touchdown that Notre Dame had allowed after 13 quarters and 227 plays.

Besides not being able to take better advantage after turnovers, USC couldn't capitalize on an average starting field position on its 45-yard line (while Notre Dame's average start was just at its 19-yard line). The Trojans also managed just 261 total yards (74 rushing, its fewest since getting 61 against Penn State in 2008), had only 12 first downs (its fewest since getting 12 at Arizona State in 2009), converted just 4-of-17 third downs (ND was 5-of-15) and were penalized 8 times (to ND's 1). USC's total yards, rushing yards and first downs were its fewest against Notre Dame since 1983. The Irish had 296 total yards.

WR Robert Woods had 166 all-purpose yards (9 receptions for 87 yards and 3 kickoff returns for 79 yards), WR Ronald Johnson had 6 catches for 40 yards, TE Rhett Ellison added 5 catches for 38 yards and TB Marc Tyler had 48 yards on 17 carries. LB Malcolm Smith had a game-best 12 tackles, while S Tony Burnett (a walk-on on the track and football teams) added 10 stops while subbing for McDonald.

For Notre Dame, Rees, a true freshman in just his third start, was 20-of-32 for 149 yards, Floyd made 11 catches for 86 yards, RB Cierre Wood ran for 89 yards on 15 carries and Hughes had 69 yards on 11 rushes.

It was the first time since 2001 (and only the ninth time ever) that both teams played while unranked. It also was the first time since 1941—and just the second time ever—that both USC (with Lane Kiffin) and Notre Dame (with Brian Kelly) featured new head coaches.

GAME 13 – December 4, Pasadena, California
USC 28, UCLA 14
Att: 71,105

USC	7	7	0	14	—	28
UCLA	7	0	0	7	—	14

TB Allen Bradford rushed for 212 yards and scored long touchdowns on a run and a reception and LB Malcolm Smith returned a fumble for a TD to lead USC to a season-ending 24-18 win over crosstown foe UCLA before 71,105 fans on a cold night in the Rose Bowl and an FSN national cable audience.

It was USC's fourth consecutive win over UCLA (the Trojans scored 28 points in each victory and held the Bruins under 20 points for the sixth game in a row) and its 11th win in the past 12 meetings in the battle for city bragging rights and the Victory Bell. This 80th meeting between USC and UCLA was the first since 2000 when neither team was ranked, as the game concluded their 2010 seasons (USC was ineligible for post-season play because of NCAA penalty and UCLA did not have enough wins to be bowl eligible).

The teams traded scores late in the first quarter, with TB Dillon Baxter throwing a 5-yard TD pass to TE Rhett Ellison out of the Wildcat formation (it was USC's first touchdown pass by a non-quarterback since tailback Reggie Bush did so in 2004 against Arizona State) only to have the Bruins tally 2 plays later on TB Johnathan Franklin's 59-yard burst.

Troy made it 14-7 just before halftime when LB Chris Galippo stripped the ball from Franklin and Smith raced 68 yards with it for a TD (it was USC's first fumble return for a score since 2005 when Justin Wyatt went 38 yards against UCLA).

After a scoreless third quarter, Bradford took over in the final quarter. He took a swing pass from QB Matt Barkley and jetted a career-best 47 yards for a score early in the quarter to cap a 97-yard drive. He then sprinted a career-long 73 yards on USC's next possession for a score late in the quarter (it was the longest run by a Trojan since Bush's 76-yarder against Arkansas in 2005). The Bruins countered with 23 seconds to play on QB Richard Brehaut's 10-yard pass to TE Joseph Fauria.

USC had the statistical advantage, getting 474 total yards and 22 first downs to UCLA's 358 and 17. Both teams squandered scoring opportunities, with USC turning the ball over on downs 3 times within the Bruin 35-yard line and UCLA twice losing fumbles within the Trojan 40. UCLA converted just 4-of-12 third downs.

Bradford's rushing yards came on a career-high 28 carries (it was his second 200-yard rushing game of 2010) and he ended up with 259 all-purpose yards. Barkley, playing with a high ankle sprain that sidelined him the previous game-and-a-half, completed 15-of-26 passes for 198 yards, but was picked off twice. WR Ronald Johnson led USC with 5 catches for 36 yards, while WR Robert Woods (57 yards) and TE Jordan Cameron (29 yards) each had 3 receptions.

S Marshall Jones (whose brother, Malcolm, had several carries for the Bruins) led USC with 10 tackles, Smith added 9 stops and 2 fumble recoveries and CB Nickell Robey had an interception.

For UCLA, Franklin ran for 109 yards on 13 carries (he was the first Bruin to rush for 100 yards against USC since DeShaun Foster also had 109 in 1998). Brehaut was 20-of-35 passing for 230 yards, while WR Taylor Embree had 7 catches for 76 yards and WR Nelson Rosario caught 5 passes for 94 yards.

It was the smallest crowd in the series since 1971 (68,426). The 7:30 p.m. kickoff time was the second latest in series history (behind 1945's 8:30 p.m. start) and was just the seventh night USC-UCLA game (the first in Pasadena). It was USC's school-record 10th night game of 2010.

ALL-TIME USC RECORD

The following is believed to be an accurate record of the outcome of all games of American football played by the USC varsity team. It was compiled by Michael J. Glenn. USC appreciates his invaluable efforts.

The information in this history is set forth in as brief a fashion as possible. To illustrate this, review the entries under 1989. Reading from left to right, the following information is given on the first line under the coach and captain data: (1) Date (Sept. 4); (2) Result (L-USC loss); (3) USC's Associated Press ranking going into the game (5); (4) USC's opponent (Illinois); (5) An indication that the game began after 5:00 p.m., local time (N); (6) An indication that the winning score occurred with 2:19 left in the game (2:19); (7) USC's opponent's Associated Press ranking going into the game (22); (8) Game score, with USC's point total given first (13-14); (9) An indication that the game was played at USC's home field (H); (10) Game attendance (54,622).

Other information may be noted on the line concerning the UCLA game. The "c" before the attendance figure indicates a capacity crowd. "(UCLA-13:43)" indicates that UCLA made the tying score with 13:43 left in the fourth quarter.

The line beneath the UCLA game record presents USC's regular season record, conference record, and conference finish, in that order. Next come the points scored and points given up.

Beneath this is USC's bowl game result, followed on the next line by USC's final overall record, USC's overall points scored and given up, and the season attendance total.

Other symbols: N1, N2, etc., indicate games played at a neutral site; (HC) indicates USC's Homecoming game; (U) indicates that the game result was a significant upset; (R) indicates that a major portion of the game was played in the rain; (Sn) indicates the game was played in snow conditions; and "Th" indicates a game played on Thanksgiving Day.

Note: The idea that USC should field a football team came from Professor Elmer Merrill. In a 1951 letter from Henry Goddard, USC's first coach, to then-sports information director Tom Lawless, the origins were described: "Football was (Prof. Elmer Merrill's) idea. When he learned that I had played on my college team, he said one day: 'Let's teach these boys football. You can play with them and coach them from within and I will coach them from the sidelines.' I readily agreed. He spoke to two or three of the boys that he knew and the game was born. The field was a vacant block, I would guess just S. or S.W. of (Bovard Field)."

Athletic Park took its name from its builder, the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Located on the northeast corner of Seventh and Alameda, it opened on Thanksgiving Day, 1891. The first major college football game played there was on Dec. 29, 1894, when Stanford defeated the University of Chicago, 28-0. Athletic Park gained national recognition when Los Angeles and Stockton of the California League played a night baseball game there on July 2, 1893. Los Angeles won, 5-2, before a crowd of 9,000. Twenty kerosene lamps and one swiveled search light were used.

Fiesta Park, located on the northwest corner of Grand and Pico, also dates from the 1890s. It was the site of what was apparently the first night college football game played outdoors on Nov. 18, 1905. St. Vincent's College (now Loyola Marymount University) shut out the University of Arizona, 54-0. In 1916, a rebuilt Fiesta Park served as USC's home grounds. The following year, however, its bleachers were transported to USC to revamp Bovard Field.

At the turn of the century, Washington Park, at the corner of Washington and Grand, was primarily a baseball field. It was sometimes referred to as Chutes Park, after the adjacent amusement park. St. Vincent's College was located across the street. Washington Park was the early home of the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League.

A larger ball park for the Angels was built in 1911. Also known as Washington Park, this structure was located at Washington and Hill.

Prager Park served as USC's home in 1903. It was located near Chutes Park.

Tournament Park, located at the southeast corner of California and Wilson in Pasadena, served as the initial home of the "East-West" game, as the Rose Bowl was originally known. The Tournament of Roses Association acquired the property in 1901, and Michigan and Stanford played there in the first Rose Bowl game on Jan. 1, 1902. After a series of other sporting activities, football returned to the New Year's Day celebration in 1915, and continued at Tournament Park through 1922.

Sportsman's Park, located at North Los Robles and Colorado, was the site of USC's first Pasadena appearance, its first Thanksgiving game, and its first varsity football game outside of Los Angeles--all in 1889 against Pasadena. The game occurred just a month before Sportsman's Park hosted the initial Tournament of Roses.

Prior to 1893, USC's campus games were played on a field adjoining Jefferson. This field might have been the site of USC's first official football game in 1888 (although a 1951 letter from Henry Goddard, USC's coach in 1888, to then-SID Tom Lawless, stated the field that first year "was a vacant block, I would guess just S. or S.W. of (Bovard Field).").

In early 1893, the University's then-existing athletic grounds were developed, apparently for neighborhood housing. According to the Rostrum, USC's earliest student newspaper, the students petitioned for a replacement athletic field. Eventually they were granted space on the "northwest portion of campus."

These grounds, while appropriate for practice and practice games, were not suitable for major games. As a result, most of USC's important "home" games up until 1904 were played in rented space: Athletic Park, Fiesta Park, Washington Park, and Prager Park.

In the summer of 1904, USC's football field was "upgraded." Bleachers were constructed on the south side of the field, and a small stand was placed on the north side. A "kid-proof" fence was built around the site. At the start of the season, the site was referred to as "College Campus" in a published football schedule, but by the end of the year it had become "Bovard Field."

Bovard never appears to have been a very adequate home. USC still used Fiesta Park for some of its more important games up until 1908. In 1915, USC's first Los Angeles game against California was played at the new Washington Park, which was primarily a baseball venue. The following year, USC attempted to use a revitalized Fiesta Park as its home base. In the summer of 1917, the new bleachers at Fiesta Park were transported to USC's Bovard Field. These new seats increased Bovard's capacity to about 10,000.

The "new" Bovard was quickly obsolete. Interest in USC football, under Coach Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson, outpaced the limits of even the expanded Bovard. By 1920, USC was playing its more important games in Pasadena, first at Tournament Park, and then at the Tournament of Roses' new stadium in the Arroyo Seco.

USC's last on-campus varsity football game was played on Sept. 29, 1923, against Cal Tech. The following week the Trojans played their initial game at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

DRAMATIC FINISHES

Over the years, USC has been involved in many games featuring dramatic finishes at the end. Here's a sampling of some of the more famous such contests.

1931--USC 16, Notre Dame 14. Johnny Baker kicked a game-winning 33-yard field goal with 1:00 remaining. All of USC's points came in the fourth quarter. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten streak and was USC's first-ever win in South Bend. Troy won the national championship.

1938--USC 7, Duke 3 (1939 Rose Bowl). Al Krueger, a second-team end, and fourth-string quarterback Doyle Nave came off the bench to connect on 4 straight passes, the last a 19-yard TD with about 40 seconds left to upset previously unbeaten, untied and unscored-upon Duke.

1939--USC 0, UCLA 0. Bobby Robertson knocked down Ned Matthews' 4-yard pass in the end zone with less than 5 minutes to play to preserve the tie for USC, sending the Trojans to the Rose Bowl.

1941--USC 13, Oregon State 7. Doug Essick caught a game-winning 6-yard pass from Ray Woods with 13 seconds to play.

1951--USC 21, California 14. Leon Sellers scored on a 2-yard run with 2:44 left to snap Cal's 38-game regular season winning streak.

1953--USC 23, Stanford 20. Sam Tsagalakis kicked a victorious 38-yard field goal with 14 seconds left.

1958--USC 15, UCLA 15. Luther Hayes returned a kickoff 74 yards for a TD and Tom Maudlin ran in for the 2-point conversion with 6:50 to play to get the Trojans a tie.

1964--USC 26, California 21. Behind 21-14 in the fourth quarter, USC scored twice late, the second time (while trailing 21-20) on a 22-yard pass from Craig Fertig to Rod Sherman with 50 seconds to culminate a 95-yard drive.

1964--USC 20, Notre Dame 17. Rod Sherman caught a 15-yard TD pass from Craig Fertig with 1:33 to play to upset unbeaten and top-ranked Notre Dame. USC was down, 17-0, at halftime.

1967--USC 21, UCLA 20. O.J. Simpson ran 64 yards for a TD with 10:38 left in the fourth quarter to give USC a Rose Bowl berth and the national championship. It is one of the most famous runs in college football history.

1969--USC 26, Stanford 24. Ron Ayala kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 0:00 on the clock.

1969--USC 14, UCLA 12. Jimmy Jones hit Sam Dickerson with a 32-yard TD pass in the corner of the end zone with 1:32 left, putting USC in the Rose Bowl.

1973--USC 27, Stanford 26. Chris Limahelu kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 3 seconds to play.

1974--USC 18, Ohio State 17 (1975 Rose Bowl). Johnny McKay caught a 38-yard TD pass from Pat Haden with 2:03 remaining to pull USC to within a point of Ohio State. Then Shelton Diggs grabbed the subsequent 2-point conversion pass from Haden for the victory, which wrapped up a national championship for USC.

1977--USC 29, UCLA 27. Frank Jordan kicked a 38-yard field goal with 2 seconds remaining, knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1978--USC 27, Notre Dame 25. A year after his late game-winner against UCLA, Frank Jordan kicked a nearly-identical 37-yard field goal with 2 seconds remaining to beat Notre Dame.

1979--USC 17, LSU 12. Kevin Williams caught a game-winning 8-yard TD pass from Paul McDonald with 32 seconds to play.

1979--USC 17, Ohio State 16 (1980 Rose Bowl). Charles White scored on a 1-yard run with 1:32 remaining. USC drove 83 yards in 8 plays on the winning drive, with White carrying 6 times for 71 yards.

1980--USC 20, Tennessee 17. Eric Hipp kicked a victorious 47-yard field goal with 0:00 left.

1981--USC 28, Oklahoma 24. Fred Cornwell caught a 7-yard TD pass from John Mazur with 2 seconds to play to give No. 1 USC the win over No. 2 Oklahoma.

1981--USC 14, Notre Dame 7. Todd Spencer ran 26 yards for the game-winning TD with 4:52 to play.

1981--USC 22, UCLA 21. George Achica broke through the line on the final play of the game to block Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal try, preserving the win and knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1982--USC 17, Notre Dame 13. Michael Harper, fumbling as he dove over the goal line, scored on a controversial winning 1-yard run with 48 seconds to play. It was coach John Robinson's last game of his first tenure at USC.

1983--USC 19, Florida 19. Timmie Ware caught a 25-yard pass from Sean Salisbury with no time on the clock, but USC botched the extra point attempt as coach Ted Tollner's debut ended in a tie.

1985--USC 17, UCLA 13. Rodney Peete scored the winning points on a 1-yard sneak at 1:13 to go.

1986--USC 17, Baylor 14. Don Shafer kicked a game-winning 32-yard field goal in a driving rainstorm with 0:00 on the clock.

1987--USC 12, Arizona 10. Quin Rodriguez kicked an 18-yard field goal with 1:11 remaining, his fourth three-pointer of the game.

1987--USC 17, UCLA 13. Erik Affholter made a juggling, corner-of-the-end zone 33-yard TD catch of a Rodney Peete pass with 7:59 to play in the game, bringing USC all the way back from a 13-0 third quarter deficit. The win put USC in the Rose Bowl.

1988--USC 24, Stanford 20. John Jackson caught a game-winning 10-yard TD pass from Rodney Peete with 1:19 remaining. USC trailed, 13-0, in the second quarter.

1989--USC 18, Washington State 17. Known as "The Drive," Todd Marinovich guided USC 91 yards in 18 plays (all through the air) with 3:31 remaining, culminating with a 2-yard TD pass to Ricky Ervins with 4 seconds to play. Marinovich then hit Gary Wellman for the winning 2-point conversion.

1989--USC 10, UCLA 10. A 54-yard field goal try by UCLA's Alfredo Velasco with 2 seconds to play hit the crossbar and bounced away, preserving the tie.

1989--USC 17, Michigan 10 (1990 Rose Bowl). Rose Bowl MVP Ricky Ervins ran 14 yards for the winning TD with 1:10 to play to cap a 75-yard drive.

1990--USC 35, Ohio State 26. The second half was played in heavy rain with thunder and lightning, getting so bad that officials suspended the game with 2:36 to play after USC recovered an onside kick.

1990--USC 31, California 31. Cal's Robbie Keen missed a 43-yard field goal try with 4 seconds remaining, ending the game in a tie.

1990--USC 45, UCLA 42. In the highest-scoring and perhaps most thrilling USC-UCLA game, Todd Marinovich threw a game-winning 23-yard TD pass to Johnnie Morton with 16 seconds left. The contest featured a 42-point fourth quarter (including 3 TD's in the final 3:09) with 4 lead changes. Morton also caught a 21-yard scoring TD from Marinovich with 3:09 to play to give USC a short-lived 38-35 lead, but Kevin Smith scored on a 1-yard run with 1:19 to go to put the Bruins up 42-38.

1992--USC 31, San Diego State 31. San Diego State's Andy Trakas missed 2 field goals (30 and 55 yards) in the last 0:54 to allow USC to hold onto the tie.

1992--USC 27, California 24. Down 24-13, Estrus Crayton scored twice in the final 5:45 on 2- and 1-yard runs, the second with 2:27 to play to give USC the win. Brian Williams' interception with 2:19 to go sealed Troy's victory.

1995--USC 21, Washington 21. Down 21-0 going into the fourth quarter, USC scored 3 touchdowns, the last a 2-yard pass from Brad Otton to Johnny McWilliams with 33 seconds to go (Adam Rendon's PAT tied it), thus allowing the Trojans to keep hold of the inside track in the Rose Bowl race.

1995--USC 31, Stanford 30. A week after the dramatic Washington tie, USC--behind 16-0 in the second quarter--scored with 39 seconds to play on an 8-yard Kyle Wachholtz pass to Keyshawn Johnson, who then came in as a safety on defense and knocked down a Hail Mary pass at the goal line at the gun.

1996--USC 29, Washington State 24. Delon Washington's 17-yard TD run with 2:05 to play proved decisive and then USC had to hold off the Cougars, who got to the Trojan 11-yard line with 39 seconds to go before fumbling the ball away.

1996--USC 27, Notre Dame 20. In its first overtime win in 3 tries in 1996, Delon Washington scored on a 15-yard run with 1:50 to go in regulation and then barely edged the ball over the goal line on the ensuing 2-point conversion run to tie the game at 20-20. After Rodney Sermons caught a 5-yard TD pass from Brad Otton in the first overtime, Troy stopped the Irish, breaking USC's 13-game non-winning streak to Notre Dame.

1997--USC 20, Notre Dame 17. Adam Abrams' 37-yard field goal with 1:05 to go--4 plays after Mark Cusano ran 27 yards with an interception--gave USC its first win in South Bend since 1981.

1997--USC 24, Oregon 22. Marc Matock partially deflected Joshua Smith's 36-yard field goal try that fell just short with 8 seconds to play to preserve the win.

2000--USC 17, Colorado 14. David Newbury, who had missed a pair of field goals earlier in the game, nailed a 24-yarder with 13 seconds to play for the victory.

2000--USC 34, San Jose State 24. USC, trailing by 12 points midway through the fourth quarter, scored 22 unanswered points in the final 8:07 to win.

2000--USC 44, Arizona State 38. After Arizona State scored 29 consecutive second-half points to force overtime, Chad Pierson scored on a 2-yard run in the second overtime and then Sultan Abdul-Malik forced a Sun Devil fumble which Matt Childers recovered to seal the win.

2000--USC 38, UCLA 35. David Bell, USC's third string kicker at the start of the season, hit a game-winning 36-yard field goal with 9 seconds to play (it was only his second field goal in 6 career attempts, as he had missed 3 previous tries in 2000, including a 24-yarder earlier in the game's fourth quarter).

2001--USC 41, Arizona 34. Kris Richard returned an interception 58 yards for a TD with 1:50 to play after Arizona had battled back from a 21-point second quarter deficit.

2001--USC 16, Oregon State 13. Carson Palmer ran 4 yards on a naked bootleg for the game-winning touchdown in the first overtime period (USC dodged defeat twice late in regulation when Ryan Cesca missed 35- and 29-yard field goals).

2002--USC 24, Auburn 17. Carson Palmer's 1-yard sneak with 1:26 to play gave USC the victory.

Of course, USC has been on the wrong end of some dramatic last-minute finishes, too. For instance, there was the 1926 Notre Dame game (Art Parisien threw a 23-yard TD pass to Butch Niemiec with 2 minutes to go for a 13-12 Irish win), the 1937 Notre Dame game (Mario Tonnelli ran 13 yards for a TD with 1:45 left in the Irish's 13-6 win), the 1944 UCLA game (Johnny Roesch scored twice in the last 2 minutes, including an 80-yard punt return with no time on the clock, and then Bob Waterfield's extra point kick hit the crossbar but rolled over, to give UCLA a 13-13 tie), the 1948 Notre Dame game (Emil Sitko ran for a 2-yard TD with 35 seconds to go and Steve Oracko hit the extra point as Notre Dame, riding a 27-game unbeaten streak, escaped with a 14-14 tie), the 1954 Notre Dame game (Jim Morse caught a 72-yard pass from Ralph Guglielmi with 5:57 to go to give Notre Dame a 23-17 victory), the 1963 Notre Dame game (Ken Ivan kicked a 33-yard field goal with 6:38 to go as Notre Dame won, 17-14), the 1965 UCLA game (Kurt Altenberg caught a 52-yard scoring bomb from Gary Beban with about 4 minutes to play as UCLA overcame a 16-6 deficit and won, 20-16), the 1967 Rose Bowl (USC's 2-point conversion pass attempt with 2:28 to play was intercepted by George Catavolos, allowing Purdue to hold onto a 14-13 win), the 1975 Stanford game (Mike Langford kicked a 37-yard field goal with no time on the clock as Stanford won, 13-10), the 1977 Alabama game (under pressure from Alabama's Wayne Hamilton, Rob Hertel's 2-point conversion pass to Mosi Tatupu with 35 seconds to play was intercepted by Barry Krauss, sealing the Tide's 21-20 victory), the 1980 UCLA game (Freeman McNeil pulled down a tipped 58-yard pass from Jay Schroeder for the game-winner at 2:07 to play for a 20-17 win), the 1982 UCLA game (Bruin Karl Morgan preserved UCLA's 20-19 win by sacking Scott Tinsley on an attempted 2-point conversion pass after USC had scored at the gun), the 1986 Notre Dame game (the Irish rallied back from a 20-9 halftime deficit, culminated by John Carney's 19-yard field goal as time expired to give Notre Dame a 38-37 win), the 1989 Illinois game (a pair of late fourth quarter Jeff George TD passes, the second to Steve Williams with 2:19 to play, gave the Illini a 14-13 win), the 1991 Stanford game (USC went ahead 21-17 with 3:37 to play only to see Steve Stenstrom hit Chris Walsh with a game-winning 12-yard TD pass with 1:11 left; "THE COMEBACK"

1974: USC 55, Notre Dame 24

In what is regarded as one of the most dramatic and incredible comebacks in the history of college football, the 1974 Trojans erased a 24-point deficit to beat Notre Dame, 55-24, in the Coliseum. In a December 1998 list by SPORT magazine, the game was ranked as the No. 6 top college football moment of the 20th century.

USC trailed the Irish, 24-0, late in the first half, and the Trojans' chances looked bleak because Notre Dame sported the nation's top-ranked defense. But with 10 seconds remaining before halftime, Anthony Davis scored on a 7-yard pass from Pat Haden (Troy's extra point kick was blocked) to send the Trojans into the lockerroom behind 24-6...but with a glimmer of hope.

Davis took the opening kickoff of the second half and raced 102 yards for a score, opening the floodgates as USC rallied for 35 points in the third quarter. Davis scored 2 more times that quarter, both on short runs, and Haden threw TD passes of 18 and 45 yards to Johnny McKay.

Then, before 2 minutes had elapsed in the fourth quarter, Haden hit Shelton Diggs for a 16-yard score and Charles Phillips returned an interception 58 yards for a touchdown.

In all, USC blitzed to its 55 points in under 17 minutes.

"We turned into madmen," was how Davis described the comeback.

Added receiver Johnny McKay, son of USC coach John McKay, right after the game: "I can't understand it. I'm gonna sit down tonight and have a beer and think about it. Against Notre Dame? Maybe against Kent State...but Notre Dame?"

The victory propelled USC, which then beat Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, 18-17, to the national championship.

Interestingly, that Rose Bowl win was dramatic, too. USC trailed, 17-10, with just minutes left. Then Haden teamed with McKay on a 38-yard TD pass with 2:03 to go, and followed that with a 2-point conversion toss to Diggs for the victory.

USC: AMERICA'S BOWL TEAM

USC has a remarkable record in bowl games. The Trojans have the nation's third highest bowl winning percentage (.667) among the 77 schools that have made at least 10 bowl appearances (behind Utah's .750 and Miami of Ohio's .700). USC's 32 bowl victories is second behind Alabama's 33 for the most in the nation (both teams had 1 win later vacated due to NCAA penalty). Troy's 48 bowl appearances are fourth most, behind only Alabama (58), Texas (49) and Tennessee (49). USC once won 9 consecutive bowl games (the 1923-30-32-33-39-40-44-45 Rose Bowls and 1924 Christmas Festival); only Florida State has won more in a row (11).

USC's overall post-season record is 32-16 (1 win and 1 loss were later vacated due to NCAA penalty). The Trojans were a bowl participant each year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

USC has appeared in an unprecedented 33 Rose Bowls, where it has a 24-9 mark (.718) (1 win and 1 loss were later vacated due to NCAA penalty). That's not only the most Rose Bowl wins of any team, but also the most wins by a school in a single bowl. USC has won 11 of its last 14 Rose Bowls (1 win and 1 loss were later vacated due to NCAA penalty). USC is the only team to win 3 consecutive Rose Bowls (2007-08-09). USC has also appeared in 12 other bowls--the Christmas Festival, Liberty Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Florida Citrus Bowl, Sun (John Hancock) Bowl (twice), Freedom Bowl (twice), Cotton Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl, Orange Bowl (twice) and Emerald Bowl.

USC made an unprecedented 7 consecutive BCS bowl appearances (2003 Orange, 2004 Rose, 2005 Orange, 2006 Rose, 2007 Rose, 2008 Rose, 2009 Rose). USC's 7 overall BCS bowl trips are third most, behind Ohio State's 9 and Oklahoma's 8. USC's 6 BCS bowl victories are tied with Ohio State for the most of any school (1 win and 1 appearance were later vacated due to NCAA penalty).

Purdue 14, USC 13

A two-point conversion attempt by USC with less than three minutes remaining was foiled and Purdue emerged a 14-13 victor. After Troy Winslow flipped a 19-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman, Boilermaker back George Catavolos intercepted the conversion pass. Perry Williams scored both Purdue touchdowns on short bursts.

Simpson, the Heisman Trophy winner, rushed for 171 yards, including an 80-yard touchdown scamper. But five USC turnovers and Ohio State's power proved too much.

The Trojans' "Wild Bunch" on defense held Michigan to a field goal while a 33-yard pass from Jimmy Jones to Bobby Chandler was the margin of victory.

The 1974 game was a reverse of the 1973 contest as Ohio State, held to a 14-14 tie at halftime, exploded in the second half for a 42-21 win over USC. Freshman fullback Pete Johnson scored three touchdowns and Archie Griffin ran for 149 yards. But the Player of the Game was OSU quarterback Cornelius Greene, who completed six of eight passes for 129 yards and scrambled effectively.

1975 Liberty Bowl
USC 20, Texas A&M 0

In coach John McKay's final game at USC, his Trojans shook off a four-game losing streak and surprised favored Texas A&M in Memphis, 20-0. USC's defense came up with many big plays, while the offense was able to move against the nationally-ranked Aggie defense. Vince Evans threw a 65-yard bomb to Randy Simmrin to set up one touchdown and Liberty Bowl MVP Ricky Bell ran 76 yards with a screen pass for another TD.

After an opening game loss, USC won its 11th-straight game by grinding out a 14-6 win over Michigan. Michigan's Rob Lytle opened the scoring with a one-yard plunge, but Trojan quarterback Vince Evans got that back with a one-yard rollout. Freshman tailback Charles White, filling in for the injured Ricky Bell, rushed for 122 yards, including a seven-yard scoring jaunt that closed out the scoring for USC. John Robinson became only the second rookie coach from the Pac-8 to capture a Rose Bowl.

Both teams combined for 1,139 yards of total offense, including 620 by USC. In a tough defensive struggle, the Pac-10 ran its victory string to five in a row as USC outlasted Michigan 17-10. Trojan tailback Charles White rushed for 99 yards and scored what proved to be the decisive touchdown on a disputed three-yard plunge in the second quarter. Michigan quarterback Rick Leach almost brought the Wolverines back from a 14-point halftime deficit by completing eight of 11 second-half passes, including a 44-yard scoring bomb to Roosevelt Smith. White and Leach shared Player of the Game honors.

1980 Rose Bowl
USC 17, Ohio State 16

USC's Heisman Trophy winning tailback Charles White stole the show as he led the Trojans to a come-from-behind win in one of the most exciting games in Rose Bowl history. White, named Player of the Game for the second straight year, rushed for a Rose Bowl record 247 yards, including a one-yard touchdown dive with 1:32 remaining in the game that gave USC the win. The Trojans jumped out to an early 10-0 lead, but Ohio State came back to take a 16-10 lead in the fourth quarter. Then White took over. With 5:21 remaining in the game, the Trojans got the ball on their own 17-yard line. USC marched 83 yards in eight plays, all on the ground. On the winning drive, White carried six times for 71 yards.

1982 Fiesta Bowl
Penn State 26, USC 10

Penn State's fine defense and key Trojan miscues led to USC's first non-Rose Bowl post-season defeat, 26-10. Marcus Allen, who was held to 85 yards, fumbled away the ball on USC's first possession and the Lions' Curt Warner, who gained 145 yards, went in to score several plays later. USC's only touchdown came on a 20-yard interception by Chip Banks.

USC 20, Ohio State 17

USC's defense prevailed over Ohio State's potent offense featuring Heisman Trophy runnerup Keith Byars, 20-17. Interceptions set up USC's two touchdowns and the Trojan defense also stopped two key Buckeye drives--one early in the contest that got to the four-yard line and one late in the game which ended up at the 38. For USC, Tim Green threw touchdown passes to Joe Cormier and Timmie Ware while Steve Jordan kicked two 51-yard field goals. Most of Ohio State's points were provided by Rich Spangler, who hit three field goals.

The nation's top two bowl teams (USC with the most wins and Alabama with the most appearances) faced off in balmy Honolulu. The score was tied at halftime, 3-3, but the Crimson Tide rolled in the second half to win, 24-3. USC managed only 197 total yards (just 61 rushing) and 10 first downs. On the other hand, Alabama had 317 total yards, 205 coming on the ground. Mike Shula, Al Bell, Gene Jelks, Cornelius Bennett and Jon Hand starred for the Crimson Tide.

1987 Florida Citrus Bowl
Auburn 16, USC 7

In Ted Tollner's final game as USC's head coach, his Trojan defense held down a high-powered Auburn offense (led by Brent Fullwood, the nation's top runner). But Troy's offense was ineffective and the Tigers won, 16-7, in chilly Orlando. Outside linebacker Marcus Cotton provided USC with its only score on a spectacular 24-yard scoring interception return early in the game. Two long second-quarter drives by Auburn, plus a safety late in the game, gave Auburn its only points. USC made it interesting at the end after Louis Brock blocked a Tiger punt, but the Trojans couldn't score on fourth-and-inches at the goal line. Fullwood had 152 yards rushing and one TD for Auburn, which had just 290 total yards on the day.

1988 Rose Bowl
Michigan State 20, USC 17

For just the fifth time ever, teams that had played each other earlier in the season (Michigan State had beaten USC in the 1988 season opener, 27-13) faced off in the Rose Bowl. The Spartans prevailed again, this time 20-17, breaking a six-game Big Ten losing streak in Pasadena. Despite getting more total yards (410 to 276) and first downs (21 to 11) than Michigan State, the Trojans were hurt by five turnovers, including a lost fumble on a mishandled snap on the Spartan 30 with 1:37 to play as Troy was marching downfield on an impressive drive. USC trailed 14-3 at halftime, but two touchdowns passes from quarterback Rodney Peete to split end Ken Henry eventually evened the score at 17-17 midway through the last quarter. On the next series, Michigan State moved into its winning field goal position with the help of a spectacular 36-yard jump pass from quarterback Bobby McAllister to split end Andre Rison. USC had to play Michigan State for the second time that season without star Trojan tailback Steven Webster (he sat out the opener with a sprained ankle and tore knee ligaments in the regular season finale against UCLA).

1989 Rose Bowl
Michigan 22, USC 14

In a "teacher-versus-pupil" matchup (USC coach Larry Smith served under Wolverine coach Bo Schembechler at both Miami of Ohio and Michigan), the teacher got the better of it as Michigan came back from a 14-3 halftime deficit to win 22-14. It was a disappointing way for USC to conclude its 100th anniversary of football. After falling behind 3-0 on a Mike Gillette field goal, USC charged back as quarterback Rodney Peete ran for a pair of short touchdowns (1 and 4 yards) in the second quarter. But it was all Michigan in the second half, as the Wolverines amassed 230 of their 352 total yards then. They scored 3 times on long drives, the first on a 6-yard Demetrius Brown-to-Chris Calloway aerial that capped a 67-yard drive to open the third quarter. Then Rose Bowl MVP Leroy Hoard scored twice for Michigan on 1-yard runs in the final period, coming off of 92 and 70-yard drives. Hoard had 142 yards rushing (the first time anyone broke the century rushing mark against the Trojans all year), including a key 61-yard run to set up the Wolverines' final score. USC, which managed a season-low 296 total yards, didn't help its cause with 5 turnovers, 11 penalties and numerous missed tackles. The win was only Schembechler's second in 9 tries in Pasadena.

1990 Rose Bowl
USC 17, Michigan 10

After losing the previous 2 Rose Bowls, USC beat Michigan, 17-10, in a rematch of the 1989 game. The win, in Bo Schembechler's final game as Wolverine coach, ended Michigan's national title hopes. It was a bittersweet victory for USC coach Larry Smith, who served 6 years as an assistant under Schembechler at Miami of Ohio and Michigan. Trojan tailback Ricky Ervins, the Rose Bowl MVP, scored the game-winning TD on a 14-yard run with 1:10 to play. Ervins, who lives 5 minutes from the Rose Bowl and used to park cars there on New Year's Day, ran for 126 yards on 30 carries and caught 5 passes for 44 yards. USC, which dominated the stats, pulled off a key play early in the second quarter when defensive guard Dan Owens blocked a punt. Six plays later, quarterback Todd Marinovich, who was 22-of-31 passing for 178 yards, scored on a 1-yard run. Kickers J.D. Carlson of Michigan (19 yards) and USC's Quin Rodriguez (34 yards) then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run by tailback Allen Jefferson in the third quarter and the game looked like it would end deadlocked. But, with less than 6 minutes to go, Michigan was called for holding on a successful Wolverine fake punt and USC took over at its 25-yard line. Troy then went 75 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Michigan tailback Leroy Hoard became the first player to run for 100-plus yards against USC all season (he had 108 yards on 17 carries).

1990 John Hancock Bowl
Michigan State 17, USC 16

Playing in its eighth different bowl, USC lost to Michigan State, 17-16, in the John Hancock Bowl in El Paso, Tex., on New Year's Eve day. It was the 900th game in Trojan gridiron history. USC dominated the stats, getting more total yards (336-215), plays (76-52), first downs (21-12) and possession time (35:45-24:15). Troy limited the powerful Spartan rushing attack (which averaged 253.9 yards a game to rank 10th nationally) to an MSU season-low 84 yards. Big Ten rushing champ tailback Tico Duckett got just 18 yards. But Troy had 4 costly turnovers (including 2 in MSU's end zone) and converted only 5 of 14 first downs. USC scored first when quarterback Todd Marinovich hit flanker Gary Wellman with a 7-yard TD pass late in the opening quarter. Marinovich was 18-of-30 for 174 yards, but threw 3 interceptions (including 1 in the end zone) and also fumbled the ball on fourth-and-goal at the Spartan 1-yard line in the middle of the second quarter (which MSU recovered in the end zone). Michigan State marched 80 yards to a TD after that fumble recovery, with tailback Hyland Hickson scoring on an 18-yard run to tie the score at 7-7 at halftime. After placekicker Quin Rodriguez hit a 20-yard field goal on USC's opening possession of the second half (which ended on the MSU 3-yard line), the Spartans countered with a 21-yard TD pass from quarterback Dan Enos to flanker Courtney Hawkins (the first TD reception by a MSU wide receiver all year), who was the game's MVP with 6 catches for a season-high 106 yards, and a career-long 52-yard field goal by John Langeloh. Rodriguez capped USC's next series with a career-long 54-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. Then, down 17-13, cornerback Stephon Pace intercepted an Enos pass to give USC the ball near midfield. But the Trojans could get no closer than the MSU 17 before backup quarterback Shane Foley's errant pitch stalled the drive and USC had to settle for another Rodriguez field goal, this one 43 yards with 5:54 to play. Troy, however, could never get the ball back. Tailback Mazio Royster had a game-high 125 yards on 32 carries, only the second player to break the century rushing mark against Michigan State in 1990. USC rushed for 156 yards versus an MSU defense which was ranked 17th nationally against the run (allowing just 113.2 yards a game). Trojan outside linebacker Craig Hartsuyker, who had 2 quarterback sacks and forced a fumble, was named the game's Most Valuable Lineman.

1992 Freedom Bowl
Fresno State 24, USC 7

USC, making its 35th bowl appearance, was stunned by unranked, 8-point underdog Fresno State, 24-7, in the ninth Freedom Bowl in Anaheim Stadium. It was the first meeting ever between the Trojans and Bulldogs. Fresno State dominated, particularly in the second half. FSU, with the nation's No. 1 scoring offense (40.5) and No. 2 total offense (482.9), held the ball 15-plus minutes more (37:32-22:28), had 322 more total yards (405-183), 10 more first downs (24-14) and 34 more plays (84-50). USC's 183 total yards were its fewest since getting 163 at Washington in 1990 and its 95 passing yards were its fewest since getting 74 at Oregon in 1991. The Trojans had 4 turnovers (FSU had none) and converted just 1-of-9 third downs. The first half, played in a steady rain, ended in a 7-7 tie. It was the fewest points FSU had scored in a half all season (and it was the first time the Bulldogs were shut out in the first quarter in 1992). USC tailback Deon Strother opened the scoring with a 1-yard plunge early in the second quarter, but FSU answered when fullback Lorenzo Neal ran for a 1-yard TD. While attempting to catch a pass on the last play of the half, USC flanker Curtis Conway sprained his right knee and missed the second half (it was the first time in 23 games that he didn't catch a pass). After a 43-yard field goal by placekicker Derek Mahoney in the third quarter, FSU scored twice late in the game on runs by tailbacks Anthony Daigle (2 yards) and Ron Rivers (5 yards). Rivers had a game-high 104 yards on 19 carries, while Freedom Bowl MVP Neal had 75 yards on 19 tries. Bulldog quarterback Trent Dilfer was 13-of-28 for 164 yards. Tailback Estrus Crayton, USC's game MVP, led Troy with 79 yards on 19 attempts. Defensively, safety Jason Sehorn had a game-high 10 tackles, while inside linebacker Brian Williams added 9 stops, cornerback Jerald Henry had 8, and cornerback Jason Oliver had 7 along with a blocked field goal.

1993 Freedom Bowl
USC 28, Utah 21

USC, exorcising the demons of Anaheim Stadium, scored 28 points in the first 17 minutes of the game and then held off a furious Utah second-half rally to win Freedom Bowl X, 28-21, before 43,150 fans and a national Raycom television audience. The Trojans, making their 36th bowl appearance, were playing in Anaheim Stadium for the third time in 14 games, but had yet to win there (losing in the 1992 Freedom Bowl to Fresno State and the 1993 season-opening Disneyland Pigskin Classic to North Carolina). It was the first USC-Utah meeting in 45 years. USC, a 17-point favorite, scored easily on its first 4 possessions. In the first quarter, quarterback Rob Johnson hit All-American wide receiver Johnnie Morton on TD throws of 31 and 9 yards, and tailback David Dotson dove over from 2 yards out. Then, Johnson connected with tight endJohnny McWilliams on a 5-yard scoring toss just 1:26 into the second quarter. But after that, USC's offense--hampered by an ineffective running game (the Trojans ran for just 91 yards)--stalled. Utah, playing in just its fourth bowl game, came alive after halftime, scoring on 3 of its first 5 possessions: a 59-yard TD pass from quarterback Mike McCoy to slotback Henry Lusk, a 34-yard run by fullback Jamal Anderson and a 1-yard run by tailback Keith Williams. But USC got the ball with 3:19 to play and held it until just 8 seconds remained, when McCoy's desperation pass was intercepted by cornerback John Herpin (Herpin's second pick of the game). Morton was named the game's MVP as he caught a Freedom Bowl-record 10 passes for 147 yards and the 2 scores (to tie a Freedom Bowl TD catch mark) despite playing weakened with the flu (7 of his catches for 121 yards and both TDs were in the first half). Johnson, who also had come down with a slight case of the flu, completed a Freedom Bowl-record 30 passes in 44 attempts for 345 yards and the 3 TD aerials (in the first half, he was 17-of-25 for 255 with the 3 TDs). Morton became the Pac-10's No. 2 career receiver with 201 grabs, while Johnson set USC's season pass completion percentage mark (68.6%). USC tailback Shawn Walters ran for a game-high 70 yards on 19 carries, while fullback Deon Strother added 50 rushing yards on 9 attempts and caught 6 passes for 63 yards. USC wide receiver Ken Grace, who had 4 catches for 48 yards, returned a punt 31 yards, a Freedom Bowl mark. USC generated 436 yards of total offense on 82 plays and held the ball 32:14. Utah threatened 3 times inside the USC 30-yard line in the opening half, but USC's defense held each time, including an impressive goal line stand and an interception in the end zone by cornerback Jason Sehorn. Utah came into the game averaging 484.6 total yards (fifth in the U.S.), 324.3 passing yards (seventh in the U.S.) and 30.8 points, but was limited to 350 total yards (286 through the air). McCoy, who was second nationally in total offense (330.8), was 23-of-40 for 286 yards, 1 TD and 3 interceptions (at the half, he was 10-of-20 for 81 yards with 2 picks). Lusk had 6 catches for 140 yards and the TD, while Anderson ran for 67 yards and the TD on 16 carries and caught 7 passes for 61 yards. Outside linebacker Brian Williams and safety Mike Salmon topped USC in tackles with 9 each (both had 2 for losses). USC coach John Robinson, who has led USC to at least 8 wins in each of his 8 seasons there, upped his bowl record to 5-1.

1995 Cotton Bowl
USC 55, Texas Tech 14

USC (ranked 20th by UPI, 21st by AP and 22nd by USA Today/CNN) made quite an impression in its first visit to the Mobil Cotton Bowl Classic, smashing Texas Tech, 55-14, in a record-filled performance before a sellout crowd of 70,218 and an NBC-TV national audience. It was USC's 24th bowl victory, its 37th bowl appearance (in 10 different bowls), its 17th win in the last 19 games against Southwest Conference opponents, its third win in 3 tries over Texas Tech, and coach John Robinson's sixth bowl win in 7 trips (giving Robinson at least 8 wins in each of his 9 seasons at Troy). After 59 years, it was also the last Cotton Bowl where an SWC team served as host. Texas Tech was making only its second visit to the Cotton Bowl (the first was in 1939). The game was over quickly, as it was 28-0 after the first quarter and 34-0 at halftime. USC led 48-0 before Texas Tech scored against the Trojan reserves late in the third quarter. USC set Cotton Bowl records for most points in a game, most points in a quarter (USC's most since also scoring 28 in the second quarter against California in 1978) and most touchdowns (7), while scoring its most points ever in a bowl and posting its biggest bowl victory margin (second in Cotton Bowl history). It was the most points scored against Texas Tech since Miami had 61 in 1986. Troy's first 3 scores came in a 1:16 span. After tailback Shawn Walters, 1 of 8 Texans on the Trojan roster, ran 11 yards for a TD, USC recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and, on the next play, quarterback Rob Johnson hit fullback Terry Barnum for a 19-yard score. Three plays later, cornerback John Herpin, another Texas native, intercepted a Zebbie Lethridge pass and returned it 26 yards for a TD. Herpin, who intercepted another pass in the second quarter to set up a field goal, was named the game's Outstanding Defensive Player. USC's next 3 TDs came on aerials to wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson of 12, 22 and 86 yards (the 86-yarder was 1 yard shy of the longest pass in Cotton Bowl and USC history), the first 2 from Rob Johnson and the third from quarterback Brad Otton. Keyshawn Johnson, selected as the game's Outstanding Offensive Player, had 8 catches overall for a Cotton Bowl-record 222 yards (just 7 yards shy of the Trojan single game record). His 3 TD catches set a Cotton Bowl record and equalled a Trojan mark. Rob Johnson, who became USC's career passing yardage leader and the Pac-10 and USC recordholder for career completion percentage, was 16-of-21 for 289 yards (the second most yards in Cotton Bowl history). The other Trojan scores came on a late 2-yard Otton pass to tight end Jeff Diltz and second quarter field goals by placekicker Cole Ford of 39 and a career-best 42 yards. Ford's 7 PAT kicks was a Cotton Bowl record. Walters ran for a game-best 82 yards on 14 carries. Otton was 8-of-14 for 146 yards. USC thoroughly dominated the statistics, more than doubling Texas Tech in total yardage (578-260) and possession time (40:02-19:58) while also having more first downs (21-14) and plays (80-63). USC, which averaged 7.2 yards per play, set Cotton Bowl records for total yards, passing yards (a USC record 435) and completions (24). USC did this against a Texas Tech defense which entered the game third nationally in pass efficiency defense (88.6), 10th in scoring defense (17.4) and 22nd in total defense (311.0). The Red Raiders had held 5 foes to single digits in scoring and had given up just 47 points in their previous 5 games. Inside linebacker Jeff Kopp led USC in tackles with 7, while safety Sammy Knight added 6. Texas Tech, which punted 10 times, advanced into USC territory on just 4 of its 16 possessions.

USC 41, Northwestern 32

Behind the stellar play of wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson and quarterback Brad Otton, USC (ranked 15th by UPI and 17th by USA Today/CNN and AP) put an end to No. 3-ranked Northwestern's Cinderella season with an exciting 41-32 Rose Bowl win before a sellout crowd of 100,102 and a national ABC-TV audience. It was the 50th anniversary of the Pac-10/Big Ten agreement in the Rose Bowl. It was USC's 20th victory in its unprecedented 28th trip to Pasadena (but its first since the 1990 game) and Troy's first win over a Top 3 team since defeating Michigan in that 1990 Rose Bowl, while Northwestern--having its first winning season since 1971 (the Wildcats came in with a 10-1 record)--was playing in only its second-ever bowl (its first since winning the 1949 Rose Bowl). It also gave USC coach John Robinson a 4-0 Rose Bowl record (and 7-1 in all bowls). The Trojans jumped off to a quick start, driving 83 yards with the opening kickoff while using a no-huddle offense as running back LaVale Woods scored on a 1-yard plunge. But Northwestern answered on its first possession, as running back Darnell Autry ran 3 yards for a TD to cap a 68-yard drive. USC then scored 17 unanswered second quarter points: a scrambling 21-yard TD pass from Otton to running back Terry

Barnum, a 30-yard field goal by placekicker Adam Abrams and, on Northwestern's next possession, cornerback Daylon McCutcheon's 53-yard fumble return after safety Sammy Knight knocked the ball loose from Wildcat wide receiver Brian Musso. Northwestern got a 29-yard field goal from placekicker Brian Gowins with 2 seconds to go in the half following a Trojan fumble, but Troy led 24-10 at intermission (it was USC's most first half points since scoring 34 against Texas Tech in the 1995 Cotton Bowl). The Wildcats then scored on their first 4 possessions of the second half: another Gowins field goal (this one from 28 yards), a 9-yard Autry run (after Northwestern recovered a surprise on-side kick), a 1-yard sneak by quarterback Steve Schnur (which followed a 56-yard Trojan scoring strike from Otton to Johnson), and a 2-yard Autry run early in the fourth quarter that gave Northwestern its first lead of the day, 32-31. But USC came right back, getting a 46-yard Abrams field goal (the longest by a Trojan since Quin Rodriguez hit a 54-yarder against Michigan State in the 1990 John Hancock Bowl). Safety Jesse Davis then sealed the victory for USC with an interception which led to a 5-yard TD by running back Delon Washington. Johnson, who served as a Trojan ballboy at the 1985 Rose Bowl, was named the Rose Bowl MVP, as he grabbed 12 passes (all for first downs) for a Rose Bowl record 216 yards (his 17th 100-yard outing in his career and the eighth of 1995). Otton played the entire game for the first time in the 1995 season, hitting 29-of-44 passes for 391 yards (all career highs) with 2 TDs and no interceptions; the yardage was 1 yard shy of Rob Johnson's USC record and was the third most in Rose Bowl history. Autry had his 13th consecutive 100-yard rushing game, getting 110 yards on 32 carries with the 3 TDs, while Schnur was 23-of-39 for a career-best 336 yards (including 7 completions for 145 yards to wide receiver D'Wayne Bates). Northwestern outgained USC in total yards, 475-520, and limited Troy to just 29 rushing yards (its fewest since getting 7 yards against UCLA in 1993), but the Wildcats' uncharacteristic 2 turnovers led to 14 Trojan points, proving costly to a team which was third nationally in turnover margin (1.82). The Wildcats also had a TD pass called back because of a penalty late in the game and missed 2 field goals, including a 49-yard attempt that hit the upright with 35 seconds to go. USC, on the other hand, had 11 penalties (including 9 in the second half). Trojan cornerback Brian Kelly had a game-high 11 tackles (along with 2 deflections), while Knight and linebacker Scott Fields added 7 stops each.

1998 Sun Bowl
TCU 28, USC 19

In a stunning upset, 16-point underdog TCU—which barely qualified for post-season play with a 6-5 record—used a potent option attack and a stingy run defense to beat USC, 28-19, in the 65th Norwest Sun Bowl before 46,612 fans and a national CBS-TV audience. The Horned Frogs' option offense gained 314 yards on the ground (the most against the Trojans since Notre Dame had 330 in 1992) and their defense limited Troy to a USC and Sun Bowl record low -23 rushing yards. It was TCU's first bowl win since 1957. TCU, which scored touchdowns on its first 3 possessions of the opening half on runs of 3 and 60 yards by TB Basil Mitchell and 7 yards by QB Patrick Batteaux, led 21-3 at intermission. USC's only first-half points came on a 35-yard field goal by PK Adam Abrams late in the second quarter. The Horned Frogs opened up a 25-point lead on their initial drive of the second half as Batteaux scored on a 3-yard run. USC battled back by scoring on its first 3 drives of the second half, first on a 23-yard pass from QB Carson Palmer to WR Billy Miller, then on a 1-yard run by TB Petros Papadakis and a 46-yard Abrams field goal early in the fourth quarter (Abrams was the game's Special Teams MVP). The Trojans got the ball back twice more, but those drives resulted in a loss of 30 yards as Palmer was sacked 3 times. Mitchell, the game's MVP rushed for 185 yards on 19 carries (including 114 in the first half) for a 9.7 average per carry. Batteaux added 94 yards on 28 tries while executing the option to perfection (he also completed 4-of-5 passes for 51 yards). TCU stayed mainly on the ground, as 61 of its 67 plays were runs (the most rushes against USC since Penn State had 66 in 1993). The Horned Frogs threw for only 51 yards (the fewest allowed by USC since Oregon State had 29 in 1995). TCU amassed 365 total yards, converted 10-of-16 third downs (including 7-of-9 in the first half) and held the ball 35:51. USC managed just 257 total yards and 12 first downs on only 49 plays. Troy converted just 1-of-11 third downs (that came in the first quarter). Palmer was 17-of-28 for a career-best 280 yards, but was sacked 6 times (all in the second half). WR R. Jay Soward had a game-best 6 catches for 64 yards, WR Larry Parker added 4 for 104 yards and Miller had 3 for 67 yards. LB Chris Claiborne had a game-best 13 tackles and S Grant Pearsall added 11 stops.

2001 Las Vegas Bowl
Utah 10, USC 6

Behind a time-consuming, powerful running attack and a dominating defense, Utah beat USC, 10-6, in the 10th Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl before 22,385 fans and a national ABC-TV audience. The outcome–the Trojans' fifth loss of 2001 by 5 or less points–snapped USC's 4-game winning streak and Utah's 2-game losing skid. It also ended the Utes' 6-game losing streak to USC (Utah last beat Troy in 1916). The defensive struggle produced the lowest scoring Las Vegas Bowl ever. But that figured, as both squads were highly-ranked nationally in scoring defense (USC was 11th at 17.9 and Utah was 13th at 18.6). Utah, which entered the game ranked in the Top 25 nationally in all 4 defensive categories, limited the Trojans to just 151 total yards, including only 1 yard rushing. It was USC's fewest total yards since getting 124 against Washington in 1996 and its fewest rushing yards since having -20 at Arizona in 1999. USC had just 12 first downs, converted only 2-of-12 third downs and was sacked 4 times (including twice by ROV Sheldon Deckart, who had a team-high 6 tackles). USC punted on 8 of its 11 possessions (including on its first 4 drives and its final 4), went 3-and-out 5 times and penetrated Utah territory only 4 times (getting inside the 30 just once). At halftime, USC had just 15 total yards (with -53 on the ground) and 3 first downs. On offense, Utah–which was 12th nationally in rushing offense at 218.9–controlled the clock (holding the ball 16 minutes more than USC, 38:01 to 21:59) by running 54 times for 222 of its 358 total yards. The Utes ran off 75 plays (USC had just 51). HB Adam Tate ran for a game-best 103 yards on 23 carries, while fellow HB Dameon Hunter (a 1,000-yard runner in 2001) rushed for 94 yards on 17 tries and was named Utah's game MVP. Utah QB Lance Rice was 12-of-21 for 136 yards while hitting some timely passes, including a game-best 4 to WR Josh Lyman (for 41 yards) and 3 to TE Michael Richardson (for 35 yards). Utah scored on its second possession of the game as Tate ran for a 3-yard TD to cap a 7-play, 48-yard drive late in the first quarter. Then, after USC PK David Davis–the Pac-10's most accurate field goal kicker in 2001–missed a 47-yarder (breaking his string of 12 consecutive successful field goals), the Utes drove 61 yards in 12 plays to set up PK Ryan Kaneshiro's 26-yard field goal with 29 seconds to play in the half. USC came alive to start the second half, taking the opening kickoff and driving 80 yards in 12 plays, finishing with a 2-yard scoring run by FB Sunny Byrd (but Davis missed the PAT). But despite getting a pair of turnovers–CB Kris Richard recovered a fumble and LB John Cousins intercepted a pass–on Utah's next 2 possessions, the Trojans couldn't get any closer than the Ute 40-yard line the rest of the way. Trojan QB Carson Palmer was 15-of-26 for 150 yards, while WRs Kareem Kelly (33 yards) and Devin Pitts (32 yards) each had 3 receptions. Trojan All-American safety Troy Polamalu–picked as USC's game MVP–had a Las Vegas Bowl record and career-high 20 tackles (with a game record 12 solo), including 3 for losses, while S DeShaun Hill (14 stops and a forced fumble) and LB Frank Strong (12 tackles, including 4 for losses) also posted career bests in tackles. It was USC's first game in the state of Nevada and its sixth contest on Christmas Day (but its first since 1934). The crowd was the smallest ever to see USC in a bowl and the fewest at a Trojan game since 20,938 showed up at Oregon State in 1997.

2003 Orange Bowl
USC 38, Iowa 17

No. 5-ranked USC–behind a balanced offense and a stingy defense–staked its claim as one of the nation's top teams as it swamped No. 3 Iowa, 38-17, in the 69th FedEx Orange Bowl before a sold out crowd of 75,971 fans under the lights in Pro Player Stadium and a national ABC-TV audience. It was Pac-10 co-champion USC's eighth win in a row (giving Troy its first 11-win season since 1979) and it snapped Big Ten co-champ Iowa's 9-game winning streak. It was the first meeting between the teams in 26 years and the first trip to the Orange Bowl for either school. It also was Troy's first win ever in Florida in 5 tries and came against the ninth AP-ranked squad the Trojans played in the 2002 season. And USC scored at least 30 points for a school-record eighth consecutive game. USC dominated the Hawkeyes statistically, getting more total yards (550-323), first downs (30-18), plays (80-58) and possession time (38:06-21:54). It was the ninth game in a row that USC had at least 400 yards of total offense. Despite facing an Iowa defense that was second nationally against the run (68.2), Troy rushed for a season-best 247 yards and scored 4 TDs on the ground. And USC–playing without 2-time All-American S Troy Polamalu, who was held out with a sore hamstring–kept in check a Hawkeye offense that was sixth nationally in scoring (38.9). At the start, it looked like Iowa would provide a stiff challenge as WR C.J. Jones ran back the opening kickoff an Orange Bowl-record 100 yards for a TD. But USC responded quickly as QB Carson Palmer's 65-yard bomb to WR Kareem Kelly on Troy's first play set up TB Justin Fargas' 4-yard scoring run just 3 plays later. Then, after Iowa had to settle for a 35-yard field goal by PK Nate Kaeding after advancing to the USC 2-yard line on the ensuing drive, USC reeled off 31 unanswered points. First, PK Ryan Killeen atoned for an earlier missed field goal by nailing a 35-yarder late in the half (DT Bernard Riley then blocked Kaeding's 28-yard field goal try at the end of the half to keep the score knotted at 10-10). Next, USC scored on its first 3 possessions of the second half, first an 18-yard

Palmer TD pass to WR Mike Williams, then a career-long 50-yard TD run by Fargas (to cap a 99-yard drive) and a 5-yard run by TB Sultan McCullough at the top of the fourth quarter. FB Sunny Byrd added a 6-yard scoring run late in the game before Iowa added a touchdown against USC's reserves on an 18-yard pass from QB Brad Banks to WR Maurice Brown. Palmer proved his Heisman Trophy was no fluke as he hit 21-of-31 passes for 303 yards to earn Orange Bowl MVP honors, while Heisman runnerup Banks–the nation's passing efficiency leader–was just 15-of-36 for 204 yards and an interception (his first pick in his last 104 attempts). Fargas ran for 122 yards on 20 carries and McCullough added 76 yards on 12 tries, while Iowa RB Fred Russell–12th in the nation in rushing–was held to just 45 yards on 9 carries. Florida native Williams (game-high 99 yards) and WR Keary Colbert (81 yards) each had 6 receptions, while Kelly had 3 for 74 yards to set an NCAA record for consecutive games with a catch (47) en route to becoming USC's career reception leader (204). Williams set NCAA freshman records for receptions (81), receiving yards (1,265) and receiving TDs (14). Brown had 6 catches for 63 yards for Iowa. LBs Mike Pollard and Matt Grootegoed each had a team-best 6 tackles for USC, while S Jason Leach had an interception and fumble recovery while filling in for Polamalu. Iowa hurt itself with 13 penalties and turned the ball over twice.

USC 28, Michigan 14

QB Matt Leinart threw 3 touchdowns and caught another and the relentless Trojan defense recorded a season-high 9 sacks as No. 1 USC dominated No. 4 Michigan, 28-14, in the 90th Rose Bowl before a soldout crowd of 93,849 and an ABC-TV national audience. The victory (USC's 21st Rose Bowl win) virtually guaranteed Troy the AP national championship, 25 years after its last national crown, and gave USC its first 12-win season since 1978. And it snapped Michigan's 6-game winning streak. The Trojans built a 21-0 lead before Michigan scored late in the third quarter. After DT Shaun Cody blocked a Wolverine field goal attempt early in the game, USC scored 4 plays into its first possession when WR Keary Colbert made an over-the-shoulder fingertip grab of Leinart's 25-yard aerial. Then, late in the first half following LB Lofa Tatupu's interception (he grabbed a ball that bounced off of SE Braylon Edwards' foot and returned it 26 yards to the Michigan 3), TB LenDale White took a Leinart toss 6 yards for another TD. Then, on the opening drive of the second half, Colbert made a spectacular one-handed grab of a 47-yard Leinart bomb (despite being interfered with) to up Troy's cushion. However, Michigan answered on its next series with a scoring drive that took nearly 8 minutes, capped by QB John Navarre's 5-yard pass to TE Tim Massaquoi. But USC responded right back, scoring on a tricky 15-yard reverse pass from WR Mike Williams to an unguarded Leinart. Wolverine TB Chris Perry ran 2 yards for a TD early in final quarter, but Michigan had the ball for only 4:12 in that quarter and never threatened again. Leinart was named the Rose Bowl MVP as he connected on 23-of-34 passes for 327 yards with the 3 scores (and no interceptions), along with his TD catch. Colbert, who became USC's career reception leader (with 207 catches), had 6 catches for a career-best 149 yards. Williams added a team-best 8 catches for 88 yards. White's TD was his 14th of the year, tying the USC freshman season record, while TB Reggie Bush–who had 41 yards rushing, 42 receiving and 49 on returns–set the USC freshman season all-purpose yardage mark (1,331 yards). Tatupu had a team-high 12 tackles, CB Will Poole added 10 stops (including 2 sacks) with 5 deflections and DE Kenechi Udeze had 3 sacks. USC's 9 sacks were its most since getting 13 against Oregon in 1992. Although Michigan held the ball 34:26 and had more plays (84 to 60) and first downs (25 to 19), the Trojans accumulated 410 total yards to UM's 320 (only 49 rushing). Michigan came into the game having allowed just 15 sacks and 5 TD passes all season. Navarre was 27-of-46 for 271 yards, Perry ran for 85 yards on 23 tries and Edwards had a game-high 10 receptions for 107 yards. USC set school overall attendance (946,482) and average (72,368) records.

2005 Orange Bowl
USC 55*, Oklahoma 19

Top-ranked USC won its 11th national championship–and second consecutive–in overwhelming fashion by thumping No. 2 Oklahoma, 55-19, in the BCS Championship Game in the 2005 Orange Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 77,912 in Miami's Pro Player Stadium and a national prime time ABC-TV audience. USC became just the second team ever to hold the AP No. 1 ranking from the pre-season through the bowl (Florida State did it in 1999). The Trojans also became the 10th team to win consecutive AP national championships. It was Troy's 22nd victory in a row, including a school-record 13 in 2004. USC's 55 points tied its most ever in a bowl (and were the most ever allowed in a bowl by Oklahoma). It was a school-record eighth time in the season that USC won by 30-plus points. USC scored 38 of its points off of OU turnovers. QB Matt Leinart, the game's MVP, threw an Orange Bowl record (and USC record-tying) 5 touchdowns, including 3 to WR Steve Smith (tying both an Orange Bowl and USC record). PK Ryan Killeen set the USC career scoring record (with 329 points). Oklahoma looked impressive early, driving 92 yards for the game's first score midway through the opening quarter on a 5-yard pass from QB Jason White to WR Travis Wilson. But USC countered on the ensuing possession to start a 28-point scoring run, as TE Dominique Byrd made a spectacular one-handed TD grab of a 33-yard Leinart aerial. Then, late in the quarter, USC S Josh Pinkard recovered a botched OU punt return and TB LenDale White ran for a 6-yard TD on the next play. S Jason Leach intercepted White's desperation heave on Oklahoma's next series and Leinart soon after hit WR Dwayne Jarrett on a 54-yard scoring bomb. White was picked off again on OU's next drive, this time by CB Eric Wright, and 3 plays later Leinart hit Smith for a 5-yard score with 9:17 to go in the half. After Oklahoma responded with a 29-yard field goal by PK Garrett Hartley, USC took just 4 plays to score again, this time on Smith's impressive one-armed reception of a 33-yard Leinart pass. When Oklahoma fumbled the ball away on its following possession (LB Matt Grootegoed had the recovery), Killeen nailed a 44-yard field goal with 3 seconds to go to put USC up 38-10 at halftime. USC scored on its first 2 drives of the second half: a 4-yard Leinart-to-Smith pass and a 42-yard Killeen field goal. The Trojans capped a 27-point scoring outburst when White ran for an 8-yard TD just 5 plays after Grootegoed intercepted White early in the fourth quarter. The Sooners scored twice late in the game against mostly Trojan reserves, getting a safety when Leinart fell on a fumbled snap in the end zone and then on White's 9-yard pass to Wilson. USC piled up 525 total yards (averaging 8.3 yards per play) to the Sooners' 372, even though OU ran off 13 more plays (76 to 63) and held the ball for 35:06. But USC didn't turn the ball over, while Oklahoma had 5 giveaways. For USC, Leinart was 18-of-35 for 332 yards, White ran for 118 yards on 15 carries, Smith had 7 catches for 113 yards, Jarrett had 5 receptions for 115 yards and TB Reggie Bush had 149 all-purpose yards (75 yards on 6 rushes, 36 yards on 2 kickoff returns, 31 yards on 2 catches and a 7-yard punt return). LB Lofa Tatupu had a game-best 12 tackles, S Darnell Bing added 10 stops and Leach and Grootegoed each had 7. OU's White was 24-of-36 for 244 yards, but threw 3 interceptions, Wilson caught 7 passes for 59 yards and TB Adrian Peterson ran for 82 yards on 25 tries. It marked the first time that a pair of Heisman Trophy winners (Leinart and White) faced each other in a game (in fact, 4 of the 2004 Heisman finalists played in the game, including Bush and Peterson).

Texas 41, USC 38*

QB Vince Young ran for a pair of touchdowns in the final minutes—including an 8-yard scrambling game-winner on fourth-and-5 with 19 seconds to go—to help No. 2 Texas overcome a 12-point deficit and upend top-ranked USC, 41-38, in the BCS Championship Game in the 2006 Rose Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 93,986 and a national prime time ABC-TV audience. The win was Texas's 20th in a row and snapped USC's 34-game winning streak, denying the Trojans an unprecedented third consecutive national championship (it was also Troy's first loss after 16 straight non-conference wins and 16 consecutive victories over AP Top 25 teams). Young, the 2005 Heisman Trophy runnerup and Rose Bowl Offensive MVP, accounted for 467 yards of total offense, including 200 rushing (the most by a runner against USC since Oregon State's Ken Simonton had 234 in 2000) with 3 TDs and 267 through the air on 30-of-40 passing. After USC took a 38-26 lead with 6:42 to play on QB Matt Leinart's 22-yard scoring pass to WR Dwayne Jarrett (Jarrett's USC season record-tying 16th touchdown reception), Young marched the Longhorns down the field in 8 plays as he scrambled for a 17-yard TD with 4:03 to play. Then, after USC failed to convert a fourth-and-2 run at midfield on the ensuing possession, Texas took over with 2:09 remaining and took 11 plays to score the clincher. After USC opened the game's scoring on a 4-yard run by TB LenDale White following LB Kaluka Maiava's recovery of a fumbled Texas punt return, the Longhorns scored the next 16 points on 3 straight possessions. First, PK David Pino hit a 46-yard field goal after Texas recovered a USC fumble at the UT 19-yard line, then TB Selvin Young took a lateral from Young and went the remaining 12 yards for a score (coming after Texas intercepted a Trojan pass in the end zone), but Pino's PAT missed. Then, TB Ramonce Taylor raced 30 yards for a TD. USC responded as PK Mario Danelo nailed a career-long 43-yard field goal with 2 seconds to go in the half. The teams scored 53 points in the second half (the most points in a half ever at the Rose Bowl), when there were 4 lead changes. After White ran 3 yards for a TD early in the half to give Troy a 17-16 edge, Young answered with a 14-yard scoring run, but the Trojans came right back on White's 12-yard TD rumble late in the third quarter. After Pino missed a field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter, USC drove 80 yards, culminating in TB Reggie Bush's 26-yard scoring run. Texas narrowed the gap to 31-26 on its next series as Pino hit a 34-yard field goal with 8:46 to play, but USC responded on the ensuing drive with the Leinart-to-Jarrett TD for what appeared to be a comfortable lead before Young took over. The teams produced a Rose Bowl-record 1,130 yards of combined total offense (the 9 combined rushing TDs and 60 combined first downs were also Rose Bowl marks). USC had a Rose Bowl-record 574 total yards (including 365 passing) and averaged 7.0 yards per play. Its 38 points were the most by a losing team in the Rose Bowl. Texas had 556 total yards (the most against USC since California's 601 in 1991), including 289 rushing (the most allowed by USC since Kansas State had 340 in 2001), while averaging 7.3 yards per play (8.0 rushing). UT's 30 first downs were the most against the Trojans since UCLA had a USC opponent record-tying 32 in 1970. White ran for 124 yards and 20 carries with the 3 touchdowns (setting USC and Pac-10 records for season and career rushing and overall TDs), Leinart was 29-of-40 for 365 yards (he was 16-of-19 for 218 yards in the second half) and at one point connected on a Rose Bowl-record 11 consecutive passes, Bush had 279 all-purpose yards (82 on 13 carries, 95 on a season-best 6 receptions and 102 on 5 kickoff returns) and Jarrett had 10 catches for 121 yards. Bush and White set an NCAA record for career touchdowns by teammates (99). S Darnell Bing led USC with 9 tackles, CB Josh Pinkard added 7 stops and LB Oscar Lua had 6. USC limited Texas to just 3-of-11 third down conversions. Texas TE David Thomas had 10 catches for 88 yards, while WR Limas Sweed added 8 receptions for 65 yards. S Michael Huff, the 2005 Thorpe Award winner and Rose Bowl Defensive MVP, had a game-best 12 tackles with a fumble recovery. The game marked the first time that a team fielded a pair of already-named Heisman winners (Leinart and Bush). It also was USC's first loss to Texas in 5 meetings, its first defeat in 6 bowl appearances when ranked No. 1 and its first post-season loss to a Big 12 team in 6 bowl trips. USC set a school record for overall season attendance (1,037,565), the first time it was over the million mark, and overall season attendance average (79,813). The game was viewed on ABC-TV by 35.6 million fans, making it the highest-rated college football game since the 1987 Fiesta Bowl.

USC 32, Michigan 18

No. 8 USC used a second half offensive explosion behind 4 touchdown passes from QB John David Booty and a game-long stifling defense to dominate No. 3 Michigan, 32-18, in the 2007 Rose Bowl in front of a sold-out crowd of 93,852 and a national ABC-TV audience. It was USC's most points and biggest victory margin ever over the Wolverines. It gave Troy 5 consecutive 11-win seasons. The win exorcised the close losses Troy had in its previous 2 visits to the Pasadena stadium (to Texas in the 2006 BCS Championship Game and to UCLA at the end of the 2006 regular season). It took 30 minutes for USC—making an unprecedented fifth straight BCS bowl appearance—to shake off the disappointment of the UCLA upset that knocked the Trojans out of the BCS Championship Game. And by game's end, USC's victory quashed any talk that Michigan should have been playing in the BCS Championship Game instead of the Rose Bowl. The teams traded field goals (a 26-yarder by Trojan PK Mario Danelo late in the first quarter and a 41-yarder by PK Garrett Rivas on Michigan's ensuing possession early in the second quarter) in a mundane first half that saw USC collect just 122 total yards (20 rushing) to the Wolverines' 76 (minus 9 on the ground). But after DE Lawrence Jackson intercepted a screen pass by QB Chad Henne near midfield on Michigan's first possession of the second half, USC took just 4 plays to get into the end zone as Booty hit WR Chris McFoy for a 2-yard score. Sensing Michigan's staunchness against the run (the Wolverines led the nation in rush defense at 43.0 and allowed USC just a season-low 48 rushing yards) but its susceptibility to the pass, Booty's first toss of that series was the start of 27 passes in the Trojans' next 29 plays, as they scored on 5 consecutive drives. Late in the third quarter, Booty hit WR Dwayne Jarrett—the game's Offensive MVP with 11 catches (giving him USC's career receptions record) for 205 yards, both personal bests—on a quick slant and Jarrett broke free for a 22-yard TD (Danelo missed the PAT). In his Rose Bowl career, Jarrett's 21 receptions, 326 yards and 3 TD catches were all Rose Bowl records. Then, on Michigan's following possession, LB Brian Cushing sacked QB Chad Henne and forced a fumble that Jackson recovered, leading to a 26-yard Danelo field goal with 48 seconds to go in the quarter. The Wolverines responded, however, as Henne hit WR Adrian Arrington on an 11-yard scoring pass and TB Mike Hart ran for a 2-point conversion to pull the Wolverines within a score, 19-11, early in the final quarter. But the Trojans continued their aerial assault, with Booty lofting a season-long 62-yard pass over a pair of Michigan defenders for Jarrett's second TD of the game (Danelo's PAT kick missed again). Next, WR Steve Smith—who caught 7 passes for 108 yards to go over the 1,000-yard receiving barrier for the season—got into the act by catching a 7-yard TD pass from Booty on USC's 4-play, 85-yard drive with less than 7 minutes to go. The Wolverines added a late touchdown on a 41-yard Henne pass to WR Steve Breaston. Booty completed 27-of-45 passes en route to his 4 TDs (all career bests, with the 4 TDs tying a Rose Bowl mark) and his 391 passing yards were the most surrendered by Michigan since the Michigan State's 400 in 1999. USC's 439 yards of total offense far surpassed what Michigan had been allowing (254.1, sixth in the nation). The Trojan defense posted 6 sacks against a UM squad that had allowed just 18 all season and limited the Wolverines to just 12 rushing yards (they had averaged 189.2 rushing yards in 2006). Michigan TB Mike Hart, who had run for at least 90 yards in every game of 2006, was limited to 47 yards on 17 carries. Henne completed 26-of-41 passes for 309 yards, but 14 of those completions and 185 of the yards came in the fourth quarter when the game was virtually decided. Breaston had 7 grabs for 115 yards, while WR Mario Manningham (79 yards) and TE Tyler Ecker (78 yards) each had 6 receptions. USC LB Keith Rivers had a game-best 9 tackles, while 4 of Cushing's 7 tackles were for losses (including 2.5 sacks) and he forced a fumble to help him earn the game's Defensive MVP trophy. USC played before a school-record 11th sellout crowd of the season.

2008 Rose Bowl
USC 49, Illinois 17

No. 6 USC piled up a Rose Bowl-record 633 yards of total offense and took advantage of 4 turnovers by No. 13 Illinois to post a dominant 49-17 victory in the 2008 Rose Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 93,923 and a national ABC-TV audience. It equalled the most points scored in the Rose Bowl (Michigan scored 49 points in the 1902 and 1948 games) and the 32-point victory margin was the Rose Bowl's largest since UCLA's 36-point win over the Illini in the 1984 game. The victory gave USC an NCAA record 6 consecutive 11-win seasons. QB John David Booty, the Rose Bowl Offensive MVP, completed 25-of-37 passes for 255 yards and 3 TDs to set a Rose Bowl career record for touchdown passes (7). TB Joe McKnight had 206 all-purpose yards (125 on 10 rushes, 45 on 6 receptions and 36 on 3 punt returns). TBs Stafon Johnson (104 yards on 9 carries) and Chauncey Washington (75 yards on 12 attempts) also helped USC run for a season-best 344 yards. TE Fred Davis had a game-high 7 receptions for 87 yards. USC's defense posted a season-high 15 tackles for a loss (including 5 sacks) against Illinois' spread offense. The Illini converted just 4-of-14 third downs. CB Cary Harris had a team-best 10 tackles, plus 2 turnovers, while LB Rey Maualuga won Rose Bowl Defensive MVP honors with 3 sacks, an interception and a forced fumble and DE Lawrence Jackson added 3 tackles for a loss among his 5 stops. USC built up a quick 21-0 lead. Troy scored on its opening drive as Booty hit Washington for an 8-yard TD. Then, after Maualuga intercepted a pass from QB Juice Williams on Illinois' next series, USC used some trickery on its first play as WR-QB Garrett Green took a lateral and fired a 34-yard scoring strike to TB Desmond Reed. The Trojans added to their lead late in the half on a 3-yard Washington TD run, but Illinois got on the board with 38 seconds to go in the half on a 28-yard field goal by Jason Reda. The Illini made a run at the Trojans early in the second half when TB Rashard Mendenhall burst 79 yards for a score on Illinois' first series (it was the longest run against USC since 2004). Illinois was driving again on its next possession before LB Kaluka Maiava punched the ball out of WR Jacob Willis' grasp at the USC 1-yard line and LB Brian Cushing recovered the ball in the end zone for a touchback. Troy then drove 80 yards, capped by a 2-yard Booty TD pass to Davis (on the drive, McKnight scooped up a bobbled lateral and raced 65 yards to the Illinois 12-yard line). The Illini turned the ball over on their next 2 possessions (Harris had an interception and then a fumble recovery) and USC converted both, with McKnight running for a 6-yard score and WR David Ausberry catching a 15-yard TD pass from Booty early in the fourth quarter. After USC stopped Illinois on downs at the Trojan 12 late in the fourth quarter, Troy drove 87 yards and scored on a 3-yard run by TB Hershel Dennis late in the game (his first TD since 2004). Illinois then got a touchdown against USC's reserves as QB Eddie McGee hit WR Arrelious Benn for a 56-yard score. The teams combined for 1,078 yards of total offense, as the Illini had 445 total yards. Mendenhall ran for 155 yards on 17 carries (he also caught 5 passes for 59 yards), Williams hit 21-of-35 passes for 245 yards and Benn had 5 catches for 59 yards.

2009 Rose Bowl
USC 38, Penn State 24

QB Mark Sanchez threw 4 touchdown passes and ran for another score as No. 5 USC opened up a 24-point halftime lead and beat No. 6 Penn State, 38-24, in the 2009 Rose Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 93,293 and a national ABC-TV audience. USC, appearing it its record-tying fourth straight Rose Bowl, became the first team to win 3 consecutive Rose Bowls. It was the second-most points Penn State allowed in its 41 bowl appearances and the most points surrendered by the Nittany Lions in their past 37 games. It was also the most points USC scored against PSU in the 9-game series. It was USC's ninth win in a row over Big Ten opponents (and sixth in a row against the league in the Rose Bowl). The teams exchanged touchdowns late in the first quarter, as Sanchez hit WR Damian Williams on a 27-yard scoring toss to cap an 11-play, 86-yard drive and then Penn State put together a 9-play, 80-yard drive, culminating with a 9-yard TD run by QB Daryll Clark. USC then went on a 24-point scoring binge on 4 consecutive possessions in the second quarter: Sanchez had a 6-yard TD run early in the quarter to finish an 80-yard drive, PK David Buehler followed with a 30-yard field goal, WR Ronald Johnson caught a 19-yard touchdown bullet from Sanchez and, following S Will Harris' recovery of a PSU fumble, Sanchez hit TB C.J. Gable on a short toss that Gable turned into a 20-yard score with 36 seconds to go. That 31-7 score at intermission was USC's most first-half points in any of its 33 Rose Bowl appearances (the 24-point lead was USC's second-largest Rose Bowl halftime margin, behind a 26-0 halftime lead against Pittsburgh in the 1930 game). The 31 points also eclipsed the most points Penn State had allowed in a game in 2008. USC held decisive halftime edges in first downs (19 to 7), total yards (341 to 177, including 276 to 117 passing), plays (41 to 27), possession time (17:15 to 12:45) and third down conversions (6-of-8 to 1-of-5). After a scoreless third quarter, Penn State came alive, beginning with a 2-yard Clark scoring pass to WR Derrick Williams at the top of the quarter. After USC responded on its ensuing possession with a 45-yard Sanchez TD bomb to Johnson, the Nittany Lions tallied on their next 2 series: a 25-yard field goal by PK Kevin Kelly and a 9-yard Clark pass to WR Jordan Norwood. Penn State got the ball 2 more times, but interceptions by Will Harris and CB Cary Harris (in the end zone at the gun) thwarted those drives. Sanchez, named the Rose Bowl Offensive MVP, completed 28-of-35 passes for 413 yards, career highs for completions and yardage. It was the second most passing yards in a Rose Bowl game (behind 456 by Oregon's Danny O'Neil in 1995) and the fourth highest in USC history (the most since Carson Palmer's 425 versus Notre Dame in 2002), while his touchdowns (4) and completion percentage (80.0%) tied Rose Bowl game records. Sanchez did this against a Penn State defense that had given up only 6 touchdown passes in 2008 and was allowing only 168.0 passing yards. His 4 TD passes gave him 34 on the season, second most in USC history behind Matt Leinart's 38 in 2003. Damian Williams had career bests with 10 receptions for 162 yards, the most by a Trojan since Dwayne Jarrett had 11 for 205 in the 2007 Rose Bowl against Michigan. TE Anthony McCoy added 5 catches for 48 yards, while Johnson (82 yards) and WR Patrick Turner (74 yards) each caught 4 passes. TB Stafon Johnson led USC with 63 yards on 15 carries. USC rolled up 413 total yards against a PSU defense that was allowing only 263.9 yards and 12.4 points. LB Brian Cushing had a USC-best 7 tackles, LB Rey Maualuga added 6 stops and Will Harris had 6 tackles to go with his fumble recovery and interception. USC LB Kaluka Maiava was named the Rose Bowl Defensive MVP as he had 4 tackles and 2 deflections. Penn State's 410 total yards and 273 passing yards were the most against USC in 2008. Clark hit 21-of-36 passes for 273 yards, while TB Stephfon Green led the Nittany Lions in rushing (10 carries for 57 yards) and receptions (5 for 67 yards). Butler (97 yards) and Williams (34 yards) each had 4 catches for PSU. LB Josh Hull had a game-high 10 tackles, 5 of LB Navorro Bowman's 8 tackles were for losses and CB Tony Davis had 8 stops and a fumble recovery. PSU was penalized 9 times, including 7 in the first half. Legendary Penn State coach Joe Paterno, college football's winningest coach, coached from the press box after having hip surgery several weeks prior. The game was a rematch of the 1923 Rose Bowl that was the first played in the current Rose Bowl stadium. It was just the third time that USC played back-to-back games in the stadium.

2009 Emerald Bowl
USC 24, Boston College 13

QB Matt Barkley threw a pair of touchdown passes to FB Stanley Havili and ran for another score while the USC defense shut out Boston College in the second half to lead the Trojans to a 24-13 win in their first-ever Emerald Bowl appearance on a chilly, soggy night in front of a capacity crowd of 40,121 in AT&T Park in San Francisco and a national ESPN cable audience. USC, which entered the game unranked for the first time since the end of the 2001 season when it last played in a non-BCS bowl, won its 16th consecutive non-conference game and its 32nd bowl game. It was Troy's first game against BC since 1988 and its first in San Francisco since 1943. The Trojans scored on their first 2 possessions with a pair of drives that exceeded 80 yards, with Havili weaving 53 yards with a Barkley pass on the first series and then catching a 5-yard Barkley pass on the second series early in the second half. But the Eagles responded on their next 2 drives, with RB Montel Harris getting a 7-yard TD run (the extra point kick missed) and then, after getting an interception, WR Rich Gunnell jetting 61 yards with a pass from QB Dave Shinskie late in the half (it was the longest reception against USC since BYU's Todd Watkins had a 69-yarder in 2004) to pull within 14-13 at intermission. But the Trojans limited BC to only 91 total yards in the second half, including just 19 in the third quarter. USC converted a pair of turnovers into scores in the second half. After DT Jurrell Casey recovered a fumble, PK Jordan Congdon hit a 38-yard field goal midway through the third quarter. Then after an interception by CB Shareece Wright (seeing his first action of 2009 after being academically ineligible), Barkley scored on a 1-yard sneak early in the fourth quarter. Barkley was 27-of-37 (a career best for completions) for 350 yards and hit 13 of his first 14 passes (including his first 7). WR Damian Williams was voted the game's Offensive MVP after catching 12 passes for 189 yards (both personal bests) and he set up USC's last 2 TDs after hauling in bombs. Havili added 6 receptions for 83 yards (both career highs) and WR Ronald Johnson had 6 for 58 yards. TB Allen Bradford ran for 72 yards on a personal-best 17 carries. DT Christian Tupou led USC with 7 tackles, including 1.5 for losses, while LB Malcolm Smith added 6 stops. For Boston College, Shinskie was 14-of-33 for 218 yards, Gunnell caught 6 passes for 130 yards and Harris ran for 102 yards on 23 tries (his fifth straight 100-yard outing). LB Luke Kuechly had 16 tackles and was named the game's Defensive MVP. USC had 438 total yards (with a season-low 88 on the ground) to BC's 312, held the ball 34:23 and limited the Eagles to just 4-of-12 on third down conversions. It rained for 2 hours before kickoff and then lightly again during the third quarter. The Trojans played without 4 starters: CB Josh Pinkard (knee injury), TB Joe McKnight (held out by USC's NCAA compliance office) and TE Anthony McCoy and OT Tyron Smith (both academically ineligible).

There have been 45 matchups between the No. 1 and No. 2 teams in the Associated Press poll (22 times during the regular season, twice in a conference playoff and 21 times in bowls). The No. 1 team has won 26 times, the No. 2 team has won 17 times, and there have been 2 ties. USC is 3-3 in such matchups, winning 3 of the 4 times it was No. 1 and losing both times it was No. 2. The AP poll began in 1936.

USC in AP Rankings

Since the AP poll began in 1936, the weekly rankings have been published 1,021 times. USC has been ranked in the poll 674 times (68.2% of the time). Here's the list of the 10 most frequently ranked teams (according to APPollArchive.com):

3.	Notre Dame	712
4.	Oklahoma	704
5.	USC	696
6.	Texas	679
7.	Nebraska	670
8.	Alabama	661
9.	Penn State	583
10.	Tennessee	564

In those 1,012 AP polls, USC has held the No. 1 ranking 90 times. The 10 teams ranked No. 1 most often are:

10.	Florida	41

USC has the longest streak of consecutive weekly AP No. 1 appearances, with a national record 33 (from Dec. 8, 2003 to Dec. 4, 2005). The Trojans also had an earlier streak of 18 (from Sept. 12, 1972 to Sept. 25, 1973). Here's the list of the 10 teams with the longest streaks of top-ranked appearances:

1.	USC	33
2.	Miami, Fla.	21
3.	USC	18
4.	Florida State	17
5.	Army	15
	Nebraska	15
	Oklahoma	15
	Nebraska	15
	Ohio State	15
10.	LSU	14

In 2004, USC became only the second team ever to be ranked No. 1 in the AP pre-season poll and hold that top ranking the entire season (Florida State did it in 1999). Four other teams--Notre Dame in 1943, Army in 1945, Nebraska in 1971 and USC in 1972--were No. 1 in every regular season ranking, but either did not start off No. 1 in the pre-season poll (Nebraska and USC) or there was no pre-season poll (Notre Dame and Army).

USC's back-to-back AP national championships in 2003 and 2004 marked the 10th time that a team won consecutive AP national titles. The others: Minnesota (1940-41), Army (1944-45), Notre Dame (1946-47), Oklahoma (1955-56), Alabama (1964-65), Nebraska (1970-71), Oklahoma (1974-75), Alabama (1978-79) and Nebraska (1994-95).

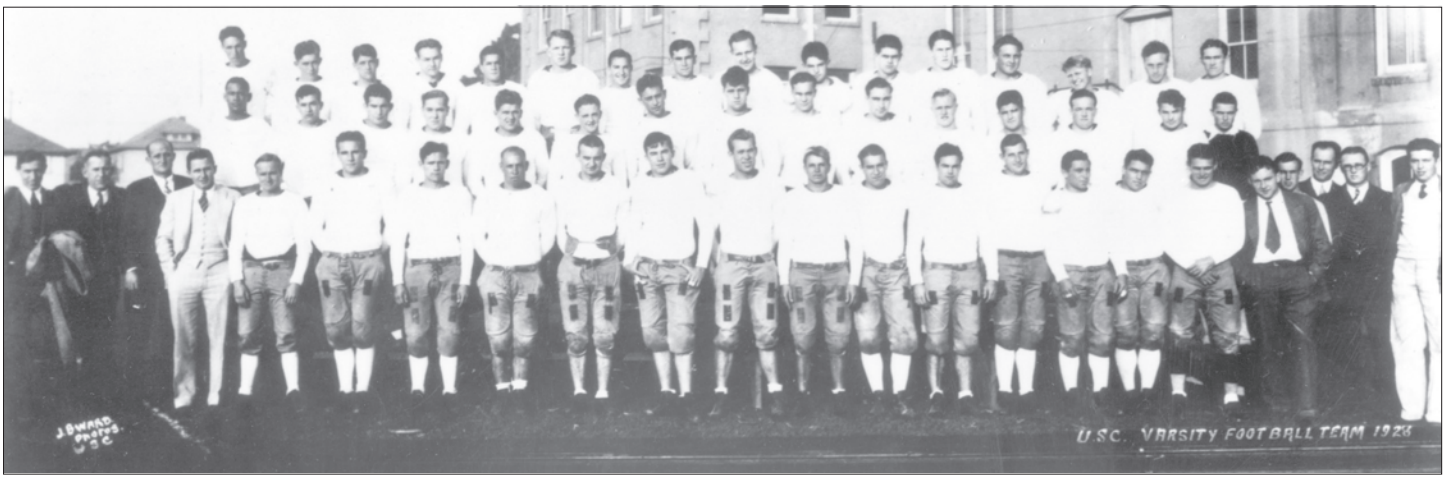
1928 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



They whip the ends, they buck the guards, the line begins to yield
And the "greatest team in history" backs slowly down the field
And finally comes the whistle as a seal to Stanford's fate,
And the "greatest team in history" goes staggering through the gate
--Excerpt from a 1928 poem about the USC-Stanford clash.

The "Thundering Herd," under Hall of Fame coach Howard Jones, galloped to the Trojans' first national championship in 1928. A swarming defense, led by tackle Jesse Hibbs and end Garrett Arbelide, gave up only 59 points all season, while an offensive backfield of Harry Edelson, Russ Saunders, Don Williams and Marshall Duffield rolled over, under, and through their opponents.

USC finished the season with nine wins and no losses, with the only blemish being a 0-0 tie with Cal as the Golden Bears continued to be a nemesis for Troy in the 1920s.

The Trojans beat Glenn "Pop" Warner's Stanford Indians, 10-0, forcing five fumbles in the process. Warner had never lost to Jones and he considered his 1928 team to be his best. But USC used a special strategy called the "quick mix" to disrupt Stanford's offense and help offset the Indians' 10-pound-per-man weight advantage. The strategy worked in what was a landmark game for the Trojans, who established themselves as the preeminent football power on the West Coast. Warner never beat Jones again.

The 1928 season also saw USC beat Notre Dame and Knute Rockne for the first time, 27-14. Williams passed for 111 yards and two touchdowns and rushed for 93 more as the Trojans clinched the national title.

1931 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"I've waited for two years for this day — but, boy, what revenge!"
— USC's Erny Pinckert after beating the Irish.

The 1931 edition of Howard Jones' "Thundering Herd" was the team that captured the imagination of college football fans everywhere, and the hearts of the citizens of Los Angeles. More than 300,000 welcomed the Trojans home from a thrilling 16-14 victory over Notre Dame in South Bend—a victory clinched by what sportswriter Maxwell Stiles called "Johnny Baker's 10 little toes, and three BIG points."

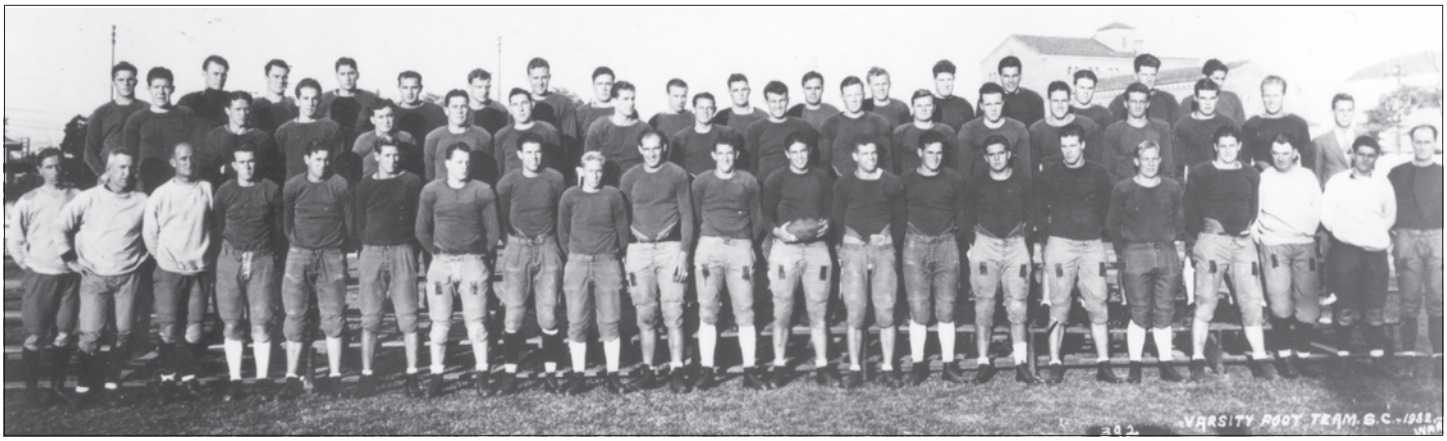
USC trailed the Irish14-0 at the outset of the final stanza, but stormed back behind the running of Gus Shaver and the passing of Orv Mohler. Baker's 33-yard field goal with one minute remaining made the difference. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten streak and was the Trojans' first victory in South Bend.

The season started inauspiciously enough with a 13-7 loss to St. Mary's. "I have no alibis to offer," said Jones afterward. But Troy then proceeded to roll over its next 10 opponents by a combined score of 356 to 39. There were six shutouts.

"(USC is) the greatest team I have ever seen," said Georgia coach Harry Mehre, after his Bulldogs were blanked, 60-0. The usually taciturn Jones agreed, calling his team "the greatest offensive machine I have ever coached."

USC capped the season with a 21-12 victory over Tulane in the Rose Bowl. Four Trojans garnered All-American acclaim: Baker, Shaver, Erny Pinckert and team captain Stan Williamson.

1932 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



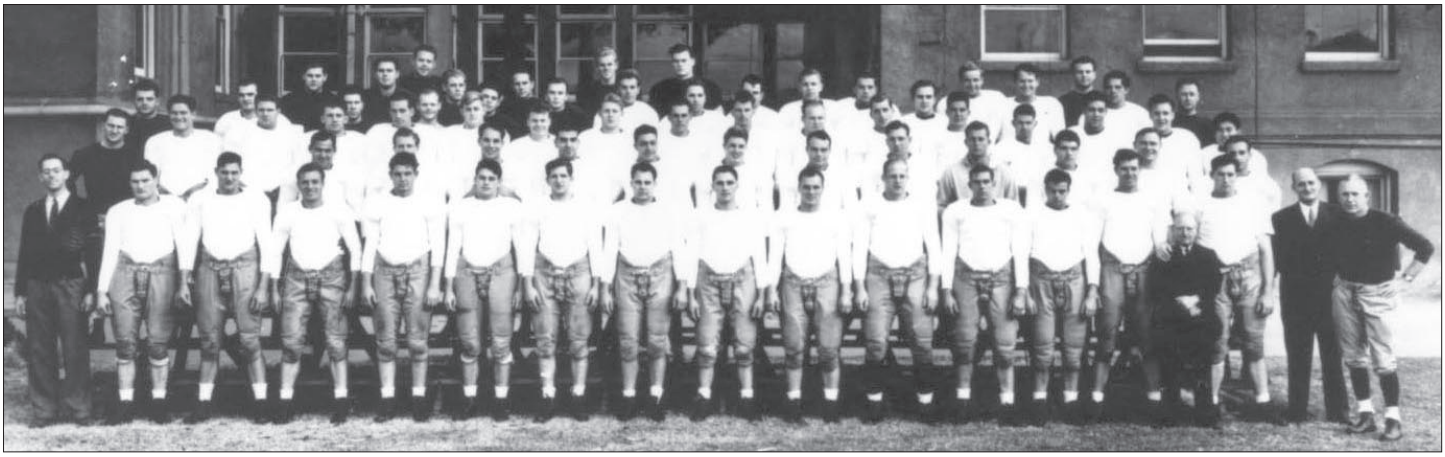
"Fortunately, I have a strong line to start with. I have Mohler, and if anything happens to him, I have Griffith and Warburton."
— Howard Jones to famed sportswriter Grantland Rice before the 1932 season.

The Trojans breezed to their second consecutive national championship in 1932 as the Howard Jones era reached its pinnacle. But at the start of the season, future greatness was not apparent for this team. Seven regulars had graduated from the 1931 squad, including three All-Americans. By the end of the season, however, it was hailed as perhaps Jones' finest squad. In fact, some still regard this as USC's best team.

The line, one of the greatest in Trojan history, included All-Americans Tay Brown, Aaron Rosenberg and Ernie Smith. The offense, directed by Homer Griffith and featuring back Cotton Warburton and ends Ray Sparling and Ford Palmer, was potent despite losing star Orv Mohler to injury. Meanwhile, the defense shut out its first five opponents, before finally being scored upon in the fourth quarter of game six. Jones' squad allowed only 13 points all season while scoring 201. USC defeated Notre Dame 13-0 and smashed Pittsburgh 35-0 in the Rose Bowl.

The masterful 1932 season firmly placed Jones in the upper echelon of collegiate coaches. He even appeared on the cover of TIME magazine, where he was compared to the legendary Amos Alonzo Stagg and Glenn "Pop" Warner. In 1999, Athlon magazine rated the 1932 team among the greatest of the 20th century.

1939 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



"We weren't off form, stale or crippled. We were just outclassed."
— Tennessee coach Bob Neyland after his undefeated, unscored-upon Vols lost, 14-0, to USC in the 1940 Rose Bowl.

The year 1939 witnessed Howard Jones' Thundering Herd capture its fourth national championship. The head man remarked at the team banquet that this team--his next to last at Troy--was his finest (at least in terms of depth) in his 16 years at USC.

As tanks rolled in Europe, Jones' team rolled to an 8-0-2 record, shutting out six teams and allowing just 7 points to three others. Only 33 points were scored upon Troy that year--a mark no Trojan defense has topped since.

The season had its share of huge games. There was a 19-7 win over No. 11 Oregon State in Portland and a 20-12 win over No. 7 Notre Dame at South Bend (USC wouldn't win again at Notre Dame Stadium until 1967). The regular season finale was an epic 0-0 tie with No. 9 UCLA in front of 103,303, the second-largest crowd in Coliseum history. The capper was a 14-0 win over No. 2 Tennessee in the Rose Bowl against a Volunteer team that hadn't been scored upon in 16 games and hadn't lost in 24 games.

Lineman Harry Smith was a unanimous All-American, while quarterback Grenny Lansdell--who led the team with 742 rushing yards and 54 points--was also named to some teams.

At season's end, the Trojans were given the Knute Rockne Trophy, awarded each year to the No. 1 team in the country by Professor Frank G. Dickinson, a respected analyst who declared, "The Trojans were the best team in the best section…and the nation's other top teams did not play as strong a schedule as USC."

1962 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"Our intention was to win today....and what does the scoreboard say?"
— John McKay after the 1963 Rose Bowl.

In 1962, John McKay led USC to its first national championship in 30 years and inaugurated one of the greatest dynasties in college football history. From 1962 to 1981, the Trojans won five national titles, played in 11 Rose Bowls, collected four Heisman Trophies and contributed dozens of All-Americans to what was already a remarkable football heritage

McKay's third team featured the talented quarterback tandem of Pete Beathard and Bill Nelsen, who combined to pass for 18 touchdowns while tossing only three interceptions. A then-school-record 11 of those touchdowns went to consensus All-American end Hal Bedsole, who also set the standard for passes caught (33) and yards receiving (827). The ground attack was run from the I-formation, led by the versatile Willie Brown at tailback and co-captain Ben Wilson at fullback. Brown led the team in rushing, interceptions, punt returns and kickoff returns, and was the second leading receiver.

The Trojan defense allowed only 92 points all season. All-American linebacker Damon Bame led a unit that had three shutouts (including a 25-0 blanking of Notre Dame) and allowed more than 10 points only twice during the regular-season.

Troy capped the year by outlasting Wisconsin, 42-37, in one of the most exciting games in Rose Bowl history. McKay was named Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association and the Football Writers Association of America.

1967 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"Well, gentlemen, I guess I wasn't so stupid today."
—John McKay after beating UCLA, 21-20.

The 1967 Trojans relied on the running of tailback O.J. Simpson, the blocking of Outland Trophy-winning tackle Ron Yary, and a stifling defense to win USC's sixth national championship.

Simpson's weaving 64-yard touchdown run, pehaps the most famous run in college football history, was the difference in a 21-20 victory over UCLA. The showdown between the top-ranked Bruins and the No. 4-ranked Trojans remains one of the greatest games in the history of the crosstown series.

USC's only blemish on the season was a 3-0 loss in the rain and mud to Oregon State in Corvallis. The Trojans would not be shut out again for 26 years and did not lose again to the Beavers until 2000. The other key victory for Troy, a 24-7 win over Notre Dame, was USC's first win at South Bend since 1939. Linebacker Adrian Young's four interceptions (a USC record) helped to repel the Irish. The Trojans celebrated New Year's Day 1968 with a 14-3 victory over Indiana in the Rose Bowl.

The incomparable Simpson, the Heisman runner-up that year, ran for a then-NCAA-record 1,543 regular-season yards (1,709 overall) to go with 13 touchdowns. Mike Battle, Tim Rossovich, and Young led a defense which allowed only 87 points. A record five Trojans were selected in the first round of the 1968 NFL draft, with Yary going first overall.

1972 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"USC's not the number one team in the country. The Miami Dolphins are better."
-- Washington State coach Jim Sweeney.

The 1972 national champions averaged 39 points per game and never trailed in the second half. In going 12-0-0, the Trojans scored 467 points, second most in school history. The defense intercepted 28 passes, limited their opponents to 2.5 yards per rush, and never gave up a run longer than 29 yards.

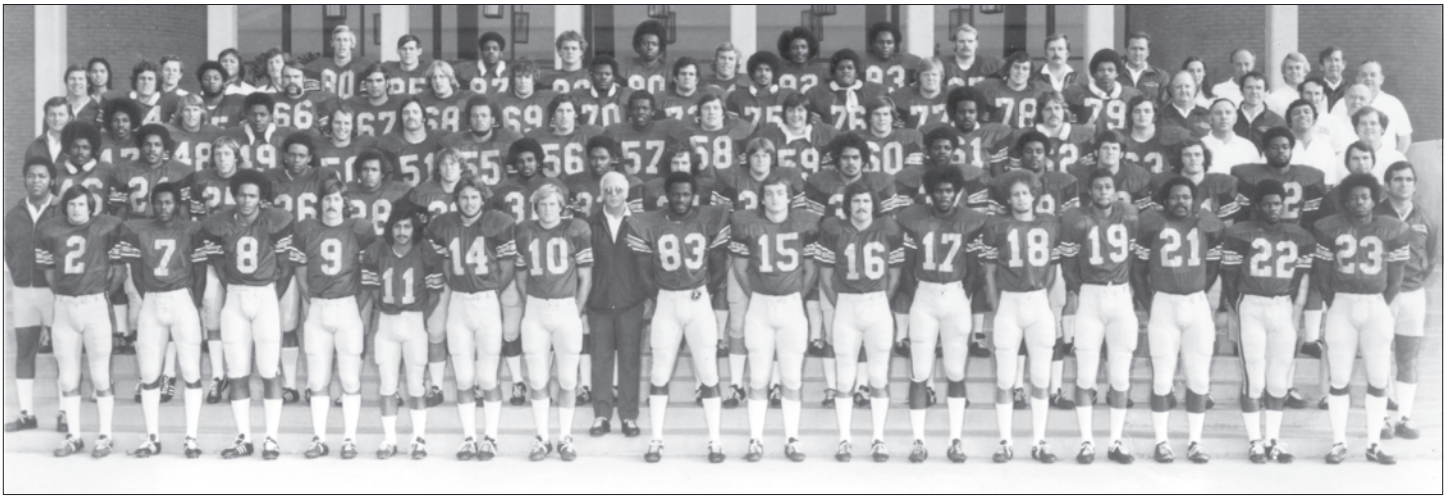
The roster was a perfect blend of talent, youth, and experience. Senior Mike Rae and sophomore Pat Haden handled the quarterback duties. Sophomore Anthony Davis rushed for 1,191 yards despite not starting until the eighth game. All-American fullback Sam "Bam" Cunningham was an outstanding blocker and a tremendous leaper, especially in goal-line situations. Tight end Charles Young was equally adept blocking and receiving, while split ends Lynn Swann, Edesel Garrison and J.K. McKay were excellent pass catchers.

The defense was fast and strong. Sophomore linebacker Richard Wood burst onto the scene with 18 tackles in the season-opener on his way to garnering All-American honors. John Grant and Jeff Winans anchored the defensive line, while Artimus Parker, Charles Phillips and Charles Hinton led the secondary.

USC's smallest margin of victory was nine points (versus Stanford). The Trojans beat No. 4-ranked Arkansas 31-10, No. 18 Washington 34-7, No. 14 UCLA 24-7, No.10 Notre Dame 45-23 and No. 3 Ohio State 42-17. USC was unanimously chosen No. 1 in the final AP and UPI polls, the first team to be so honored.

The 1972 team is considered to be John McKay's finest at USC and one of the greatest college teams of all time.

1974 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



"We turned into madmen."
-- Anthony Davis, after USC came back to beat Notre Dame.

The 1974 team earned John McKay his fourth national title behind the big-play heroics of All-American tailback Anthony Davis, the steady leadership of quarterback Pat Haden and the clutch play of a defense that forced the second-highest interception total in USC history.

Davis, the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, rushed for 1,421 yards and 13 touchdowns. His three-year yardage total of 3,724 yards and 52 touchdowns was a Pac-8 record. He set an NCAA record for most kickoffs returned for TDs in a season (3) and career (6). He scored four touchdowns to lead the Trojans to an amazing 55-24 comeback win over Notre Dame in the regular season finale. In his career, Davis scored 11 touchdowns against the Fighting Irish.

Pat Haden threw 13 touchdown passes, but his biggest completions came with the Trojans trailing Ohio State 17-10 in the 1975 Rose Bowl. His 38-yard TD strike to J.K McKay with two minutes to play and his subsequent 2-point conversion to Shelton Diggs gave USC an 18-17 victory and the writers' share of the national championship.

Senior linebacker Richard Wood, Troy's only three-time All-American, led the defense. Defensive back Charles Phillips set NCAA records for most interception return yardage in a season (302), most interception return yardage in a game (181), highest average gain per interception for one game (90.5), and most touchdowns on interception returns in a season (3).

The win over Notre Dame, dubbed "The Comeback," was sparked by Davis' 102-yard kickoff return to start the second half. Trailing 24-0 late in the second quarter, the Trojans scored 55 unanswered points in just under 17 minutes to win going away.

USC had five players selected to the All-American team for the third consecutive year. A school-record 12 Trojans were selected to the All-Conference squad (since equalled by the 1989 Trojans). Fourteen players from the 1974 team were taken in the NFL draft—an all-time record also shared by the 1976 Trojan team.

1978 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"I don't remember ever playing against a tailback who can run like White."
—Paul 'Bear' Bryant, after witnessing Charles White rush for 199 yards against his Alabama team.

The 1978 national champions, coached by John Robinson, were a USC team stocked with great college players and several future NFL stars.

The Trojans finished 12-1, including a solid 24-14 road victory over co-national champion Alabama, a nail-biting 27-25 win over Notre Dame, and a 17-10 victory over Michigan in the Rose Bowl.

All-American tailback Charles White rushed for 1,859 yards to become the Pac-10 career rushing leader as a junior. Freshman tailback Marcus Allen provided depth. Quarterback Paul McDonald led the conference in passing and tied a USC record with 19 touchdown passes. Fullback Lynn Cain rushed for 977 yards, the most ever by a Trojan fullback. Flanker Kevin Williams had 17 receptions, 10 of them for touchdowns. The offensive line included All-American guard Pat Howell, All-Pac-10 tackle Anthony Munoz (considered by many to be the game's greatest tackle ever) and All-Pac-10 guard Brad Budde (a four-year starter and the 1979 Lombardi Award winner). The back-ups on the line included future All-Pros Roy Foster and Keith Van Horne.

The defense featured the talented safety duo of Dennis Smith and Ronnie Lott. Linebackers Dennis Johnson (the team's tackle leader) and Riki Gray manned the middle, while Larry McGrew and Chip Banks roamed the outside. Rich Dimler, Myron Lapka and Dennis Edwards keyed the defensive line.

The Trojans' only loss was at Arizona State, 20-7. They would remain unbeaten for the next 28 games. USC took the top spot in the coaches poll, but finished second in the writer's poll to Alabama despite beating the Crimson Tide earlier in the season.

2003 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"If you stay with me, I'll take you places you've never been."
—Pete Carroll, at a team meeting to open 2003 fall practice.

After a 25-year hiatus, USC returned to the top of the college football world when it won the 2003 AP national championship.

Head coach Pete Carroll, in just his third year at Troy, guided his Trojans to a 12-1 record and their second consecutive Pac-10 title. USC closed the season by winning its last 9 games, including a dominating victory over No. 4 Michigan in the Rose Bowl. USC scored at least 30 points in 11 consecutive games, including 40 points in 7 in a row (both Pac-10 records), en route to tallying 534 total points (another Pac-10 mark). For just the second time in history, USC swept traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame in consecutive years.

Not many predicted the 2003 team's success. After all, these Trojans had to replace a Heisman Trophy winner (Carson Palmer) and an All-American safety (Troy Polamalu), among others. But Trojans fans got an inkling of the team's potential when USC opened its season at No. 6 Auburn with a 23-0 whitewash. The only loss came in triple overtime at California.

Five players won All-American first team honors: quarterback Matt Leinart, wide receiver Mike Williams, defensive end Kenechi Udeze, offensive tackle Jacob Rogers and punter Tom Malone. Leinart and Williams finished sixth and eighth, respectively, in the Heisman Trophy voting. And Carroll was recognized as the National Coach of the Year.

Leinart, who had never thrown a pass in his USC career before the 2004 campaign, was the Pac-10's Offensive Player of the Year (Stanford's John Elway was the only other sophomore so honored) and set a Pac-10 record with 38 TD passes. Williams, another sophomore, caught 95 passes with a school-record 16 TDs. Udeze tied for the national lead in sacks with 16.5, while soph Malone shattered the USC season punting average record (49.0). Other key contributors were wide receiver Keary Colbert, who became USC's career receptions leader, the rotating tailback threesome of Hershel Dennis, LenDale White (the first true freshman to top Troy in rushing) and Reggie Bush, cornerback Will Poole, center Norm Katnik, defensive tackles Shaun Cody and Mike Patterson, placekicker Ryan Killeen and linebacker Lofa Tatupu.

The Trojan defense topped the nation in rushing defense and was second in turnover margin, forcing 42 turnovers and scoring 8 TDs.

2004 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"USC Leaves No Doubt"
—Los Angeles Daily News headline after USC's Orange Bowl win.

From the start of training camp, the motto for the 2004 USC football team was "Leave No Doubt." The Trojans did just that, winning their second consecutive national championship. And, unlike 2003, this title was undisputed, as USC demolished Oklahoma in the BCS Championship Game in the Orange Bowl, 55-19. Troy went 13-0 overall (a school record for victories, although 2 victories were later vacated due to NCAA penalty) and became just the second team ever to hold the AP No. 1 ranking from pre-season through the entire campaign. It was only the 10th time that a team won back-to-back AP crowns. At 8-0, USC won its third consecutive Pac-10 title. The Trojans swept traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame for an unprecedented third year in a row.

USC concluded the season riding a 22-game winning streak, as well as 21 straight home games, a Pac-10 record 15 consecutive league home games, 15 straight Pac-10 games and 9 road games in a row.

Troy was in the national Top 10 in every defensive statistical category (its total defense average was USC's lowest in 15 years), including first in rushing defense and turnover margin and third in scoring defense. USC outscored opponents by 25.2 points (including a school-record 8 games with a margin of at least 30 points). USC played before 3 home sellouts, 7 regular-season sellouts and 8 season sellouts, all school marks. And Troy set a USC and Pac-10 record for home attendance average, as well as school records for total home attendance, overall attendance average and total overall attendance.

A school-record 6 Trojans (Heisman Trophy quarterback Matt Leinart, Heisman finalist tailback Reggie Bush, defensive linemen Shaun Cody and Mike Patterson, and linebackers Matt Grootegoed and Lofa Tatupu) were named All-American first teamers. Leinart and Bush were named the Pac-10 Co-Offensive Players of the Year, while Cody was the Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year.

USC'S "HISTORY-SHAPING" GAMES

(When USC football reached a milestone in its illustrious history on Oct. 2, 1999, by playing its 1,000th game, former Trojan assistant sports information director Chris Huston wrote the following since-updated story in Troy's game program that day on USC's "most important" games...not necessarily the best games or most dramatic, but those that made USC football what it is today.)

Looking back, who would have thought that a tiny school founded by the Methodist Church would emerge to become one of the top football powers in the country?

There have been so many accomplishments in these 1,000-plus games: 11 national titles, 7 Heisman Trophy winners, 33 Rose Bowls and 154 All-Americans. Trojan football history is packed with heroic moments and legendary names.

The names are etched clearly in our memories: Gloomy Gus. The Thundering Herd. John McKay. Iron Mike. And the famous games still resonate: the twin comebacks versus Notre Dame, the recurring nail-biters against UCLA, the triumphant Rose Bowls.

But what about the "most important" games out of the past 1,000-plus -- the games that helped make USC what it is today? Which games started trends, broke streaks or changed history? Some you'll remember, some you won't. Here are a few of the contests that shaped USC's football history:

1888 - USC 16, Alliance Athletic Club 0 The first game. Who could have imagined how the future would unfold? In those days a touchdown scored four points, while the conversion was worth two points, a field goal five points and a safety scored two. Frank Suffel and Henry Goddard were the playing coaches for this first team.

1905 - Stanford 16, USC 0 This was USC's first game ever against major college competition. Prior to this, USC had played Southland colleges, high schools, academies and athletic clubs and had rivalry games with Pomona and Occidental. Stanford, however, was big-time on the gridiron long before USC was. The Stanford-Cal game annually made bigger headlines, even in Los Angeles, than any USC game. USC fans looked forward to this game all year and the Trojans managed to hold their own on a dreary day in Palo Alto, but the result was a shutout loss. Significantly, USC did not play another major opponent in college football for nine years after this Stanford loss.

1924 - California 7, USC 0 Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson's undefeated Trojans met Andy Smith's undefeated Bears before 60,000 in USC's first appearance at Memorial Stadium in Berkeley. Jim Dixon scored the game's only touchdown on a 12-yard run around left end in the second quarter. USC's loss pushed its record against Cal to 1-8-1. The pressure from the alumni for Henderson's ouster grew intense, and after an upset loss to St. Mary's the next week, the decision was made to buy out Gloomy Gus' contract at the end of the year. The way was thus cleared for the arrival of Howard Jones, arguably Troy's greatest head coach.

1925 - Nebraska 17, Notre Dame 0 The greatest intersectional college football rivalry--USC versus Notre Dame--might never have commenced but for this game. USC was looking for a national rival and dispatched graduate manager Gwynn Wilson (akin to the modern day athletic director) and his wife to Lincoln, where Notre Dame was playing Nebraska on Thanksgiving Day. Knute Rockne was cool to the idea of a home-and-home series with USC because of the travel involved, but Mrs. Wilson was able to persuade Mrs. Rockne that a trip every two years to sunny Southern California was better than one to snowy, hostile Nebraska. Mrs. Rockne spoke to her husband and shortly thereafter Notre Dame became an annual fixture on USC's schedule.

1928 - USC 10, Stanford 0 Howard Jones had not beaten Glenn "Pop" Warner's Stanford Indians in three tries until his Thundering Herd did it before 80,000 at the Coliseum this year. The legendary Warner considered this Stanford team to be his best, but they lost five turnovers to USC that day. Stanford's 10-pound per-man weight advantage was offset by the Trojans' "quick-mix" defense and a speedy backfield comprised of Don Williams, Russ Saunders and Marshall Duffield. This was a landmark game as it signaled Troy's emergence as the preeminent power on the West Coast. USC went on to win its first national title that season and Jones never lost to Warner again.

1931 - USC 16, Notre Dame 14 This game captured the imagination of football fans everywhere--and the hearts of the citizens of Los Angeles. More than 300,000 fans welcomed the Trojans home from this thrilling victory in South Bend--a victory clinched by what sportswriter Maxwell Stiles called "Johnny Baker's 10 little toes and three BIG points." USC trailed 14-0 at the outset of the final stanza, but stormed back behind the running of Gus Shaver and the passing of Orv Mohler. Baker's 33-yard field goal with one minute remaining made the difference. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten string and was the Trojans' first win in South Bend. Called "...the biggest upset since Mrs. O'Leary's cow knocked over that lantern" by El Rodeo, Troy's student yearbook, it clinched USC's second national title and firmly established the Trojans as a national power.

1944 - USC 38, Washington 7 This was USC's first home night game in the Coliseum. The game program reported: "This may well be the one and only Coliseum night game in Trojan varsity football history." That year, Washington was under wartime travel restrictions and was forced to schedule two California games in seven days. A schedule conflict resulted and an exception had to be made to USC's longstanding policy of playing Saturday afternoons. The game was a success. The attendance of 62,865 was USC's largest for a home game that year. As a result, home night games became a regular part of the USC schedule.

1956 - USC 44, Texas 20 In 1925, guard Brice Taylor, an African-American, was named USC's first All-American. It would be about 30 years before another black man made his mark on Trojan football. Fullback C.R. Roberts was that man. He rumbled for 251 yards versus Texas, setting the USC single-game rushing record in the process. The record stood for 20 years. It was sweet redemption for Roberts and his teammates. The game was played in Austin and the hotel the Trojans had booked was segregated. Head Coach Jess Hill moved his team to a lodging that was integrated and the Trojans seemed to take it out on the Longhorns on game day.

1959 - Notre Dame 16, USC 6 This was the last game played between the two teams in South Bend in November. The freezing cold affected the Trojans so much that Athletic Director Jess Hill proposed moving USC's games at Notre Dame Stadium to October, while continuing to play the Coliseum games in late November. Notre Dame agreed and it has been that way ever since.

1961 - Iowa 35, USC 34 The Hawkeyes came into this game ranked No. 1 in the country. The Trojans, in their first season using John McKay's I-formation, were struggling. The critics in the press box said the "I" stood for "incompetent," "intolerable" and "ineffective." But on this day, after falling behind 21-0, USC exploded for 34 points and lost only in the last minute, 35-34. The Trojans totaled 220 yards on the ground and 156 in the air. For the first time, the I-formation proved its worth. Soon, USC and John McKay became synonymous with this tailback-led rushing attack.

1967 - USC 24, Notre Dame 7 The 1967 USC-UCLA game is the game everyone remembers from this season, but it never would have had the same importance if the Trojans hadn't first defeated defending national champion and No. 5 Notre Dame on a sunny October day in South Bend. The previous year, the Irish handed the Trojans their worst defeat ever, 51-0, and despite USC's No.1 rank in the 1967 polls, Notre Dame was a heavy favorite. Weighing heavy on the oddsmakers' minds was the fact that USC had not won in South Bend since 1939 (it didn't matter much to them that McKay, after the '66 debacle, vowed never to lose to the Irish again). It was on this day that most of the country first heard of a tailback named O.J. Simpson. The junior from San Francisco rushed for 160 yards on 38 carries and tacked on all three USC touchdowns. A tenacious Trojan defense intercepted seven passes (four by a true Irishman, Adrian Young) and recovered two fumbles. USC trailed at the half, 7-0, but roared back in the second half to win the game. The victory solidified Troy's place at the top of the final rankings.

1970 - USC 42, Alabama 21 It's a rare feat when a football game helps to change societal attitudes. The 1970 USC win over Alabama may have done just that. The Trojans traveled to Birmingham where they faced an all-white Crimson Tide team coached by Paul "Bear" Bryant. Thanks to dominating performances for USC by a trio of African-Americans (Sam Cunningham, Clarence Davis and Jimmy Jones), Bryant was convinced that he needed to recruit black players for his program. The rest of the Southeastern Conference soon followed suit and opportunities for black athletes in the South began to improve tremendously. Bryant was so impressed by Cunningham (who had 135 yards and two touchdowns on just 12 carries) that he invited the sophomore fullback into the 'Bama locker room after the game. He brought his players to Cunningham one-by-one and introduced him, saying: "This is what a football player looks like."

1996 - USC 27, Notre Dame 20 At long last, after 13 years of futility, the Trojans defeated the Irish. In what seemed the unlikeliest of streaks, USC had found every possible way to not defeat Notre Dame. And in what seemed like the unlikeliest of days for it to happen, Troy finally ended that streak. USC was struggling at 5-6 after a wild double-overtime loss to UCLA the previous week while Notre Dame was standing tall with an 8-2 record and a New Year's Day bowl bid in the works. The Trojans somehow managed to stay in the game despite playing without starting quarterback Brad Otton for large chunks of regulation, as he was bothered by an injury. When Notre Dame scored a touchdown to go ahead 20-12 (with the PAT pending) in the fourth quarter, things looked bleak for USC. But Irish kicker Jim Sanson shanked the extra point and the margin stayed at eight. The Trojans responded with an eight-play, 67-yard drive culminating in Delon Washington's 15-yard touchdown scamper. Washington also ran in the two-point conversion and the score was knotted at 20. Neither team could score before the end of regulation and overtime ensued. On USC's first drive, Otton hit Rodney Sermons with a five-yard touchdown pass and the Trojans went ahead for the first time, 27-20. Jubilation erupted in the Coliseum when Mark Cusano then batted down Ron Powlus' fourth-down pass and the streak ended.

2001 - USC 27, UCLA 0 This game was the regular season finale of the 2001 season, but it exemplified the attitude and style that first-year head coach Pete Carroll brought to Trojan football. The message sent that day was clear: Nothing beats a great defense. Furthermore, the game signalled a sea-change in the L.A. sports scene as USC under Carroll was increasingly viewed as the healthiest program in town. There was nothing complicated about the contest. The Trojan offense hit on a couple big plays—namely, a 66-yard catch-and-run by tight end Kori Dickerson off a Carson Palmer aerial and a 34-yard touchdown run by tailback Chris Howard. But USC managed just 276 yards of total offense and 12 first downs. However, the Trojan defense was spectacular, holding UCLA to a paltry 114 yards and 10 first downs. USC picked off three UCLA passes, including an amazing between-the-legs snatch by cornerback Antuan Simmons which he returned 36 yards for a touchdown. It was USC's first shutout of UCLA since 1947. While the Trojans would later stumble in the Las Vegas Bowl, it was clear that something special was starting to go on at Troy.

USC'S HISTORY-SHAPING GAMES

2002 - USC 44, Notre Dame 13 While the 2001 UCLA game was about re-establishing USC in Los Angeles, the 2002 Notre Dame game was about re-establishing USC on a national level. The Trojans had not played in such a high-stakes game since the 1988 No. 1 vs. No. 2 showdown against the Irish—a bitter 27-10 loss. On this day, three important things happened for USC. First, the Trojans clinched their first-ever BCS bowl berth. Second, they completed their first season sweep of UCLA and Notre Dame since 1981 and, probably most important of all, Trojan quarterback Carson Palmer showed the nation why he deserved to be named USC's fifth Heisman Trophy winner. Through it all, Troy put another feather in the cap of what would become its most magical and successful season since 1979. A capacity crowd and a near-national television audience saw first-hand the magnificent "Carson Show," as USC's senior quarterback threw for 425 yards and four touchdowns—both Notre Dame opponent records. What's more, he led the Trojan offense to 610 total yards—again, the most yards ever against the Irish. While there were a couple nail-biting moments for USC fans in the second quarter as Notre Dame briefly took a 13-10 lead, Palmer allayed those fears by leading a masterful 75-yard drive that took just over a minute and culminated in a pass that sailed over the outstretched hands of two Irish defenders and into the waiting arms of Mike Williams for a 19-yard touchdown. Hence, the Trojans sprinted into the locker room with a 17-13 lead and never looked back in the second half on their way to scoring the most points against the Irish by a USC team since 1974's legendary 55-24 onslaught. The jubilant looks on the faces of the Trojan coaches, players and fans afterwards—as well as the sight of the future Heisman winner holding aloft the Shillelagh—said it all: USC was back.

Other "important" games in Trojan history

1939 Rose Bowl - USC 7, Duke 3 (Duke was unbeaten, unscored upon until this game)
1951 - Notre Dame 19, USC 12 (USC's first appearance on national television)
1953 Rose Bowl - USC 7, Wisconsin 0 (breaks Big Ten Rose Bowl win streak)
1964 - USC 20, Notre Dame 17 (Fertig to Sherman shocks the No. 1 Irish)
1974 - USC 55, Notre Dame 24 (The Comeback--enough said)
1975 Rose Bowl - USC 18, Ohio State 17 (Haden to McKay and then Diggs for the national title)
1978 - USC 24, Alabama 14 (key game in the national title season)
1983 - Washington 24, USC 0 (first shutout of USC in 187 games, a then-NCAA record)
2004 Rose Bowl - USC 28, Michigan 14 (despite being snubbed from the BCS Championship Game in the Sugar Bowl, USC dominates Michigan to win its first national championship in 25 years)
2005 Orange Bowl - USC 55, Oklahoma 19 (USC puts on an overwhelming display of power in its first-ever appearance in the BCS Championship Game, although the win was later vacated due to NCAA penalty)

USC'S ALL-AMERICANS

The following is a complete listing of all USC football players who have ever received first team All-American honors. Although there are numerous teams selected throughout the country, the NCAA now recognizes only five in determining whether a player is a unanimous or consensus choice--AP, Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association, the Walter Camp Foundation and The Sporting News.

From 1962 to 1990, USC had at least one first team All-American every year. From 1972 to 1987, there was at least one consensus All-American Trojan every year. Also, there have been 29 first team All-American Trojan offensive linemen since 1964.

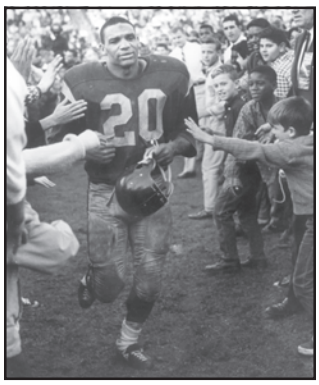
USC HEISMAN SALUTE

MIKE GARRETT — 1965



Two-time All-American Mike Garrett was the man who began the great legacy of USC's I-formation tailbacks.

He was the Trojans' first — and only the West Coast's second — Heisman winner when he whipped an outstanding field of candidates in 1965.

Mike set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his three-year career, including an NCAA career rushing record of 3,221 yards in the days when 1,000-yard-a-season rushers were almost non-existent. He later starred for the Kansas City Chiefs and San Diego Chargers.

O.J. SIMPSON — 1968

O.J. Simpson became USC's second Heisman Trophy winner in 1968 when he captured the award by the most one-sided margin in history.

During the regular 1968 season, O.J. established an NCAA record for yards rushing — 1,709 — in a single season (since bettered). A two-time unanimous All-American, he equaled or bettered 19 NCAA, conference and USC records.

A December 1998 SPORT magazine ranking listed him among the Top 10 college football players of the 20th century.

Simpson also held the NFL single season rushing record of 2,003 yards set in 1973 and finished his 11-year pro career as the second leading NFL career rusher.

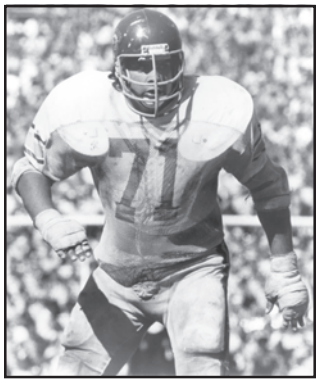
LOMBARDI AWARD

BRAD BUDDE — 1979



In 1979, offensive guard Brad Budde became USC's first recipient of the coveted Lombardi Award, given to the nation's top college lineman who also "best exemplifies the discipline of Vince Lombardi."

Budde was a unanimous All-American as a senior and was also runnerup in the Outland Trophy voting. A four-year starter at Troy, he was the first freshman to start a USC season opener since World War II.

The son of ex-Kansas City Chiefs' All-Pro Ed Budde, Brad followed his father there as the Chiefs' first- round draft pick in 1980.

Playboy Pre-Season All-Americans

USC has landed more players on the prestigious Playboy Magazine pre-season college All-American football team than any other university. Since Playboy first picked a team in 1957, there have been 75 Trojan players selected, as well as 2 Coaches of the Year and 1 Scholar-Athlete. Next with 49 selections is Michigan, followed by Oklahoma with 44 (plus 3 Coaches of the Year), Notre Dame with 42 (plus 1 Coach of the Year) and Nebraska with 37 (plus 2 Coaches of the Year and 1 Scholar-Athlete). During a 16-year period (1972 through 1987), at least 1 Trojan player was selected annually to the Playboy squad. On 7 different occasions (1970-76-79-80-2004-05-08), 3 USC players made that year's Playboy team. USC's Tony Boselli, who was selected in 1992-93-94, was the first 3-time Playboy selection from any school.

ALL-TIME LETTERWINNERS

Various standards have been used to determine USC letterwinners over the years, but since 1976, squad members who have played at least 30 minutes have been listed here as lettermen. There have been many exceptions to that rule, including kickers and others who contributed significantly to the team's success without playing 30 minutes.

In addition, senior squad members who have been on the team for several years have generally been awarded letters for their senior season, as long as they appeared in at least one game. This has been a long-standing policy.

The list is confined to lettermen who actually played on USC's varsity teams of American Rules Football, and does not include individuals who lettered only in rugby.

Positions, heights, and weights are generally those listed in USC publications and other sources in the player's final letterwinning year. Positions are primarily listed in the terminology of the era in which the letterwinner played. "Hometowns" by longstanding custom are usually the places from which players came to USC, and are located in California unless noted. Parenthetical notations contain a letterwinner's high school, and junior or senior college, attended before USC, where known, and are in the state of the letterman's hometown, unless noted. This list was expanded by Michael J. Glenn (with input from Gary Wright). USC appreciates their invaluable efforts.

A Note on USC's Records

The records material on these pages has been compiled from a number of sources. Although official national individual records commenced only in 1937 (nearly 50 years after USC's first team), USC's game-by-game records generally extend back to the mid-1920s. Newspaper accounts of individual games, including some extraordinary individual performances, date back to 1889. Unfortunately, for some games in USC's first 20 years, only the final result has survived to the present.

These records have been compiled by USC's Sports Information Office (previously known as the Athletic News Service). Special mention should be made of the efforts of Tom Lawless, Dick Nash, Harley Tinkham, Chuck Weinstock, Al Wesson, Deke Houlgate, H.D. Thoreau and Mike Glenn, as well as Benny Artiaga, Nick Schenck, Gabriel Alvarez, Meghan McElroy, Michelle Laug and Robbie Ellison.

Doubleheaders played by USC in 1925, 1933 and 1934 are considered as one game for purposes of this list

* - USC Record  - USC and Pac-10 Record

# - Excludes first 3 games + - Excludes Pomona game

Between 1888 and 1921, an estimated 500,000-plus people attended home and away USC games.

The largest single-game crowd in USC history was the estimated 120,000 at Soldier Field in Chicago for the 1927 USC-Notre Dame game. The largest USC home crowd was 104,953 for the 1947 USC-Notre Dame game in the Coliseum. The largest USC post-season bowl game crowd was 106,869 at the 1973 Rose Bowl in Pasadena (USC versus Ohio State), which is an NCAA bowl game record.

In all, USC has played before at least 55,955,128 people since it first started playing football in 1888.

Jim Farrell of Long Beach, Calif., became the 50 millionth fan to see a USC football game, home and away, when he came through the Coliseum gates at the 2004 USC-Arizona State home game.

In 1988, USC not only set a since-broken school record for home attendance average per game (76,063, which ranked eighth best in the nation), but Troy also registered the greatest increase in average home attendance of any school in the nation that year (up 22,416 per game over 1987). That increase was 7,996 more than the next closest school.

USC ON TELEVISION

USC's football team — perhaps the true "America's Team" — has appeared on live national, regional or local telecasts 412 times over the years. USC's overall record while playing on live television is 278-125-9. (Two wins in 2004 and 12 wins in 2005 were later vacated due to NCAA penalty; revised records: 256-116-9 overall.) Entering the 2011 season, 278 of USC's past 280 games were on some form of live TV, including the last 119 contests (a school record). USC also had a streak of 111 consecutive games on some form of live television (from the 1988 Oregon State game through the 1997 Stanford game) and another streak of 48 consecutive live telecasts (from the 1997 UCLA game through the 2001 Oregon State game). USC set a national record in 1987 by appearing on 6 live national regular-season network telecasts.

Trojan games have always been among the top — if not the top — attractions among live televised college football games. In fact, over the 10-year period from 1972 to 1981, USC posted the highest average television rating of any school, according to figures released by the NCAA which were compiled by the A.C. Nielsen Co. rating service. During that span, USC averaged a 15.6 rating on its 24 live regular-season ABC national and regional telecasts. A rating indicates the percentage of all U.S. households that are tuned to a game. Currently, each rating point equals 1% of the nation's 110 million TV households. A 10.0 rating is considered above average.

In a December 1988 ranking by Sports Inc., the USC-Notre Dame game recorded 5 of the 12 all-time highest college football TV ratings. The 1968 USC-ND encounter was the highest rated college football telecast ever (22.9 rating). The other USC-ND clashes in the top 12 include 1970-74-72-64.

Of the 12 highest rated games ever, according to Sports Inc., USC was involved in more than any other school: 7 (besides those 5 Notre Dame games, the others were the UCLA encounters of 1973 and 1967). Incidentally, USC was 6-0-1 in those games.

As further proof of USC's television appeal, Sports Inc. listed Troy as the top drawing team from 1974 to 1983 (the 10 years prior to the U.S. Supreme Court ruling which deregulated the TV marketplace) with an average rating of 14.49 on 24 telecasts (more than a full rating point higher than No. 2 Notre Dame). After deregulation (from 1984 to 1989) and with the proliferation of telecasts, USC was still in the Top 10, ranking ninth with a 6.07 average rating on 25 appearances (less than 2 points behind the leader).

Below is a list of the USC football team's appearances on live television. Listed along with the year and the opponent are the score; the network, syndicator or station that televised the contest; whether the telecast was national, regional or local; and, if available, the Nielsen rating. An asterisk (*) indicates a home game. USC was not eligible to appear on live television in the 1983 and 1985 regular seasons because of an NCAA ban.

TROJANS IN THE NFL

With its outstanding football heritage, it's no surprise that USC players have made quite a mark in the pros.

At the start of training camp this summer, there were 55 ex-Trojans on National Football League rosters, including 9 rookies. In fact, USC players were on the rosters of 26 of the NFL's 32 teams. Most of the Trojans were offensive linemen (10), defensive linemen (9), linebackers (8), defensive backs (7), running backs (7) and wide receivers (5).

In 2009, there were 36 Trojans on opening day NFL rosters; only 2 universities had more players (since records were available, USC has been No. 1 in 17 of the last 35 years). The Trojans' 4 quarterbacks were more than any other school.

USC has produced more NFL draft picks (473) than any school (Notre Dame is next with 467), along with 28 picks by the AFL before it merged with the NFL. There have been 446 USC players who since 1920 played in the NFL (or its sister leagues, the AFL or All-America Football Conference).

USC has had more first round NFL draft picks (75) than any school (Ohio State is next with 69). USC is tied with Notre Dame for most players (5) selected as the top pick of the NFL draft (Ron Yary in 1968, O.J. Simpson in 1969, Ricky Bell in 1977, Keyshawn Johnson in 1996 and Carson Palmer in 2003). USC is the only school to have the No. 1 pick for 2 consecutive years (Yary and Simpson). USC has had three of the most highly-drafted classes in history. The 1953 class (following the 1952 season) had 15 players drafted while both the 1975 and 1977 classes had 14 players selected. USC had more players selected in the 2011 (9), 2009 (11), 2008 (10), 2006 (11) and 1990 (10) drafts than any school. USC's 12 first round picks in the 1990s tied for third most in the nation with Tennessee; 8 of those Trojan first rounders were selected in the Top 10. In the decade of the 1980s, Troy had more first round picks than any school (16). USC's 5 first round picks in the 1968 draft was an NFL record that lasted 36 years.

A Trojan has appeared in all but 3 of the 45 Super Bowls (there have been 104 USC representatives overall). Two Trojans (Lynn Swann in 1976 and Marcus Allen in 1984) have been the Super Bowl MVP. In 1977, 9 USC alums played in the Super Bowl. Trojans have been selected to play in the Pro Bowl 213 times.

Eleven former USC players (more than any other school) and 3 ex-assistant coaches are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

A 2010 ESPN.com survey ranked USC as "the most fertile NFL draft pipeline" from 1979 to 2009. In 2010, Lindy's Sports listed USC as the "football factory" for quarterbacks, running backs and offensive linemen.

In 2009, ESPN NFL draft analyst and former NFL head coach Herm Edwards said: "If you want to play pro football and you're a young high school athlete, you know going to USC is going to give you the best opportunity system-wise and competitive-wise on the field. That's what USC brings to the table. That's why historically, year after year, you see all these players coming into the league."

Fellow ESPN NFL draft analyst and ex-NFL quarterback Ron Jaworski added: "It's fierce competition every day you go out on the USC practice field. Not only on Saturday when they play the game. Every day they're competing at the highest level."

In 2008, the NFL Network selected USC as the No. 1 "football factory" in college football.

Anthony Munoz and Ronnie Lott were selected on the NFL's All-Time Team in August 2000, as chosen by the 36 Pro Football Hall of Fame voters.

A December 1999 story in The Sporting News listed 4 Trojans among the 100 Greatest Pro Football Players: Anthony Munoz (17th), Ronnie Lott (23rd), O.J. Simpson (26th) and Marcus Allen (72nd).

Anthony Munoz was picked among the NFL's Top 10 players of the 20th century by SPORT in 1999.

In December 1999, the Dick Butkus Football Network named a pair of ex-Trojans on its NFL All-Century First Team: Anthony Munoz and Ronnie Lott.

A January 1999 article in ESPN Magazine said that "one of the best ways to win a Super Bowl is to (have a USC player on the team). The alma mater most often represented on winning teams is USC."

A Dec. 13, 1999 article in the San Diego Union-Tribune, which examined Pro Bowl selections since 1950 to determine the schools that have supplied the most pro players at various positions, found that USC had the most Pro Bowl selections and produced more Pro Bowl running backs and safeties than anyone.

A May 1999 SPORT magazine article pointed out that USC sent more players to the Pro Bowl in the 1990s (14) than any other school. "The most measurable sign of a player's success--and thus his pedigree--comes in the form of the NFL's highest annual honor: the Pro Bowl. It's not enough to make it to the league, you've gotta make it in the league." In the article, then-New York Jets Pro Bowl wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson, the former USC All-American, said: "USC is a football factory. Every kid in L.A. grows up wanting to play there, and the coaches know how to translate that into elite athletes."

In a Dec. 1994 College Sports magazine ranking of the schools which have been the top sources over the years of football talent by position (on a combined college and NFL level), USC was listed first at running backs, offensive linemen and defensive backs, and third at linebackers.

In a 1985 Sports Illustrated poll of NFL player personnel directors, USC was ranked first overall among all schools in preparing players for the pros. By position, USC received top marks for running backs, offensive linemen and tight ends.

TROJANS IN THE NFL DRAFT

Listing includes NFL drafts from 1936-2011 (which followed the 1935-2010 collegiate seasons). From 1960-1966, both the NFL and AFL had drafts and this listing includes both drafts because the AFL later merged with the NFL. (F) indicates "future selection," based on an old NFL rule prior to 1967 in which a player could be chosen if his class had graduated, even if he hadn't completed his eligibility (he could be drafted after his fourth year and his rights would remain with the team which selected him even if he didn't sign for a year). The AFL held a separate "redshirt" (or futures) draft in 1965-1966 and it is also included in this listing.

First round draft picks are listed in CAPITAL LETTERS. The "overall draft selection" figures were not available for the 1960 to 1966 AFL drafts, however players are listed in correct order of selection in those years (also, no round-by-round records were available for the 1960 AFL draft). The positions listed are those projected by the pros at the time of selection.

List compiled with the assistance of Beau Riffenburgh, NFL Properties.

	(Note: Hoffman's selection was later declared void because he still had eligibility remaining. However, he was picked again by the Redskins in 1940.)

TROJAN TRIVIA

AFTER TIES — USC is 36-14-4 in games immediately following a tie. The Trojans have won the last 13 contests they played after a tie, dating to 1968.

ARTIFICIAL TURF — USC is 30-16-1 in its last 47 games on artificial turf (3 wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty; revised record: 27-16-1).

AUGUST RECORD — USC has a 6-2 (.750) all-time record while playing in the month of August.

BIG TEN COMPETITION — USC has won 32 of its last 40 games (and 39 of its last 48) against Big Ten opponents. USC has twice played 3 consecutive games against Big Ten teams: Northwestern in the 1996 Rose Bowl, then Penn State and Illinois in 1996, and Indiana in the 1968 Rose Bowl, then Minnesota and Northwestern in 1968. There have been 5 times (1962-68-72-76-89) when USC has faced 3 Big Ten teams during a single season, but not consecutively.

BCS BOWLS — USC appeared in an unprecedented 7 consecutive BCS bowls (2003 Orange, 2004 Rose, 2005 Orange, 2006-07-08-09 Rose). USC's 7 overall BCS bowl trips are third most, behind Ohio State's 9 and Oklahoma's 8. USC's 6 BCS bowl victories are tied with Ohio State for most of any school (2 appearances and 1 win were later vacated due to NCAA penalty).

BOUNCE BACK — USC has had back-to-back non-winning seasons just 13 times in its 118-year history, most recently in 2000 and 2001.

CHRISTMAS — USC has played 6 games on Christmas Day, going 3-3: in 1897 (18-0 loss at San Diego YMCA), 1907 (16-6 loss to Los Angeles High School), 1918 (10-0 win over Redlands), 1924 (20-7 post-season win over Missouri in the Christmas Festival), 1934 (33-7 win at Kamehameha High School Alumni) and 2001 (10-6 loss to Utah in the Las Vegas Bowl).

DAY HOME GAMES — USC played only 1 home day game 5 times (1894, 1889, 1906, 2006 and 2010). There were also 2 neutral site day games in Los Angeles in 1906. In 1901, USC didn't play any home games.

DECEMBER GAMES — USC has a 41-24-7 (.618) all-time record while playing in the month of December (2 wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty; revised record: 39-24-7, .607).

DIAMONDS — USC has a 31-18-2 record since 1935 in stadiums in years that they also served as baseball fields. USC's most recent football games in such a stadium were the 2003 and 2005 Orange Bowls in Pro Player Stadium in Miami (beating Iowa and Oklahoma, respectively), 2005 and 2010 wins over Hawaii in Honolulu's Aloha Stadium (the Trojans also beat Hawaii there in 1978 and 1999 and lost to Auburn in the 1985 Aloha Bowl) and a win over Boston College in the 2009 Emerald Bowl in AT&T Park (when both teams were on the same sideline because of the field configuration), although the infield skin was covered with some form of grass for those games. (Note: The 2005 Orange Bowl and 2005 Hawaii wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty.) During 1992 and 1993, USC played 4 games in stadiums with a baseball field: Troy opened 1992 in Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego (tying San Diego State), then played in Anaheim Stadium in the 1992 Freedom Bowl (loss to Fresno State), 1993 Disneyland Pigskin Classic (loss to North Carolina) and 1993 Freedom Bowl (win over Utah). USC played 3 times in domed stadiums that doubled as baseball venues: beating Washington State in Seattle's Kingdome in 1976, Texas A&M in the 1977 Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston's Astrodome and Houston in the Astrodome in 1996. From 1958 to 1961, the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (Troy's home stadium) also was home to the Los Angeles Dodgers (USC was 13-11-1 there in that span). USC played 5 games in Portland's Multnomah Stadium after it was reconfigured to accommodate baseball in 1956, facing Oregon (losses in 1956 and 1958) and Oregon State (wins in 1959and 1966 and a loss in 1957). USC also beat Army in New York City's Yankee Stadium in 1951 and lost to Navy in Baltimore's Memorial Stadium in 1950. USC posted a pair of 1935 wins in Honolulu Stadium (over Kamehameha High Alumni and Hawaii). In its early days, USC played a number of games on campus at Bovard Field, where the Trojans also played baseball (USC went 45-6-3 there from 1904 to 1923). USC also played several games at venues in Los Angeles that were primarily used for baseball: at Athletic Park (going 0-3-1 from 1895 to 1898), the first Washington Park/Chutes Park (0-1-1 in 1900), the second Washington Park (0-2 in 1915 and 0-1 in 1917) and Prager Park (4-2 in 1903).

DOMES — USC is 3-0 inside domed stadiums, beating Washington State in Seattle's Kingdome in 1976, Texas A&M in the 1977 Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston's Astrodome, and Houston in the Astrodome in 1996.

EARLY BIRDS — USC's Aug. 25 opener in 1996 was the earliest its season has opened in the modern era. (The earliest USC's season has ended was Nov. 13, 1909.) USC's latest season opener was Dec. 7, 1901 and its latest home opener was Dec. 14, 1918 (USC didn't play any home games in 1900 or 1901).

ESPN GAMEDAY — ESPN's popular College GameDay pre-game show has made 7 visits to the Coliseum (2004 California and Notre Dame, 2005 UCLA, 2006 Nebraska and Notre Dame, 2008 Ohio State, 2010 Oregon games).

4-POINT GAMES — The 2010 season was the first season that USC had 6 games decided by 4 points or less.

5-POINT LOSSES — The 2001 season was the first time that USC lost 5 games all by 5 points or less.

GOLDEN GRIDDERS — Two football lettermen have won Olympic gold medals: Fred Kelly (1914,15,16) in the high hurdles in the 1912 Games (he is USC's first gold medalist) and Ken Carpenter (1934,37) in the discus in the 1936 Games. Although 2-time gold medalist Quincy Watts (400 meters and 1600 meter relay in the 1992 Olympics) never lettered in football, he was a receiver on the 1990 Trojans (he didn't get into a game).

GOOD BYES — USC is 92-45-4 in all regular season games it has played following byes. Since 1955, the Trojans are 53-16-1 following byes (6 of those losses and the tie were to UCLA). (Two wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty; revised records: 90-44-4 overall, 51-16-1 since 1955.) USC had 3 regular-season byes in 1996, 2003, 2004 and 2005, the first time that had happened since 1935.

GRID/HOOPS — USC is 11-7-1 against schools that won the NCAA men's basketball title the previous year.

HOLLYWOOD TROJANS — Among the USC footballers who gained fame on the silver screen are: John Wayne (a tackle in 1925-26 under his real name, Marion Morrison), Ward Bond (a 1928-30 letterman best known for his role in "Wagon Train"), Mike Henry (a tackle from 1956-58 played Tarzan), Marlin and Mike McKeever (the 1959 All-American twins were in several movies), Tim Rossovich (a 1967 All-American defensive end was in various movies), O.J. Simpson (the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner starred in TV and motion pictures), Anthony Davis (the 1974 All-American tailback was in movies), Patrick Muldoon (a walk-on tight end in the mid-1980s starred in soaps, including "Melrose Place," and films, including "Starship Trooper"), Brian Turk (a lineman in the late 1980s appeared in various TV sitcoms and commercials), Mazio Royster (the 1990-91 tailback was in TV commercials and shows), Shane Foley (the quarterback who lettered in 1989-90 was in TV commericals), Matt Willig (a 1988-91 lineman has been in TV and movies), Nick Pappas (the ex-USC player, assistant coach and assistant athletic director doubled for Pat O'Brien as Knute Rockne in the football scenes of "Knute Rockne — All-American") and John Walker (a 2002-05 cornerback appeared on such TV shows as "E.R." and "7th Heaven" as a child). Also, Irvine "Cotton" Warburton (an All-American back in 1933) won an Oscar for film editing on "Mary Poppins," Aaron Rosenberg (a 2-time All-American guard in 1932-33) was a well-known TV and movie producer, Jess Hibbs (a 2-time All-American tackle in 1927-28) was a prominent film and TV director, Nate Barragar (1929 All-American lineman) and Russ Saunders (1927-28-29 fullback) were assistant directors, Mickey McCardle (a halfback in the 1940s) was a distinguished TV and movie director, and Ken Del Conte (a halfback in the early 1960s) was a producer. Allan Graf (an offensive guard in the early 1970s) is a stunt man and second unit director. Producers Hilton Green (a team manager) and Barney Rosenzweig (a Yell Leader) were associated with Trojan football.

HOMECOMING — USC has a 57-26-4 record in its Homecoming games, dating back to the first such event in 1924 (1 win was later vacated due to NCAA penalty; revised record: 56-26-4).

HOME JERSEYS — USC wore its home cardinal jerseys for the 2000 Kickoff Classic against Penn State (even though Troy was the visiting team) and for its 1999 game at Hawaii (at the request of the Rainbows). Before that, the last time USC wore cardinal in an opponent's stadium was against UCLA in the Rose Bowl in 1982. By the way, the last time USC wore its road white jerseys at the Coliseum was the 1960 Georgia game, because the Bulldogs only had red jerseys then (USC also wore white jerseys at home on a regular basis during the 1930s).

HOME JERSEYS VS. UCLA — For the first time since 1982, both USC and UCLA wore their home jerseys in the 2008 crosstown rivalry game (it was UCLA's home game in the Rose Bowl). Per an NCAA football-playing rule, because the Trojans were not in their white road jerseys, they were charged with a timeout at the opening kickoff. UCLA responded by calling a timeout immediately after to even things up. The teams again both wore home jerseys in 2009 (that rule was repealed, so there was no consequence). The tradition of USC in its cardinal jerseys and UCLA in its blue jerseys, regardless of whose home game it was, went on from 1949 to 1951 and then 1957 through 1982 before an NCAA football rules change required the visiting team to wear white. That rule was no longer in effect beginning in 2009, so USC again wore its home jersey in the 2010 UCLA game in the Rose Bowl.

IMPROVEMENT — USC's best one-season improvement of its record was +6, as the 1962 national champion Trojans went from 4-5-1 in 1961 to 11-0.

RADIO — USC home football games were first regularly-aired live on Los Angeles radio in 1927, and possibly as early as 1926 (with Bill Henry announcing on KHJ, Glen Rice on KNX, Bert Heller on KPLA and Carl Havelin on KFI). Reports that USC's 1923 Rose Bowl game against Penn State was broadcast in L.A. (on KHJ) indicate the broadcast was a re-creation, not live.

SAME STADIUM — USC's 1992 season finale and its 1993 opener, both in Anaheim Stadium, marked the first time that Troy played 2 straight games in the same stadium (besides the Coliseum) since 1935, when it played Kamehamaha High's Alumni and the University of Hawai'i in the same Honolulu location. In 1922, the Trojans played 3 straight games (versus Idaho and Washington and then Penn State in the 1923 Rose Bowl) in what was then called Tournament of Roses Stadium. USC also played consecutive games in the Rose Bowl stadium in 2006 (versus UCLA and the 2007 Rose Bowl against Michigan) and 2008 (versus UCLA and the 2009 Rose Bowl versus Penn State).

SNOW — The last time USC played in snow was Nov. 30, 1957 at Notre Dame (the Irish won, 40-12). It was 20 degrees. The 1965 USC-Notre Dame game in South Bend was played in sleet and rain (the Irish won that one, 28-7).

STATE — 1998 was the first time that USC faced 4 consecutive "State" opponents (San Diego State, Oregon State, Florida State and Arizona State) in a season. Over a 2-year span, Troy also once played 4 "State" schools in a row, closing 1990 against Michigan State in the Hancock Bowl and then opening 1991 against Memphis State, Penn State and Arizona State.

STREAK BUSTERS — USC has twice "busted" an opponent's 20-plus game winning streak: beating Tennessee in the 1940 Rose Bowl to end the Volunteers' 23-game streak and tying Notre Dame in 1948 to end the Irish's 21-game streak. Conversely, USC's school-record 34-game winning streak was stopped by Texas in the 2006 Rose Bowl (14 wins and the loss during that streak were later vacated due to NCAA penalty).

SUNDAY — USC has played only 4 games on a Sunday, going 2-2: the 1993 opener versus North Carolina in the Disneyland Pigskin Classic (USC lost, 31-9), the 1996 opener against Penn State in the Kickoff Classic (USC lost, 24-7), the 1998 opener versus Purdue in the Pigskin Classic (USC won, 27-17) and the 2000 opener versus Penn State in the Kickoff Classic (USC won 29-5).

SUPER FAN — The late Giles Pellerin viewed in person 797 consecutive USC football games, home and away, from 1926 to 1998. His late brothers Oliver (637 games) and Max (300-plus) also had impressive streaks.

3 FOR THE ROAD — 1992 was the first time that USC started a season with 3 road games (in 1918 Troy began with 1 at a neutral site and then 2 on the road, while in 1900 USC opened with 1 road game and then 2 at a neutral site).

3-POINT GAMES — The 2010 season was the first season that USC had 5 games decided by 3 points or less.

10-POINT LOSSES — The 1999 season was the first time that USC lost 6 games all by 10 points or less.

THANKSGIVING — USC has played 20 times on Thanksgiving, the first 19 during the first 50 years of its football existence (1889-91-97-98-99-1900-06-14-15-16-17-19-20-22-26-30-32-36-38-2007). Only 3 times have the Trojans played a Thanksgiving game away from the Southern California area (in 1914 against Oregon State in Tacoma, Wash., in 1932 at Washington and in 2007 at Arizona State). USC has an 11-6-3 record on Thanksgiving.

1,000-YARD RUNNERS — USC has the third most 1,000-yard season runners (26), behind Central Michigan (34) and Nebraska (30). Troy's last rusher to hit 1,000 yards was tailback Joe McKnight (1,014) in 2009. USC's 53 1,000-yard career runners is third behind Oklahoma (66) and Nebraska (59).

THURSDAYS — USC has a 21-10-3 (.662) record on Thursday, including 11-6-3 on Thanksgiving. Ten of the Thursday games have been bowls (1925 Christmas Festival, 1948-53-70-2004-09 Rose, 1987 Citrus, 1993 Freedom, 1998 Sun, 2003 Orange), with Troy going 7-3. The 4 non-Thanksgiving/non-bowl Thursday games were wins against Oregon State (in Portland) in 1926 and at Boston College in 1988, a loss at Oregon State in 2008 and a win at Hawaii in 2010. USC has opened its season 3 times (1891, 1988, 2010) on a Thursday.

TRAVELOGUE — USC has played football in 34 states, plus Japan. In order of appearance, USC has played in California, Washington, Utah, Arizona, Oregon, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Hawai'i, Ohio, Louisiana, Maryland, New York, Minnesota, Texas, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Colorado, Oklahoma, Florida, Nebraska, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Tennessee, Missouri, South Carolina, Japan, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Nevada, Kansas and Virginia.

Some of those who have been on national broadcasts: Frank Gifford, Lynn Swann, Pat Haden, Marcus Allen, Ronnie Lott, Sean Salisbury, O.J. Simpson, Tim Ryan, Tony Boselli. Those who have been on the local airwaves: Paul McDonald, Petros Papadakis, John Jackson, Mike Garrett, Anthony Munoz, Mike Lamb, Mark Carrier, Jeff Kopp, Jeremy Hogue, Brandon Hancock, Darrell Rideaux, David Newbury, Curtis Conway.

TROY — USC has had just 6 lettermen with the appropriate first name of Troy (Troy Garner, Troy Polamalu, Troy Richardson, Troy Van Blarcom, Troy West and Troy Winslow). Polamalu was the only to win All-American first team acclaim.

TURNAROUNDS — In 118 seasons of USC football, the Trojans have lost 4 or more games 36 times. Following 8 of those 4-plus loss seasons, USC "turned it around" to win the Rose Bowl the next year (1938-43-62-67-72-76-78-84).

TV OUTLETS — USC has appeared live on 30 different television broadcasting outlets. The Trojans have won on the air of all but 3 of those outlets (KTLA, Innovative and a local Memphis station).

21-14 — USC has played 1,149 football games in its history and only once--when Troy went to Berkeley in 1951 and snapped No. 1-ranked California's 38-game regular season unbeaten streak--has the final score been a very football-like 21-14 (win or lose).

UCLA-ND — USC is 19-18-2 (.513) against UCLA in seasons when Troy's next game is against Notre Dame. Troy is 16-19-4 against Notre Dame in games immediately following the Bruin game, including 9-9-3 when the Trojans are coming off a win over UCLA. Conversely, although USC has faced its two traditional rivals in the same season 73 times, it has played the Irish and then the Bruins back-to-back in that order only 5 times (1937, 2004, 2006, 2008 and 2010).

UCLA-ND SWEEP — USC has defeated both UCLA and Notre Dame in the same season 18 times, with 9 of those occasions occuring in back-to-back Bruin/Irish games (1938-56-62-64-72-74-76-78-2002), twice on consecutive Irish/Bruin games (2004-08) and the other 6 times (1967-79-81-2003-05-07-09) coming when the Irish game was in October and the Bruin contest in November/December (2 of those UCLA wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty). In years that USC swept UCLA and Notre Dame and then played in a bowl, the Trojans are 14-2 in bowls (wins in the 1938-62-67-72-74-76-78-79-2002-03-04-07-08-09 seasons and the losses in 1981-2005; 1 of those wins was later vacated due to NCAA penalty, revised record: 13-2). USC has swept UCLA and Notre Dame in 4 consecutive seasons once (2002-05; wins over UCLA in 2 of those years were later vacated due to NCAA penalty).

UNDER 100 — Since 1946, there have been 8 seasons when USC did not allow any runner to rush for 100 yards (1951-56-59-61-63-72-82-2002).

USC-UCLA BAY AREA — 2006 was the first time that USC (at Stanford) and UCLA (at California) played in the Bay Area on the same day (Nov. 4). It happened again on Oct. 3, 2009 (USC at Cal, UCLA at Stanford) and Oct. 9, 2010 (USC at Stanford, UCLA at California).

VERSUS NO. 1 — USC is 7-11 all-time versus AP No. 1-ranked teams.

VERSUS RANKED TEAMS — The most AP-ranked teams USC has faced in a season is 9, in 2002. USC has twice faced 4 AP-ranked teams in a row in the same season, in 1952 and 2002 (on 2 other occasions, Troy faced 4 consecutive ranked foes, but those were over a 2-season span: 1973-74 and 1988-89).

VERSUS UNRANKED TEAMS — Since the AP poll began in 1936, 1956 was the only time that USC went an entire season without playing a ranked team. Conversely, USC has gone through an entire season without earning an AP ranking only 5 times (1941, 1948, 1958, 1961 and 2001).

WILD BUNCH — Known as "The Wild Bunch," USC's stellar 1969 defensive line--coached by legendary assistant Marv Goux--consisted of ends Jimmy Gunn and Charles Weaver, tackles Al Cowlings and Tody Smith and middle guards Willard 'Bubba' Scott and Tony Terry (he had a hamstring injury for much of the season and was not able to appear in the famed gunslinger photo). Cowlings dubbed the unit "The Wild Bunch"--after director Sam Peckinpah's hit 1969 Western movie of that name--for their reckless abandon and hard-nosed play. "The Wild Bunch" helped USC go 10-0-1, including a Rose Bowl win over Michigan. In the UCLA game, they sacked Dennis Dummit 10 times for losses of 75 yards. Playing in an era of powerful running games, "The Wild Bunch" allowed just 2.3 yards per carry. Gunn, Weaver and Cowlings each were All-American first teamers in their careers. Then, 34 years later, assistant coach Ed Orgeron's dominant 2003 defensive line--tackles Shaun Cody and Mike Patterson and ends Kenechi Udeze and Omar Nazel--was dubbed by the media as "The Wild Bunch II." They were instrumental in helping USC to its first national championship since 1978. They led a defense that finished first in the nation in rushing yards allowed per game (60.2) and per carry (1.84), both school records, as well as sacks (38.5) and tackles for loss (67). Only one runner gained 100 yards that season. Udeze, the national sack co-leader (16.5), was a consensus All-American first teamer.

FACILITIES

LOS ANGELES MEMORIAL COLISEUM

The Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum is one of the greatest and largest stadiums in America. It combines the traditional and the modern into a premier athletic environment. In 2005, The Sporting News named the Coliseum among the nation's 40 best stadiums to experience college football.

USC has played football in the Coliseum ever since the grand stadium was built in 1923. In fact, the Trojans played in the first varsity football game ever held there (beating Pomona College, 23-7, on Oct. 6, 1923). That game was preceded that day by the USC freshman team's 30-0 win over Santa Ana High.

Construction on the Coliseum took less than 2 years, with ground breaking ceremonies held on Dec. 21, 1921, and work completed on May 1, 1923. Initial construction costs were $800,000.

The Coliseum was the site of the 1932 Olympic Games and hosted the opening and closing ceremonies and track events of the 1984 Olympics. Over the years, the Coliseum has been home to many sports teams besides the Trojans, including UCLA football, Los Angeles Rams, Dons, Raiders, Express and Xtreme football, and Los Angeles Dodgers baseball. The Coliseum has hosted various other events, from concerts and speeches to track meets and motorcycle races.

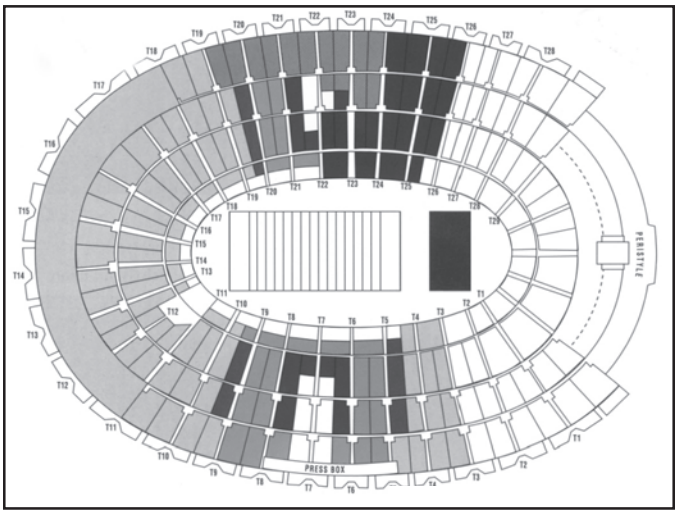
There have been 18 seasons--1923 to 1925, 1995 to 2000 and 2002 to 2010--that USC was the stadium's sole football tenant.

Prior to the 1993 football season, the Coliseum underwent a $15 million renovation. The Coliseum's floor was lowered 11 feet and the running track was removed to create a more intimate stadium. Fourteen new rows of seats (approximately 8,000 seats) were added down low, bringing fans closer to the playing field (the first rows of seats between the goalposts are a maximum of 54 feet from the sideline, instead of the previous 120 feet). During this renovation, the lockerrooms and public restrooms were also upgraded.

Southern California's damaging January, 1994 earthquake hit the Coliseum hard, requiring some $93 million of repairs. And, in the summer of 1995, a new $6 million press box was constructed.

The Coliseum has a present full-capacity of 93,607 seats (almost all are chair-back seats). There are approximately 25,000 seats from goal line to goal line, including both the north and south sides.

The Coliseum is located on 17 acres in Exposition Park, which also houses museums, gardens and the Los Angeles Sports Arena.



HERITAGE HALL

Heritage Hall, which sits in the middle of the University of Southern California campus, houses the University's athletic department and celebrates the glorious Trojan athletic heritage. USC has produced 392 Olympic athletes, won 115 national team championships and developed 51 NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship recipients.

Originally 48,000 square feet and built at a cost of $2.8 million, the 3-level brick and concrete colonnaded building opened in 1971. Heritage Hall was designed by Grillias, Savage and Alves of Santa Ana, Calif. Myers Brothers Construction Company, Inc., of Los Angeles was the general contractor. Initial construction began in Feb. 5, 1970. It has been expanded three times: in 1984 (a 6,000-square foot addition to the weight room), in 1992 (a 13,500-square foot expansion that houses the Academic Resource Center) and in 1998 (a 3,000-square foot addition to the Jess Hill Weight Room). Heritage Hall is located close to USC's various athletic practice and competition on-campus facilities.

Between the north and south wings on the building's ground level are some of USC's numerous athletic trophies, including various NCAA team championships, 6 Heisman Trophies and the jerseys of Troy's winners (Mike Garrett, O.J. Simpson, Charles White, Marcus Allen, Carson Palmer, Matt Leinart), swimmer John Naber's Sullivan Award and updated displays honoring recent successful Trojan athletes. There are also busts of USC athletic directors Willis O. Hunter and Jess Hill, football coaches Howard Jones and John McKay, and track coach Dean Cromwell, as well as one of actor John Wayne (who played football at USC in the 1920s under his real name, Marion Morrison). Wall plaques acknowledge special financial contributors to the USC athletic program. The north wing houses a 150-seat auditorium and a formal lounge, while some coaches and administrators have offices in the south wing. A patio area extends outside to the west (placed in the patio floor are plaques commemorating the members of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame).

Heritage Hall's upper level is the home to many administrative and coaches' offices (located on the south "Jess Hill Wing" and north "John McKay Wing," respectively). The Honors Rail, which encircles the open-air foyer above the first floor lobby, has bronze medallions saluting every Trojan who won an Olympic gold medal, captured an NCAA individual championship or was named a first team All-American in an NCAA sport in which there are no individual champions (i.e. football, basketball, baseball, volleyball, water polo). Also on the second floor are busts of USC football running backs Morley Drury ("The Noblest Trojan of Them All") and Ricky Bell. Like on the ground floor, tucked in alcoves on both ends of this floor are other athletic trophies and team displays.

The underground lower level of Heritage Hall houses various locker rooms, plus the equipment room, medical training room, the Jess Hill Weight Room, and the McAlister Academic Resource Center (which features tutoring, counseling, study and computer rooms for USC's student-athletes).

USC's swimming and water polo coaches are located in the nearby Kennedy Aquatics Building, while the baseball staff has offices at Dedeaux Field (the baseball stadium),the track and field staff has offices in Loker Stadium and the men's and women's basketball and volleyball staffs have offices in the Galen Center.

Outside the northwest corner of Heritage Hall, the $3-million Galen Dining Center--a popular sports-themed dining center--opened in early 1999.

The USC football team practices at nearby Howard Jones Field, which was expanded in the fall of 1998 to include Brian Kennedy Field. In early 1999, Goux's Gate--named after the late popular long-time former assistant coach Marv Goux--was erected at the entrance to the practice field.

USC's other on-campus athletic facilities include the McDonald's Swim Stadium (site of the 1984 Olympic swimming and diving competition), Marks Tennis Stadium, Cromwell Track and Field (which includes the 3,000-seat Katherine B. Locker Stadium), the McAlister Soccer Field, the 1,500-seat Lyon Center (a campus student recreation center which has hosted some Trojan intercollegiate events) and the Physical Education Building (housing the 1,000-seat North Gym).

The 10,258-seat, $147-million on-campus Galen Center (and adjoining practice facility), completed in August of 2006, is the luxurious home to the Trojan basketball and volleyball teams, as well as various cultural events.

Under construction directly west of Heritage Hall is the John McKay Center, a $70 million, 110,000-square foot facility that will house meeting rooms, coaches offices and a locker room for the football program, as well as an academic center, weight room, athletic training room and state-of-the-art digital media production facility for all of USC's sports.

Traveler, USC's Mascot

Traveler first made an appearance at USC football games in 1961 (in the home opener versus Georgia Tech). Bob Jani, then USC's director of special events, and Eddie Tannenbaum, then a junior at USC, had spotted Richard Saukko riding his white horse, Traveler I, in the 1961 Rose Parade. They persuaded Saukko to ride his white horse around the Coliseum during USC games, serving as a mascot. Ever since, whenever USC scores, the band plays "Conquest" and Traveler gallops around the Coliseum.

Because of poor health, Saukko stopped riding after the 1988 season (he passed away in March of 1992). His successors have been Cass Dabbs, Rick Oas, Tom Nolan, Ardeshir Radpour, Chuck O'Donnell (Saukko's stepson) and current rider Hector Aguilar. Patricia Saukko DeBernardi (Saukko's widow) was Traveler's owner and trainer until she retired following the 2002 season. She asked Joanne Asman to take over with her own Traveler in 2003 (she also trains and houses the horse for USC). She is president of Asman & Associates, an entertainment and event planning company in Burbank, Calif., and she has spent more than 15 years training and managing equestrian performers.

The current Trojan mascot is Traveler VII. Even though the breed of horse may have changed over the years — Travelers I through VI ranged from an Arabian/Tennessee Walker to a pure-bred Tennessee Walker to a pure-bred Arabian to an Andalusian — Traveler's color has always remained pure white.

In the fall of 2004, USC alumnus Bill Tilley ('61) and his wife, Nadine, donated $2 million to provide a permanent endowment to support Traveler. Bill is the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Jacmar Companies, a multi-faceted international restaurant and food service enterprise and majority owner of the highly successful B.J.'s Restaurant and Brewery. Nadine is an avid breeder of champion Andalusian horses. She and Bill hope that a future Traveler will be bred at Tilley's Andalusians, her Hemet ranch that is now known as "The Home of Traveler."

Saukko first appeared on Traveler in the outfit that actor Charlton Heston wore in "Ben Hur." That proved to be too cumbersome, so Saukko crafted his own leather costume in 1962, modeled after the Tommy Trojan statue on the USC campus (that outfit is still being used). But he still sometimes wore Heston's helmet. Interestingly, Saukko was once employed by Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Legend has it that Heisman Trophy tailback O.J. Simpson decided to come to USC after seeing Traveler on a televised football game. And Trojan faithful swear the horse has an effect on the outcome of games.

"(Former USC coach) John McKay didn't want to admit that the horse had anything to do with his success," said Saukko, "but he'd always give me a wink when he saw me waiting in the Coliseum tunnel."

Added former USC All-American defensive back and assistant coach Nate Shaw: "The horse is one of the greatest inspirational devices USC has. It definitely got the adrenaline going when I was playing and I think it still has an effect on the players. When I was coaching against USC (at Oregon State), we hated to see that horse come down the tunnel because it got USC a little more pumped up."

Traveler not only appears at Trojan home football games (and even at some away games, including the 1995 Cotton Bowl in Dallas and the 2005 Orange Bowl in Miami, the farthest Traveler has traveled), but also at other Trojan events, as well as at grade and high schools, charity functions and parades (including the past 44 Rose Parades). Traveler has also appeared on screen (including "The Asia Music Awards," "Road To El Dorado," "The Battle of the Gunfighter" and "Snowfire"), on stage (including in the Long Beach Ballet's "Nutcracker Ballet"), in commercials, in print (Vogue magazine) and at personal appearances with many celebrities (including Janet Jackson, Jamie Foxx, LeeAnne Rimes, Fabio and Fred Roggin).

Incidentally, Traveler I was not the first equine mascot for Troy. The first appearance of a white horse at a Trojan football game occurred as early as 1927, when Louis Shields began a four-year stint aboard a horse owned by a local banker. In 1948, band director Tommy Walker once had USC colors carried by a Trojan on a palomino. Then, before kickoff of the 1954 USC-Pittsburgh game, Arthur J. Gontier III, then a member of the Trojan Knights spirit group (subbing for another rider who backed out at the last moment), shakily rode a rented gray/white horse while donning a costume once worn by actor Jeff Chandler. A more accomplished rider, USC alum Bob Caswell, and his white horse, Rockazar, took over the following game and performed until retiring in 1959.

Besides these horses, USC once even had a canine mascot. A mutt named George Tirebiter I (famous for chasing cars through the USC campus) first appeared at football games in 1940. He survived a publicized dognapping by UCLA in 1947, but succumbed under the tires of an automobile in 1950. He was succeeded by George II for 3 years (1950-52), then George III for 1 year (1953) and finally George IV for 1 year (1957).

TRAVELER FUND

The Traveler Fund is used to make sure USC's mascot continues to be a prominent part of football games and other events. Whether it's $5 or $500, donations help to secure this special USC tradition for future generations of Trojans.

Donations should be made out to the "Traveler Fund" and sent to: Justine Gilman, USC Recreational Sports, LRC 101, Los Angeles, Calif. 90089-2500, (213) 740-8120. Donors will receive a beautiful picture of Traveler that is suitable for framing.

TRAVELER

Tommy Trojan

In the center of the USC campus stands one of the most famous collegiate landmarks in the country: Tommy Trojan. Since being unveiled in 1930 for USC's 50th jubilee, the statue of the bronzed Trojan warrior has served not only as a popular meeting place on campus, but as a symbol of the university's fighting spirit.

Sculpted by Roger Noble Burnham (the idea for the statue was conceived by Harry Lee Martin and Dr. James D. McCoy), Tommy Trojan cost $10,000 to build. A $1 surcharge then on season football tickets helped pay for it.

The statue is a composite of many USC football players from the late 20s, most notably 1930 Rose Bowl Player of the Game Russ Saunders and All-American Erny Pinckert.

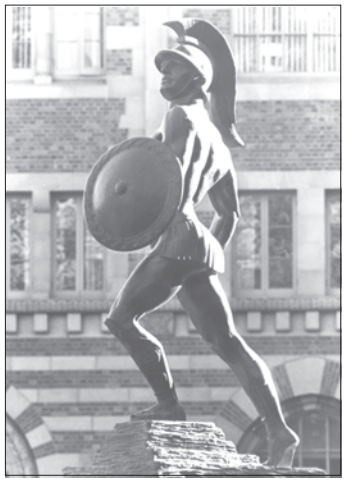
"Burnham made more than 100 oil paintings of various football players from our squad," said Saunders, "and from them he selected the paintings of Pinckert and me. We put in a lot of hours posing, and the result you see is my head, chest and shoulders. The rest is all Erny."

Inscribed on the statue's base is "THE TROJAN" and the university's seal, with the Latin motto "Palmam qui meruit ferat (Let him who deserves it bear away the palm)." Below the seal are inscribed the qualities of the ideal Trojan: "Faithful, Scholarly, Skillful, Courageous and Ambitious."

The tradition of Tommy Trojan being painted blue and gold by UCLA pranksters was first recorded in October of 1941. Since then, Tommy has been "hit" often, but now USC maintenance crews cover him with plastic and canvas for protection during the week of the annual USC-UCLA football game.

And Tommy's sword has been stolen so often that now, instead of replacing it each time with an expensive brass one, he is given a wooden one.

By the way, where did he get the name Tommy? Of that, no one is sure!



TOMMY TROJAN

TROJAN TRADITIONS

Victory Bell

VICTORY BELL

The winner of the annual USC-UCLA football game, perhaps America's greatest crosstown rivalry, is given year-long possession of the Victory Bell.

The 295-pound bell originally clanged from atop a Southern Pacific freight locomotive. It was given to UCLA in 1939 as a gift from the UCLA Alumni Association. For 2 seasons, cheerleaders rang the bell after each Bruin point.

At the opening game of UCLA's 1941 football season, 6 members of USC's Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity infiltrated the UCLA rooting section. After the game, they helped Bruin students load the bell onto a waiting truck bound for Westwood. But then, one Trojan quietly removed the key to the truck, and while the Bruins went to get a replacement, the Trojans drove off with the bell.

The bell remained hidden for more than a year, first in the fraternity's basement, then in the Hollywood Hills, Santa Ana and other locations. At one point, it was even concealed beneath a haystack. Bruin students tried to locate the bell, but to no avail.

The controversy died down for a while, until a picture of the bell was printed in "The Wampus," a USC magazine. This re-ignited the rivalry, as students from UCLA retaliated by painting the Tommy Trojan statue at USC and then Trojan students burned USC initials on UCLA lawns. Police had to be called several times. The conflict got so out of hand that Dr. Rufus B. von KleinSmid, then USC's president, threatened to cancel the USC-UCLA game if any further disorders occurred.

On Nov. 12, 1942, the bell was wheeled in front of Tommy Trojan and the student body presidents of both schools — USC's Bill McKay and UCLA's Bill Farrer — signed an agreement stating that thereafter the annual winner of the Trojan-Bruin gridiron clash would keep the bell for the following year. In the case of a tie, the bell would be retained by the school that won the previous year's game. The USC Alumni Association later repaid the UCLA Alumni Association for half the cost of the bell.

At the time, the arrangement might have seemed like a bad deal for the Bruins, since they had yet to defeat USC. But that first year, 1942, UCLA beat USC, 14-7.

Since the bell became a trophy, its carriage has been painted cardinal 40 times while in USC's possession and blue 28 times while in UCLA's hold (there were 4 ties). (Two USC wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty.)

Although the Victory Bell is one of college football's most famous trophies, it is probably the least seen. For all but 2 days of the year, the bell sits in a warehouse or a vault. The universities only display the bell during the first 3 quarters of the USC-UCLA game and on the Monday following the game, when it is delivered to the winning school's campus. Then the Victory Bell, which gained its reputation from being hidden, goes back into hiding.

Crosstown Gauntlet Trophy

To highlight the year-long all-sports competition between crosstown rivals USC and UCLA, the Crosstown Gauntlet Trophy is awarded annually to the school with the most successful athletic year against the other. Points are awarded to the winner of each Trojan-Bruin head-to-head contest and the Gauntlet is awarded to the school with the most points at year's end. USC captured the inaugural trophy in 2001-02, UCLA won it in 2002-03, the Trojans recaptured it in 2003-04, the Bruins won it back in 2004-05, it returned to Troy in 2005-06, UCLA had it for 2006-07, it returned to USC for 2007-08 and the Trojans became the first school to retain possession of it for consecutive years when they did so for 2008-09 and then again in 2009-10 and 2010-11.

Shillelagh

SHILLELAGH I

SHILLELAGH II

A jeweled shillelagh is passed between the annual winner of the USC-Notre Dame game, perhaps the finest intersectional rivalry in college football.

A shillelagh (pronounced "shuh-LAY-lee") is a Gaelic war club made of oak or blackthorn saplings from Ireland. Those are the only woods used because, it is said, they are the only ones tougher than an Irish skull.

The foot-long shillelagh has ruby-adorned Trojan heads with the year and game score representing USC victories, while emerald-studded shamrocks stand for Notre Dame wins. For tie games, a combined Trojan head/shamrock medallion is used. On the end of the club is engraved, "From the Emerald Isle." The victor of the Trojan-Irish game gains year-long possession of the trophy.

Upon its initial presentation in 1952 by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, it was said that "this shillelagh will serve to symbolize in part the high tradition, the keen rivalry and above all the sincere respect which these two great universities have for each other."

The original shillelagh was flown from Ireland by Howard Hughes' pilot, according to legend. It was devised by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, based on a suggestion by Vern Rickard. John Groen designed it. Although the shillelagh was introduced in 1952, the medallions go back to the start of the series in 1926.

When the original shillelagh ran out of space for the Trojan heads and shamrocks after the 1989 game, it was retired and is permanently displayed at Notre Dame.

A new shillelagh — slightly longer than the original — was commissioned by Jim Gillis, a former baseball player at both USC and Notre Dame and a one-time president of the Notre Dame Club of Los Angeles, and handcrafted in 1997 in County Leitrim, Ireland. It contains medallions beginning with the 1990 game.

There are now 43 shamrocks, 34 Trojan heads and 5 combined medallions on the shillelaghs. (One USC win was later vacated due to NCAA penalty.)

Origin of USC's Nickname — Trojans

USC's nickname, "Trojans," originated in 1912. Up to that time the University of Southern California teams were called the Methodists or Wesleyans, nicknames which were not looked upon with favor by university officials.

So, Warren Bovard, director of athletics and son of university president Dr. George Bovard, asked Los Angeles Times sports editor Owen Bird to select an appropriate nickname.

"At this time, the athletes and coaches of the university were under terrific handicaps," recalled Bird. "They were facing teams that were bigger and better-equipped, yet they had splendid fighting spirit. The name 'Trojans' fitted them.

"I came out with an article prior to a showdown between USC and Stanford in which I called attention to the fighting spirit of USC athletes and named them 'Trojans.' From then on, we used the term 'Trojan' all the time, and it stuck.

"The term 'Trojan' as applied to USC means to me that no matter what the situation, what the odds or what the conditions, the competition must be carried on to the end and those who strive must give all they have and never be weary in doing so."

Colors: Cardinal & Gold

Before 1895, the official color of USC was gold. The official color of the College of Liberal Arts was cardinal. The college had its own official color because it was the largest academic unit in the University. In 1895, both colors were adopted as USC's official colors.

TROJAN MARCHING BAND

The Trojan Marching Band — known as "The Spirit of Troy" — is the most dynamic and innovative collegiate band in the nation. Named among the 8 best marching bands in the country by USA Today, the band is one of USC's most visible public relations tools and provides tireless support of USC athletic teams.

Established in 1880, the band has played for 7 Presidents and appeared in numerous movies (including "Forrest Gump" and "The Naked Gun"), TV shows (including 3 times at the Academy Awards and with OutKast's Andre 3000 at the 2004 Grammy Awards and Radiohead at the 2008 Grammys, plus on "Glee," "American Idol," "Dancing With The Stars," "Scrubs," "How I Met Your Mother," "Las Vegas," "L.A. Law," "Hollywood Squares," "Good Morning America," MTV's "Rock and Jock" and the "Tonight Show with Conan O'Brien"), commercials and magazines (including in Sports Illustrated's Swimsuit issue). The band earned 2 platinum albums when it recorded the title track of Fleetwood Mac's 1979 album, "Tusk," and was on the group's live 1997 reunion album, "The Dance." It played at the 2010 Coachella music festival with Coheed and Cambria. And it has produced numerous albums of its own music (featuring the well-known "Tribute To Troy," "Conquest" and "Fight On"). It is regarded as "Hollywood's Band."

Among the many musicians who have played in the band as students was Herb Alpert of the Tijuana Brass (in the cornet section). Various famous guest artists have appeared with the band, including John Phillip Souza (in 1924), Henry Mancini, John Williams, Quincy Jones, Chuck Mangione, Leonard Bernstein, Diana Ross, Neil Diamond, John Wayne, Kenny Rogers, Tower of Power, George Clinton, KC & The Sunshine Band, System of a Down, WAR, Bozo the Clown (Larry Harmon) and The Offspring's Dexter Holland.

The band performs a new halftime show with precision drills, specially arranged music and dance routines at each home game. A typical football halftime show takes more than 100 hours to prepare. The band marches about 90 miles a year while traveling across the land supporting every USC team. In fact, it hasn't missed a Trojan football game, at home or away, since 1987 (its full band trips to the Bay Area and Notre Dame are much anticipated). The band appears at more than 350 engagements each year, including at pro sporting events and major corporate and special events throughout Southern California.

Approximately 20 percent of its members are music majors, with almost every school and department represented among the balance. Now 300-plus members strong, the Trojan Marching Band has tripled in size since Dr. Arthur C. Bartner became its director in 1970 (he is assisted by long-time arranger Tony Fox). A graduate of Michigan, Bartner brought with him a creative approach and the unique, contemporary "drive-it" style of marching.

Bartner directed the 800-member 1984 Olympic All-American College Marching Band (with 125 USC bandsmen) at the Games' opening and closing ceremonies. It was the second time the band was involved with the Olympics, as it formed the 10th Olympic Braid in the 1932 Los Angeles Games. The band has also performed at 4 Super Bowls, the 1988 World Series, the 1994 World Cup and the 2002 NHL All Star Weekend. Bartner has made 15 appearances with the Trojan Marching Band at the Rose Parade and Rose Bowl.

Bartner was also Director of Bands for the Japan Bowl in Tokyo and directed the All-American College Marching Band at Disneyland. During its summer vacations, the band travels the world as goodwill ambassadors of USC. In 1986, Bartner and 40 band members were part of the ceremonies of Liberty Weekend at the refurbished Statue of Liberty. In 1988, he brought the band to Australia to perform at festivities for that country's bicentennial and at World Expo 88 (one of five World Expositions it has appeared, along with Spain in 1992, Portugal in 1998, Japan in 2005 and Shanghai in 2010). The band also performed at the 50th anniversary of D-Day in France, toured Germany in 1990 to celebrate the fall of the Berlin Wall, played at the walls of the Roman Colosseum in 2006, on the Great Wall of China in 2004 and on Rio de Janeiro's Ipanema Beach in 2008 and in 2003 was the first American marching band to perform at Hong Kong's International Chinese New Year's Parade (it returned there in 2004). It performs each summer at the Hollywood Bowl.

The Trojan Marching Band is complemented by the USC Silks (tall flags) and twirlers, plus the world-famous USC Song Girls, who were ranked No. 1 in the nation by Sports Illustrated, and the Spirit Leaders. In 2009, ESPN.com named the band and Song Girls as the nation's best: "Nothing says 'glamour school' more than the ubiquitous presence of the USC Song Girls and the Trojan Marching Band. The Spirit of Troy brings one of the most stirring sounds in college football, while the USC Song Girls give Trojan games ones of the sport's most indelible sights."

School Songs

"FIGHT ON"

Fight On for ol' SC
Our men Fight On to victory.
Our Alma Mater dear, looks up to you
Fight On and win
For ol' SC
Fight On to victory
Fight On!

This song is usually played after first downs and touchdowns. The music for USC's fight song, "Fight On," was composed in 1922 by USC dental student Milo Sweet (with lyrics by Sweet and Glen Grant) as an entry in a Trojan spirit contest. In addition to inspiring generations of Trojan fans and players, the song has been used in numerous recordings and movies. Legend has it that during World War II in the Pacific, an American task force attacked an island held by the Japanese. As the Americans stormed the beach, "Fight On" blared from the deck of one of the transports. The U.S. men let out a tremendous roar and eventually won the island.

"ALL HAIL"

All hail to Alma Mater,
To thy glory we sing;
All hail to Southern California,
Loud let thy praises ring;
Where Western sky meets Western sea
Our college stands in majesty.
Sing our love to Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee.

The words and music to USC's alma mater, "All Hail," were composed in the early 1920s by Al Wesson, Troy's longtime sports information director. He wrote the song as a student member of the Trojan Marching Band for the finale of a 1923 campus show.

"CONQUEST"

Another famous USC song is the regal processional march, "Conquest," by Alfred Newman. It is usually played after every USC score and victory. This stirring battle cry, from Newman's score to the 1947 motion picture classic "Captain from Castile," has become synonymous with the championship tradition of USC since the Trojans adopted it in 1954 during a basketball game against Oregon State. Newman, a legendary composer of film music, was the musical director of Twentieth Century-Fox Studios.

Other Songs

"Tribute To Troy," the incessant stanza of pounding drums and blaring horns, is played after every defensive stop. "Fanfare" is the introduction to "Tribute To Troy" and is played when the band takes the field. "All Right Now" is played after USC gets a turnover. "Another One Bites the Dust" is played after USC gets a sack. The "William Tell Overture" is played at the start of the fourth quarter. "The Emperor's Theme" from Star Wars is played when USC is flagged for a major penalty.

Tommy Walker

The trumpet "Charge," heard often at athletic contests, was composed by a post-World War II USC student named Tommy Walker. As a member of the Trojan Marching Band, he was known as "Tommy Trojan," and as a USC football player, he would shed his band uniform, come down from the stands, and kick extra points (he lettered in 1947). Upon graduation in 1948, he was hired as the band's director. He later was the first entertainment director at Disneyland and then went into business as one of the world's leading creators of show business spectacles (including Super Bowl halftimes and Olympic opening and closing ceremonies). He died in 1986.

USC'S ATHLETIC HERITAGE

USC has a proud athletic heritage — and with good reason. Arguably, Troy could be the "Collegiate Athletic Program of the 20th Century." Consider:

• Trojan teams have won more national championships, 92 men's (including a national-best 79 NCAA titles) and 23 women's, than all but 2 other schools.

• The Trojans won at least 1 national team title in 26 consecutive years (1959-60 to 1984-85).

• USC won the National College All-Sports Championship — an annual ranking by USA Today (previously the Knoxville Journal) of the country's top athletic programs — 6 times since its inception in 1971.

• USC won the Gauntlet Trophy, a year-long all-sports competition between Troy and crosstown rival UCLA, in its inaugural 2001-02 season and in 2003-04, 2005-06 and now 4 straight years (2007-08 through 2010-11).

• Trojan men athletes have won more individual NCAA titles (303) than those from any other school in the nation (the Women of Troy have brought home another 60 individual NCAA crowns).

• Troy also has a long tradition of nurturing successful Olympic athletes. USC has more Olympians, medalists and gold medalists than any school. Since 1904, 392 Trojan athletes have competed in the Games, taking home 122 gold medals (with at least 1 gold in every summer Olympics from 1912), 76 silver and 60 bronze.

• Four Trojans have won the prestigious Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in America: diver Sammy Lee (1953), shot putter Parry O'Brien (1959), swimmer John Naber (1977) and swimmer Janet Evans (1989).

• Two Women of Troy athletes have won the Honda-Broderick Cup as the top collegiate woman athlete of the year: Cheryl Miller (1983-84) and Angela Williams (2001-02). And Trojan women have won 13 Honda Awards, as the top female athlete in their sport.

Along with the great accomplishments on the playing fields, USC student-athletes have received 51 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, in the Top 10 among all schools. In addition, USC has had 29 first team Academic All-Americans and 4 athletes who were Rhodes Scholars.

Here's an overview of USC's 19 current intercollegiate sports (the Trojans will be adding women's lacrosse and women's sand volleyball in the near future):

FOOTBALL — Since starting football in 1888, USC has an impressive all-time won-loss record of 783-312-54 (a .705 winning percentage). In 2009, ESPN.com ranked USC the second-best program in college football history. (Fourteen of those wins and 1 loss were later vacated due to NCAA penalty; revised record: 769-311-54, .702.)

USC's record against Pac-12 opponents is a stellar 420-170-29 (.702). In its history, the Trojans have won 38 conference championships. (Nine of those wins and 2 titles were later vacated due to NCAA penalty; revised record 411-170-29, .698, 36 titles.)

USC has the nation's third best bowl winning percentage (.667) among the 75 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances and its 33 Rose Bowl appearances is an all-time best. Troy's overall bowl mark is 32-16 (second for most wins nationally), including 24-9 in the Pasadena classic (1 Rose Bowl win and loss were later vacated due to NCAA penalty). The Trojans were a bowl participant every year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Think about college football and USC's tailback in the I-formation, one of the most glamorous positions in the sport, comes to mind. Five Trojan tailbacks have won the coveted Heisman Trophy as college football's outstanding player: Mike Garrett (1965), O.J. Simpson (1968), Charles White (1979), Marcus Allen (1981) and Reggie Bush (2005, later vacated). Carson Palmer in 2002 and Matt Leinart in 2004 became the first USC quarterbacks to win the Heisman.

The Trojans have had other prominent award winners. Offensive tackle Ron Yary won the Outland Trophy in 1967, offensive guard Brad Budde won the Lombardi Award in 1979, safety Mark Carrier won the Thorpe Award in 1989, linebacker Chris Claiborne won the Butkus Award in 1998, tight end Fred Davis won the Mackey Award in 2007 and linebacker Rey Maualuga won the Bednarik Award in 2008. USC players have been named first team All-American 156 times, with 52 consensus selections and 26 unanimous choices.

Many of those players have led USC to 11 national championships in football. Legendary coach Howard Jones (1925-40) guided Troy to 4 of those titles (1928-31-32-39). John McKay (1960-75) was responsible for 4 national championship teams (1962-67-72-74). John Robinson (1976-82), who captured 1 title (1978) in his first tenure, returned to Troy in 1993 and led USC to 3 more bowl wins. Pete Carroll (2001-09) led Troy to its most recent national crowns in 2003 and 2004, and had 7 consecutive Pac-10 titles, BCS bowl trips, 11-win seasons and AP Top 4 finishes (14 wins and 1 loss were later vacated due to NCAA penalty). Former assistant Lane Kiffin took over in 2010.

Scores of Trojans have starred in the NFL (a national-best 473 have been drafted, including a national-best 75 first rounders and a record 5 No. 1 selections), including such greats as Frank Gifford, Lynn Swann, Anthony Munoz, Ronnie Lott, Junior Seau, Keyshawn Johnson, Bruce Matthews, Willie McGinest and Troy Polamalu.

BASEBALL — No school in the country can match the long tradition USC has in baseball. With 12 national championships in the sport, Troy is far and away the leader in that category (no other school has more than 6).

Since starting baseball in 1889, the Trojans have compiled a record of 2,458-1,322-17 (.650) against college opponents, and have captured 38 conference championships.

The incomparable Rod Dedeaux coached USC from 1942-86, leading the school to 11 of its NCAA crowns, including 5 straight from 1970-74 (no other school has strung together more than two in a row).

Trojans have been named first team All-American 43 times, with Jay Roundy, Pat Harrison, Bill Bordley and Gabe Alvarez being 2-time selections. Mark McGwire (1984), Seth Etherton (1998) and Mark Prior (2001) were national Players of the Year.

USC boasts many successful major leaguers such as Ron Fairly, Don Buford, Tom Seaver, Dave Kingman, Fred Lynn, Roy Smalley, Steve Kemp, Mark McGwire, Randy Johnson, Bret and Aaron Boone, Jeff Cirillo, Barry Zito, Geoff Jenkins and Mark Prior. In all, Trojans have been drafted 295 times, with 97 Trojans having played in the major leagues.

Dedeaux compiled a 45-year collegiate record of 1,332-571-11 (.699), making him the then-winningest coach in collegiate baseball history. He resigned after the 1986 season to become USC's director of baseball and was replaced by Mike Gillespie, whose 1998 squad won the College World Series while finishing as the CWS runnerup in 1995 and also advancing to Omaha in 2000 and 2001 (15 of his 20 teams advanced to the NCAA regionals). Gillespie retired after the 2006 season. Former Trojan assistant Frank Cruz is now the head coach.

MEN'S BASKETBALL — Since starting basketball in 1907, USC has compiled a record of 1,493-1,072 (.582), winning 14 league championships.

Bill Sharman, John Rudometkin, John Block, Paul Westphal, Gus Williams, Harold Miner and Sam Clancy are a few of USC's All-American selections. Trojans have earned All-American honors 22 times. Four USC men, Sharman, Jack Gardner, Alex Hannum and coach Sam Barry, are in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Barry (1930-41, 1945-50) has USC's winningest record, 260-138 (.653). Following him are Forrest Twogood (1951-66) at 255-180 (.586) and Bob Boyd (1967-79) at 216-131 (.622). George Raveling, an assistant for the 1984 and 1988 U.S. Olympic teams, took over in 1987 and led Troy into the post-season 4 times. Henry Bibby (1996-2005) got the Trojans into the NCAA tourney 3 times (including the Elite Eight in 2001). Tim Floyd (2006-09) posted 20-win seasons and NCAA berths a USC-record 3 straight seasons (his 2007 NCAA Sweet Sixteen team had a school-record 25 wins and his 2009 squad won USC's first-ever Pac-10 tourney crown). Kevin O'Neill succeeded him in 2010.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL — USC is among the elite college women's basketball programs, winning 2 national championships and playing in 4 Final Fours.

USC became established when Linda Sharp took over as coach in 1977. By 1981, Troy had reached the Final Four. In 1983, Cheryl Miller joined Cynthia Cooper and twins Pam and Paula McGee to lead the Women of Troy to its first national championship. The next year, the team won the national title again. USC advanced to the NCAA title game in 1986.

Miller finished her career in 1986 as the Trojans' all-time leading scorer and rebounder. She also won her third straight Naismith Award as the outstanding player in college basketball. She returned as coach of her alma mater in 1994 and led USC to a Pac-10 title and 2 NCAA playoff appearances. She was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1995 and Cooper--twice an Olympian and WNBA MVP--was inducted in 2010.

Lisa Leslie, who became an Olympic and pro star, won the Naismith Award in 1994 (she was the MVP of the first WNBA All-Star Game). Tina Thompson was the No. 1 pick in the 1997 WNBA draft.

USC was in the NCAA tourney in 2005 and 2006 under coach Mark Trakh. Former Laker great and Sparks coach Michael Cooper took over in 2010.

MEN'S GOLF — USC has one of the most successful golf programs in the nation, having produced 4 NCAA individual champions (Scott Simpson in 1976 and 1977, Ron Commans in 1981 and Jamie Lovemark in 2007), 22 Pac-12 individual champs, 23 All-American first teamers and numerous players who have gone on to successful professional careers, including $1 million winners like Al "Mr. 59" Geiberger, Dave Stockton, Craig Stadler and Simpson. Troy has also been dominant in the Pac-12, winning 19 conference championships.

Legendary coach Stan Wood (1955-79) compiled a career record of 462-37 (.926) and won 14 conference championships. He also guided the Trojans to an NCAA record 51 consecutive dual match wins from 1956-59. His teams finished third in the NCAA tourney 6 times.

Under coach Randy Lein (1984-92), USC won the league title in 1986. The 1991 Trojans finished seventh at the NCAAs. U.S. Amateur champion Sam Randolph, who finished as low amateur at the Masters in 1985 and 1986, was a first team All-American for the third straight year in 1986 and was named college golf's Player of the Year.

Kurt Schuette became coach in 1995 and guided USC to an impressive fifth place finish at the NCAA tourney that season, Troy's best placing in 18 years (USC was sixth in 2005). His 2001 squad won the Pac-10 title, USC's first since 1986, and Troy repeated in 2002. Kevin Stadler, Craig's son, was the 2002 Pac-10 Golfer of the Year (USC's first honoree since 1986). Ex-Trojan Chris Zambri became head coach in 2007 (Schuette remained as Director of Golf), as USC won the Pac-10 crown that year and then was third at the 2008 NCAAs (Troy's best finish since 1975) when he was National Coach of the Year.

WOMEN'S GOLF — The USC women's golf team is one of college's finest, as witnessed by the program's NCAA team titles in 2003 and 2008. USC also has 14 other Top 10 NCAA finishes in the past 25 years (second 3 times, third twice, fourth 3 times, fifth twice, seventh 3 times and ninth once). The Women of Troy won the Pac-10 tourney in 1989, 2008 and 2011 and the NCAA Regional in 1999, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2010 and 2011.

Cathy Bright led USC to 5 Top 10 NCAA finishes in her 12 years as head coach (1982-93). Former Trojan player Renee (Mack) Baumgartner returned as head coach in 1994 and led USC to second place at the NCAAs in her first year. Andrea Gaston took over in 1997 (with Kurt Schuette serving as Director of Golf) and has guided USC to 11 NCAA Top 10 finishes, including 2 NCAA titles.

Jennifer Rosales won the 1998 NCAA individual title as a freshman, Mikaela Parmlid won as a senior in 2003 and Dewi-Claire Schreefel as a sophomore in 2006. Other top golfers have included Marta Figueras-Dotti, Denise Strebig, Kim Saiki, Tracy Nakamura, Jill McGill (1993 U.S. Amateur champion), Heidi Voorhees (1993 U.S. Amateur medalist), Jennifer Biehn (1994 Pac-10 champ), Candie Kung (2000 Pac-10 champ), Becky Lucidi (2002 U.S. Amateur and 2003 Mexican Amateur champion), Irene Cho, Paola Moreno, Belen Mozo, Jennifer Song (2009 National Freshman of the Year and NCAA individual runnerup), 4-time All-American Lizette Salas and Sophia Popov.

WOMEN'S ROWING — The women's rowing team has been active since the early 1970s, but scholarships were first awarded in 1998 and USC has emerged as one of the nation's top programs. George Jenkins guided USC to national prominence during his 9 years as head coach (1994-2002). Kelly Babraj took over as head coach for the 2003 season, with husband Zenon Babraj serving as director of rowing and then sole head coach beginning in 2008.

At the 1998 NCAA meet, the Women of Troy won their first national championship race (varsity fours). In 2005, USC made its first NCAA Championship appearance as a team, placing 11th. USC was ranked No. 1 nationally for part of the 2007 season (it finished fifth at the NCAAs), then was eighth in 2010 and fifth in 2011.

WOMEN'S SOCCER — The women's soccer team began competing in 1993. Jim Millinder (1996-2006) guided 7 of his squads into the NCAA tourney (USC won the 1998 Pac-10 title). Ali Khosroshahin made his USC coaching debut in 2007 and was the National Coach of the Year as he led his inaugural teamto the NCAA title behind the play of goalkeeper Kristin Olsen.

Isabelle Harvey, the 1998 Pac-10 Player of the Year, was USC's first All-American first teamer (in 2000). Amy Rodriguez was a 2008 U.S. Olympian.

MEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING — USC has long dominated men's collegiate swimming.

Over the years, USC men's swimmers have made Olympic teams 131 times, winning 41 gold, 23 silver and 19 bronze medals. Gold medal winners have included Lenny Krayzelburg, John Naber, Bruce Furniss and Murray Rose. In the 1976 Games, Trojan swimmers won more golds and more total medals than any country in swimming except the United States.

Since beginning swimming in 1929, the Trojans have captured 9 NCAA championships, all under coach Peter Daland, who retired in 1992 after 35 years at Troy. USC swimmers and divers have won 112 NCAA meet individual and relay titles (including Larsen Jensen, who won 3 individual titles in the 2005 and 2007 meets) and have earned All-American honors an amazing 582 times. Under Daland, USC won 17 Pac-10 championships and amassed an impressive dual meet record of 318-31-1 (.917). Three of his last 6 squads had runner-up finishes at the NCAA meet.

Four-time U.S. Olympic coach Mark Schubert, winner of 2 NCAA titles with the Texas women, succeeded Daland (he also served as the head coach of the Women of Troy). His men's teams placed in the Top 10 at the NCAAs 12 times in his 14 years at USC. Dave Salo took over for Schubert in both roles in 2007.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING — USC has likewise built a successful swimming program on the women's side. In fact, the Women of Troy have finished in the top 10 nationally 28 of the last 35 years — including winning the NCAA title in 1997 — and have produced 258 All-Americans in that span. They have won conference championships in 1979, 1980, 1982 and 1985.

Among USC's top women's swimmers are Michelle Ford, Sue Habernigg, Cynthia Woodhead, Sue Hinderaker, Debbie Rudd, Kristine Quance (she won 9 NCAA titles), Lindsay Benko (5 NCAA titles), Kaitlin Sandeno (2 NCAA titles), diver Blythe Hartley (5 NCAA titles), Rebecca Soni (6 NCAA titles) and Katinka Hosszu (3 NCAA titles).

MEN'S TENNIS — USC's men's tennis legacy has produced numerous national titlists, including 19 team champions (most in the country), 14 singles champions (tied for second in the country) and 21 doubles champs (more than any school). Steve Johnson won the 2011 NCAA singles crown as a freshman, while Kaes Van't Hof and Robert Farah won the 2008 NCAA doubles title.

George Toley (1954-80) guided the Trojans for 26 years before resigning during the 1980 season. His career record was 430-92-4 (.821) with 10 NCAA titles. Dick Leach succeeded Toley and posted a 535-133 (.801) mark in 23 years. His 1991, 1993, 1994 and 2002 teams won the NCAA tourney (his 2002 No. 11-seeded Cinderella team was the lowest seed ever to win the NCAA title and did so a month after Leach announced his retirement) and 8 of his other teams finished fourth or better. His successor, Peter Smith, guided USC to the 2009, 2010 and 2011 NCAA titles after an NCAA semifinal appearance in 2004 and quarterfinals in 2007 and 2008.

Overall, USC players have been named to All-American teams 143 times, with many also enjoying successful pro careers, including Stan Smith, Bob Lutz, Raul Ramirez and Dennis Ralston.

WOMEN'S TENNIS — The most successful women's program at USC, in terms of national titles, is the tennis team, with 7.

Those national crowns all came under Dave Borelli, who coached USC from 1974 to 1988. In duals, Borelli's record was 300-43 (.875).

Five times Trojans have won national singles titles, along with a doubles champ and 82 All-Americans. Prominent USC stars include Barbara Hallquist, Diane Desfor, Lea Antonopolis, Leslie Allen, Sheila McInerney, Stacy Margolin, Trey Lewis, the Fernandez sisters, Kelly Henry, Beth Herr, Caroline Kuhlman, Trisha Laux, Jewel Peterson, Lindsey Nelson and Maria Sanchez.

Richard Gallien, a successful player and coach at Pepperdine, became head coach in 1996. His 1999, 2000, 2001, 2003 and 2005 teams advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals and he got to the NCAA semifinals in 2006.

MEN'S TRACK & FIELD — The Trojans have won an unprecedented 26 NCAA titles (including 9 straight, 1935-43) in the 90-year history of NCAA outdoor track, plus 2 indoor NCAA titles and 35 Pacific Coast or Pac-12 crowns, including a string of 15 straight (1936-55). They have had 42 unbeaten and untied seasons, including a string of 16 in a row (1946-61). Since starting track and field in 1900, USC has compiled a dual-meet record of 413-118-4 (.776).

Outstanding coaches include Dean Cromwell (1909-48), who won a record 12 NCAA titles and had a dual meet mark of 109-48-1; Jess Mortensen, who never lost a dual meet (64-0) in 11 years and won 7 NCAA titles; and Vern Wolfe, who retired after the 1984 season with 7 national titles and a dual meet record of 106-17-1 (.859). Jim Bush, who won 5 NCAA titles while at crosstown rival UCLA, became USC's head coach in 1991. His 1992 Trojans finished third at the NCAAs with only a 6-man team. Ron Allice, who won 11 state titles at Long Beach City College, took over the combined men's and women's programs in 1995 (the men were fourth at the 1995 NCAA meet, 10th in 1996, third in 1997 while winning the Pac-10 title, seventh in 1998, fifth in 1999 while winning the Pac-10 crown, tied for seventh in 2000 while winning the Pac-10 title, tied for 12th in 2001, tied for 11th in 2002, third in 2003 while winning the Pac-10 title, sixth in 2005 while winning the NCAA West Regional crown, tied for ninth in 2006 while winning the Pac-10 and NCAA West Regional meets, fifth in 2007 while repeating as NCAA West Regonal champs, seventh in 2008, 10th in 2009 while winning the NCAA West Regional, fifth in 2010 and 12th in 2011).

Sixty-one USC tracksters have won 89 places on U.S. Olympic teams over the years. Trojans have won 26 individual Olympic titles and shared in 8 relay wins. Gold medal winners include long jumper Randy Williams, pole vaulter Bob Seagren, sprinter Charles Paddock and hurdler Felix Sanchez.

Since 1912, 61 USC trackmen have equalled or bettered world records, and there have been 111 NCAA outdoor individual or relay winners from Troy--including 2005 and 2006 NCAA high jump champ Jesse Williams (he also won indoors both years) and 2007 outdoor/indoor shot put champ Noah Bryant.

The Trojans also have a long history of successful distance running, including 9 Olympians and NCAA champions Julio Marin and Ole Oleson.

WOMEN'S TRACK & FIELD, CROSS COUNTRY — The women's track program at USC has developed into one of the nation's finest. The Trojans have placed in the Top 10 of the NCAA Championships 15 times, including winning the program's first-ever NCAA team title in 2001. The Women of Troy also finished third in 1987, seventh in 1996 (while winning the Pac-10 title), fifth in 1998, third in 1999 (just 4 points from first place), second in 2000 (again just 4 points out of first place), third in 2002, seventh in 2005, second in 2006 (while winning the NCAA West Regional title), seventh in 2007, eighth in 2009 and sixth in 2011.

The women's track and field heritage begins with Sherry Calvert, the former head coach. Calvert, a 4-time All-American javelin thrower at USC who participated in the 1972 and 1976 Olympics, started the program as an undergraduate and coached through 1983. In 1995, Ron Allice took over as the combined men's and women's coach.

The Women of Troy have had many successful track and field athletes. Patty Van Wolvelaere won a pair of national titles in the 100-meter hurdles. Kerry Bell was an All-American heptathlete for 3 years. 1988 NCAA heptathlon champ Wendy Brown and Yvette Bates set world bests in the triple jump during their USC careers. Ashley Selman won the 1990 NCAA javelin title. Angela Williams became the first athlete, male or female, at any level to win 4 consecutive NCAA 100-meter dashes when she did so in 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2002. Natasha Danvers won the 2000 NCAA 400-meter intermediate hurdles. The Women of Troy won the NCAA 1600-meter relay in 1987 and the 400-meter relay in 2000. Brigita Langerholc took the 800 meters and Inga Stasiulionyte captured the javelin, both in the 2001 NCAAs. Natasha Mayers won the NCAA 200 meters in 2002. Virginia Powell won the 2005 and 2006 NCAA indoor and outdoor high hurdles (she also set the collegiate record in the outdoor race). Eva Orban won the hammer at the 2008 NCAAs. Nia Ali was the 2011 NCAA high hurdles champion.

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL — The USC men's volleyball team has made 13 NCAA Final Four appearances since scholarships were first awarded by Troy in the sport in 1977. The Trojans have won 4 NCAA titles (1977, 1980, 1988 and 1990) and have finished second on 7 other occasions (1979-81-85-86-87-91-2009).

Ernie Hix, who retired as head coach after the 1981 season, turned USC into one of the top volleyball powers in the nation. Hix's 8-year record was an impressive 146-47 (.756) with 2 national crowns.

Twenty-four Trojans have played on the U.S. National team and USC volleyballers have been named first team All-Americans 30 times. In the 1984 Olympics, Steve Timmons, Dusty Dvorak and Pat Powers helped lead the U.S. to its first gold medal in the sport, while Timmons repeated with the 1988 U.S. squad. Timmons, Bryan Ivie, Nick Becker and Dan Greenbaum won bronze medals with the U.S. in 1992. Tim Hovland, Celso Kalache, Adam Johnson, former coach Bob Yoder (a 3-time All-American who coached Troy to an NCAA title in 1988), Donald Suxho, Brook Billings and Murphy Troy also are key figures in USC's volleyball heritage. Jim McLaughlin took over for Yoder in 1990 and led Troy to an NCAA title in his initial year. Bill Ferguson, who took over in 2007, led USC to the NCAA Final Four in 2009 (for the first time since 1991) and 2011.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL — USC has won 6 national crowns in women's volleyball, the first 4 under coach Chuck Erbe. Erbe, who dominated the sport during his 12-year USC coaching tenure which began in 1976, posted a career record of 310-121-3 (.718). He coached the 1976, 1977 and 1980 AIAW champions and the 1981 NCAA titlists. His 1976 team registered the first perfect season (38-0) in women's volleyball history.

Lisa Love, who coached at Texas-Arlington for 7 years, took over for Erbe in 1989 and guided USC into the NCAAs in 9 of her 10 seasons before retiring after the 1998 season. Jerritt Elliott served as interim head coach in 1999 and 2000, guiding the 2000 club to the NCAA Final Four. Mick Haley, head coach of the 2000 U.S. women's Olympic team who won 2 national crowns in the 1980s while at Texas, took over in 2001 and advanced to that season's NCAA regional final. Then, in 2002 and 2003, his teams won the NCAA crown, with the 2003 club going 35-0. USC got to the NCAA Final Four in 2004, 2007 and 2010.

Debbie Green (1978) and April Ross (2004) won the prestigious Honda Award in volleyball. Trojans have been named first team All-American 39 times and earned spots on Olympic rosters 22 times (including Green, Sue Woodstra, Paula Weishoff, Carolyn Becker, Kim Ruddins and Nicole Davis).

MEN'S WATER POLO — Since starting water polo in 1922, the Trojans have compiled a 1,112-501-7 (.689) record, winning 18 conference championships.

John Williams led the Trojans to national prominence since during his tenure from 1973 to 1998. Nineteen of his last 22 teams finished the season in the top 7 nationally, including the 1998 NCAA championship team and the 1987, 1993, 1994, 1996 and 1997 squads which placed second in the NCAA tourney. Jovan Vavic, who joined as co-head coach in 1995, took over as head coach in 1999. His 2003, 2005, 2008, 2009 and 2010 teams won the NCAA championship (4 of his other squads were runners-up), with his 2008 Trojans going 29-0.

Eighteen USC poloists have participated in the Olympics and Trojans have made All-American teams 173 times. Some of the prominent names in USC water polo history are Ron Severa, Wally Wolf, Charles Bittick, Greg Fults, Zach Stimson, Craig Furniss, Charles Harris, Robert Lynn, Drew Netherton, Hrvoje Cizmic, Marko Zagar, Simun Cimerman, Marko Pintaric, George Csaszar, Pedraj Damjanov, Bozidar Damjanovic, Juraj Zatovic (who in 2005 was USC's first male winner of the Peter J. Cutino Award as the National Player of the Year), Juan Delgadillo, J.W. Krumpholz (2008 Olympian and 2-time National Player of the Year) and Joel Dennerly.

WOMEN'S WATER POLO — USC's women's water polo team began play in 1995 under head coach Jovan Vavic. Five years later, the 1999 Women of Troy--led by National Player of the Year and 2000 U.S. Olympic goalie Bernice Orwig--won the national championship in a 5-overtime victory over Stanford. USC was second in the national tourney in 2000. Then in 2004, USC--behind National Player of the Year Moriah Van Norman--turned in the sport's first undefeated season (29-0) in winning the NCAA title. USC was third in the 2005 and 2007 NCAAs and second in 2006, 2008 and 2009 before winning the 2010 NCAA crown (it was fourth in 2011).

Eight Trojans participated in the 2008 Olympics. Besides Orwig and Van Norman, other top players have included Aniko Pelle (the 2000 National Player of the Year), Nina Wengst, Olympian Sofia Konoukh, Katrin Dierolf, Kelly Graff, Lauren Wenger (the 2006 National Player of the Year), Brittany Hayes, Erika Figge, Kami Craig (the 2009 and 2010 National Player of the Year) and Kristen Dronberger.

USC NATIONAL TITLES

USC has long dominated the world of intercollegiate athletics. In fact, it could be argued that Troy was the "Collegiate Athletic Program of the 20th Century." USC men and women have combined for 115 national team titles.

Trojan men's teams are tops in the nation in NCAA championships with 79 — more than any other university. Overall, USC's men have won 91 national championships.

USC won the National Collegiate All-Sports Championship — an annual ranking by USA Today (previously The Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs — 6 times (1971-72-74-75-77-80) since its inception in 1971.

USC's women are also a force, with 23 national team titles, all since 1976.

From 1959-60 to 1984-85, USC put together an amazing streak. In each of those 26 years, at least one Trojan team won a national championship (including five crowns in both 1962-63 and 1976-77).

TROJANS STAR IN CLASSROOM

USC is as proud of its student-athletes' achievements in the classroom as on the playing field.

After all, the Trojans not only are second in the nation in the number of national team championships (92 by the men and 23 by the women), but rank in the Top 10 in the number of NCAA post-graduate scholarship recipients (51, including 20 football players).

Also, USC athletics has had 4 Rhodes Scholars (quarterback Pat Haden, swimmer Desmond Koh, trackster James O'Toole and basketballer Reed Doucette), 29 first team Academic All-Americans (including 22 footballers, tops among Pac-10 schools and in the Top 10 in the nation), 8 winners of the prestigious NCAA Today's Top Eight scholar award, 12 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, 12 recipients of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award (second most in the nation, behind Yale's 13), an NCAA Walter Byers Post-Graduate Scholar (soccer player Amy Massey), an NCAA Inspiration Award winner (swimmer Mike Nyeholt), an NCAA Women's Enhancement Program Post-Graduate Scholar (soccer player Laura Servis), 2 NCAA Ethnic-Minority Enhancement Program Post-Graduate Scholars (footballers Dong Koo and Travis Watkins), a Luce Scholar (swimmer Dennis Scannell), 2 USC valedictorians (water poloist Craig Furniss and volleyballer Alaina Kipps) and a USC salutatorian (track/cross country's Kate Neeper). In 1988, Haden was inducted into the charter 6-member class of the GTE Academic All-American Hall of Fame and baseball star Don Buford Jr. won the first-ever Woody Hayes Academic All-American Award presented by the Columbus Touchdown Club to the top NCAA Division I male student-athlete (footballer John Jackson won the award in 1990 and volleyballer Katie Haller won the women's award in 1994). Jackson was also named a winner of the first-ever NACDA/Disney Scholar-Athlete Award in 1990, and Jeremy Hogue, Matt Keneley and Mike Van Raaphorst were 1996, 1997 and 2000 NACDA Foundation Preseason Games Scholar-Athletes, respectively (Keneley also received a NACDA Foundation Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1997). In 1997, Keith Van Horne was named to the GTE Academic All-American All-Time Football Team. Footballer Lee Webb won a Wilma Rudolph Student Athlete Achievement Award fromthe National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics in 2005.

The Nov. 1994 issue of The Sporting News examined the relative academic strength of the nation's top 25 football teams and found USC's players ranked second in high school GPA, sixth in SAT scores and third in ACT scores.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR PAT HADEN

Pat Haden, a Rhodes Scholar quarterback who played on 2 national championship teams at USC and a Super Bowl squad with the Los Angeles Rams before becoming a successful businessman and football broadcaster, assumed the Charles Griffin Cale Director of Athletics' Chair at his alma mater on Aug. 3, 2010.

The 58-year-old Haden oversees 21 men's and women's teams and the $74 million budget that make up the nation's most tradition-rich athletic program.

In his first year at the helm (2010-11), USC won NCAA titles in men's water polo and men's tennis. Ten Trojan teams finished in the Top 7 at the NCAA Championships.

Along with his athletic director position, he received a joint faculty appointment in the USC Marshall School of Business and USC Annenberg School for Communication and Journalism. He works with faculty to design new curricula in areas such as sports business and sports journalism, and lectures and teaches courses.

From 1987 to 2010, Haden was a partner and managing director of Riordan, Lewis & Haden, a Los Angeles private equity firm that invests in high-growth middle market companies. His partners were former Los Angeles mayor Richard Riordan and Chris Lewis, an All-American tennis player on a pair of USC's NCAA championship teams.

From 1982 to 1987, Haden was an attorney in the Los Angeles office of Lillick, McHose & Charles.

He also was an analyst on college and pro football telecasts for CBS (1982-90), TNT (1990-97), NBC (1998-2009, where he did Notre Dame games) and FOX (2008) and on radio with CBS and Westwood One.

He served on USC's Board of Trustees from 1991 until 2010 and chaired the board's Academic Affairs and Student Affairs committees. He was a key adviser to a pair of USC provosts, working closely with them on all aspects of the university's teaching and research mission. He also chaired the fundraising initiative of USC's College of Letters, Arts and Sciences. He served on the USC Alumni Association Board of Governors from 1984 to 1988.

He has served on numerous corporate and non-profit boards, including Systems Management Specialists, Data Processing Resources Corporation, Adohr Farms, Tetra Tech, The Apothecary Shops, Rose Hills Foundation, Fletcher Jones Foundation, Good Samaritan Hospital, Boys Town of Southern California, Multiple Sclerosis Society of Los Angeles and Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles. He formerly chaired the March of Dimes Reading Olympics in Los Angeles and the Boys Life National Illiteracy Campaign.

Haden exemplified the term "student-athlete" while at USC. Not only was he one of Troy's most productive quarterbacks, but he starred in the classroom.

A 3-time letterman (1972-73-74), he led the Trojans in passing in 1973 and 1974 (and in total offense in 1973). He was a member of USC's 1972 and 1974 national championship teams and played in 3 Rose Bowls. He was Co-MVP of the 1975 Rose Bowl (with lifelong friend J.K. McKay, the son of head coach John McKay and now a senior associate athletic director at USC) when he threw for 181 yards and 2 scores, including a TD pass (to McKay) and a PAT pass late in the game, for a comeback 18-17 win over Ohio State. A Trojan co-captain in 1974, he was named the team's MVP and Most Inspirational Player that season and was selected to play in the 1975 Hula Bowl. He helped orchestrate one of the greatest comebacks in college football history, throwing 4 touchdowns to lead USC to a 55-24 win over Notre Dame in 1974 after trailing 24-0 late in the first half. He still ranks 14th on USC's career passing list (241 completions) and is 15th in total offense (3,802 yards). He threw for 3,288 yards and 33 TDs in his career.

He was a 2-time Academic All-American (1973-74) and was named an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholar, NCAA Today's Top Five Award winner and National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete in 1974.

Haden graduated from USC magna cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa in 1975 with a bachelor's degree in English and was awarded a Rhodes scholarship to Oxford, where he received a bachelor's degree in philosophy, politics and economics in 1978. He received a law degree from Loyola Law School in 1982.

A seventh round pick of the Los Angeles Rams in the 1975 NFL draft, he played for the Southern California Sun of the World Football League in 1975 and then the Rams for 6 seasons (1976-81) while also attending Oxford. He led the Rams to 3 NFC West Division titles (1976-77-78) and the team advanced to the NFC Championship Game in 1976 and 1978. He began 1979 as the starter, but was sidelined with a broken finger midway through the season as the Rams made it to the Super Bowl. He was the Rams' Rookie of the Year in 1976, made the Pro Bowl in 1977 and was named the NFC Player of the Year in 1978 by the Washington D.C. Touchdown Club. In his career, he completed 731-of-1,363 passes (53.6%) for 9,296 yards and 52 touchdowns.

He starred in football at Bishop Amat High in La Puente (Calif.), where he lived with the McKay family during his senior year because his family moved out of state.

He was born on Jan. 23, 1953. He and his wife of 34 years, Cindy, have 2 daughters, Natalie O'Connor, 32, and Kelly Paulus, 31 (she played soccer at Georgetown and her husband, David, played football and basketball there), and 2 sons, Ryan, 30 (he played football briefly at USC), and Taylor, 28, as well as 5 grandsons.

USC Athletic Directors

Willis O. Hunter*	1925-57
Jess Hill*	1957-72
John McKay	1972-75
Richard Perry*	1975-84
Mike McGee*	1984-93
Mike Garrett	1993-2010
Pat Haden	2010-

*Member of National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics Hall of Fame

Note: Records are unclear prior to Hunter's tenure. One reference source listed William Clay as "athletic manager" in 1909 and cited him as USC's first A.D. Another source listed Elmer Henderson as football coach and athletic director from 1919 to 1924. Still another source said "graduate managers" were akin to athletic directors and listed Warren Bovard, Henry Bruce, Gwynn Wilson (1921-30) and Arnold Eddy (1930 and on) in that role (that source also claimed Eddy was athletic director in 1941-44).

USC SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE —The Sports Information Office (director Tim Tessalone and assistants Paul Goldberg, Darcy Couch, David Tuttle, Jason Pommier and Chris Roberts) is located in the southeast corner of the first floor of Heritage Hall. It houses files containing USC athletic history, player and coach biographies, statistics and photographs. The office phone number is (213) 740-8480. The fax number is (213) 740-7584. There is a work area for media,with complimentary wireless internet access. Nearby on-campus parking is available by calling the office in advance.

PLAYER/COACH INTERVIEWS — Please arrange all player and coach interviews through the Sports Information Office, at least a day in advance. A reminder: per NCAA rules, current athletes cannot record promotional taglines for media outlets.

USC PRACTICES — Most Trojan practices on Howard Jones Field are open to the local media. Please call in advance to confirm the schedule.

GAME CREDENTIALS — Because of space limitations, only members of the media who cover USC on a regular basis (plus media accompanying the visiting team) will be considered for credentials to Trojan home games. Credentials and parking passes are issued on a game-by-game basis. Requests for game credentials should be sent at least 48 hours prior to kickoff to: Tim Tessalone, USC Sports Information Office, HER 103, Los Angeles, Calif. 90089-0601, 213-740-8480, tessalon@usc.edu. Credentials can be picked up beginning 3 hours before kickoff on game day at press will call outside the press box elevator near Tunnel 6 on the south side of the Coliseum. Those picking up credentials must present a valid ID and a waiver must be signed. Credentials are non-transferrable. Three types of credentials are issued: press box (good for press box seat during game, field access during last 5 minutes of game), TV and photo (both provide field and press box roof access, limited press box access with no seat). All credentials provide post-game locker room access. Television cameramen and still photographers are not allowed on the sidelines between the 25-yard lines in the area of the team benches.

PRESS BOX — Located on the south (Martin Luther King Blvd.) side of the Coliseum, the press box is for the use of the working media and guests of USC's athletic department only. Access is via the elevators near Tunnel 6. The upper level has seats for the working media, while the lower level houses radio and television broadcasting booths. The roof is available for cameramen and photographers. Members of USC's Sports Information Office are located in the middle row of the upper level (seats 219-223) during games. To get from the press box to the field at the end of the game (and to enable continued viewing of the game action), most media exit through either side door and walk through the stands.

PRESS BOX SERVICES — A complimentary meal is served in the press box. Game programs, flip cards and game notes are distributed before kickoff (these are also available on the field to photographers). Quarterly play-by-plays, plus halftime and final statistics, are distributed, as are transcribed post-game locker room quotes from Coach Kiffin and the visiting coach. Game action is shown on indoor TV monitors posted throughout the press box. A detailed play-by-play and Coach Kiffin's post-game press conference are broadcast over the press box public address system. USC provides complimentary wireless internet access and fax service in the press box. Several charge-a-call phones are located in the visiting press section in the first row of the upper level and available on a first-come basis. To order a telephone, contact phone technician Leo Caudillo at (213) 765-6353, lcaudillo@lacoliseum.com. To call the press box on game day for score updates, dial either (213) 741-1341 or (213) 747-7111 (ask for the press box extension).

MEDIA ON-FIELD GUIDELINES — Media with credentials who are permitted on the field during the game (generally TV camera operators and still photographers) must remain outside the dotted line that encircles the field. A special "photo alley" has been drawn between the end zones and 25-yard lines on both sides of the field and behind both end zones; photographers only are permitted inside this "alley" as long as they kneel. Photographers who choose not to kneel must stand behind the alley, along with all others on the field, including USC guests. Media should refrain from conducting post-game USC player/coach interviews on the field before the team enters the locker room, unless approved by a member of the USC Sports Information Office. No one under the age of 18 is allowed on the field at any time.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS — The USC and visiting team locker rooms are located inside the tunnel at the west end of the Coliseum. Due to NCAA sanctions, the USC locker room is closed to the media. After a 10-minute "cooling off" period, coach Kiffin and several key Trojan players will conduct a post-game press session in the USC interview room.

VIDEO SERVICES — The Pac-12 Office makes available to the media a weekly video featuring highlights and interviews from all league schools (call 925-932-4411 for information).

USC ATHLETICS ON THE WEB — The USC athletic department has an official video-based home page on the web (USCTrojans.com), featuring current and historical information about Trojan sports.
